DOG OWNERS ACT
DOG OWNERS REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 20 of the Dog Owners Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. D-13.01, Council made the following regulations:

- 1. Qualifications for enforcement officers
 - (1) A person appointed as an enforcement officer pursuant to subsection 3(1) of the Act shall have the following qualifications:
 - (a) education or experience in handling animals satisfactory to the Minister;
 - (b) knowledge of the Act and these regulations satisfactory to the Minister;

- (c) successfully completed an enforcement officer investigative training program, approved by the Minister;
- (d) legally entitled to drive in the province;
- (e) has no outstanding charges for or has not been found guilty of an offence under the Criminal Code or the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (Canada) that, in the Minister’s opinion, renders the person unsuitable to act as an enforcement officer.

Ceasing to act as an enforcement officer

- (2) Where a person appointed as an enforcement officer pursuant to subsection 3(1) of the Act ceases to be employed or engaged as an enforcement officer, the person’s appointment is revoked and the person, or the person or organization for which the person was an officer or employee, shall return the certificate of appointment to the Minister.

2. Effective period of licence

- (1) A licence shall be effective for either one year or the lifetime of the dog, as specified on the licence certificate.

Lifetime licence

- (2) The Minister may issue a licence that is effective for the lifetime of the dog where the Minister is satisfied that the dog
 - (a) has been sterilized; and
 - (b) has an implant consisting of a radio-frequency identification microchip with a unique code that meets ISO Standards 11784 and 11785, linked to a reliable and available database containing contact information for the owner.

Renewal of annual licence

- (3) On application in the form required by the Minister and on payment of the prescribed fee, the Minister may renew a licence that is effective for one year, which shall be effective on renewal for one year.

Licence not transferable

- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), a licence is not transferable and ceases to be effective when ownership of the dog changes.

3. Fees

The fees prescribed for the purposes of the Act and these regulations are as set out in Schedule 1.

4. Commencement of proceedings
