

Apprenticeship Application Form

This form contains three parts: the Apprenticeship Application, the Employer Application and the Apprenticeship Training Agreement. Each of these must be filled out completely in order for the apprenticeship application to be processed. Please be accurate with dates, phone numbers, addresses etc. and please print clearly. Incomplete forms or forms that cannot be read will be returned to the applicant.

The Apprenticeship Application must be completed by the applicant (apprentice). To receive credit for high school trade courses, the applicant must submit a copy of their high school transcript with the application form. To receive credit for post-secondary courses, the applicant must submit a copy of their graduation certificate with the application form.

The Employer Application must be completed by the employer.

The Apprenticeship Training Agreement must be signed by the applicant and the employer or employer's representative. These signatures must be witnessed. If the applicant is under 18 years of age, a parent/guardian must also sign the application.

Apprenticeship Application

Identifying yourself as belonging to an under-represented group is voluntary.

Although your employer or future employer(s) will not know which group you identify with, they may receive additional funding from CAS if you choose to complete this form. The information you provide may be used to develop new programs that promote the participation of diverse individuals in apprenticeship. No information identifying you will be disclosed.

If your employer is eligible for the program and if you choose to identify with an under-represented group, we will follow up with you.

Definitions of Under-represented Groups

1. Woman

Women are participants who self-identify their gender as woman. Gender refers to an individual's personal and social identity as a man, woman or non-binary person (a person who is not exclusively a man or a woman).

2. Indigenous

Indigenous individuals are participants who self-identify as having Indigenous identity. This includes those who identify as First Nations (North American Indian), Métis and/or Inuk (Inuit), and/or those who report being Registered or Treaty Indians (that is, registered under the Indian Act of Canada), and/or those who have membership in a First Nation or Indian band.

3. Visible minorities

Persons who self-identify as being a visible minority. The Employment Equity Act defines visible minorities as "persons, other than Aboriginal peoples, who are non-Caucasian in race or non-white in colour".

4. Persons with disabilities

Persons with disabilities are participants who self-identify as having have a disability in one of the following categories: Seeing, Hearing, Mobility, Flexibility, Dexterity, Pain-related, Learning, Developmental, Mental health-related, and Memory. The disability must result in a limitation in daily activities. The presence of a difficulty alone is not sufficient – individuals whose disability rarely presents them with some level of difficulty in their daily activities are excluded.

5. Newcomers

Newcomers are participants who self-identify as having arrived in Canada within the last ten years and are legally entitled to work in Canada, including permanent residents, Canadian citizens or persons granted refugee status in Canada.

6. LGBTQ2S+

Persons who self-identify as a member of the LGBTQ2S+ community. The acronym LGBTQ2S+ includes lesbian, gay, bisexual, or another minority sexual identity such as asexual or pansexual, as well as minority gender identity (trans and non-binary identities like genderqueer, gender fluid, pangender or agender).
