26. Father’s/Other Parent’s consent
   Where it is possible to identify and contact the person who is apparently the father or other parent of a child who is being placed, even though that person does not meet the requirements for clear entitlement to consent under clause 22(c) of the Act, the person arranging the placement, or an authorized social worker in a case of placement by permit, shall make reasonable efforts to
   (a) inform the presumed father or other parent that placement and adoption are intended;
   (b) explain to him or her the Act’s provisions concerning establishing parentage and a parent’s entitlement to placement counselling and to consent or not to placement and to adoption; and

31. New consent if placement changed

Where a person gives consent to a child’s placement with a specified person or persons, the child shall not subsequently be placed with a different person or persons unless a fresh consent is obtained, or else the first consent expressly allows for a change without the need of a fresh consent. (EC526/93)

32. Revocation

(1) A person may revoke her or his consent to placement if she or he
   (a) has not given a consent to adoption which remains in force; and
   (b) gives notice to the Director, and to the person to whom the consent was originally given, and through that person to the person responsible for arranging the placement, so as to allow new custody arrangements to be made.

Idem

(2) Where a consent to placement is revoked pursuant to subsection (1), custody of the child reverts to the person who had custody prior to the giving of the consent. (EC526/93; 614/96)

RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION

34. Assessment of placement risk

An assessment of placement risk shall be carried out before actual placement of a child or, if that is not possible or it was previously not known that adoption was the purpose or likely outcome, the assessment shall be conducted within the shortest possible time after it is evident that the child is in fact placed for adoption. (EC526/93)

38. Criteria
The criteria to be used in an assessment of placement risk are as follows:

(h) no evidence that the motives of the prospective adoptive parent or parents are likely to cause results contrary to the best interests of the child. (EC526/93; 614/96)

39. Cooperation in conduct of assessment
It is a placement requirement that the members of an intended placement household shall cooperate with the carrying-out of the assessment of placement risk, and assent to any necessary checks of information which might otherwise be confidential. (EC526/93)

40. Report
(1) The person who conducts an assessment of placement risk shall prepare a report of it in Form 8 (Assessment of Placement Risk), and the report shall include either a statement that no evidence of risk has been found, or a description of any risk determined and the evidence on which that was based.

41. Revision of placement plan

   (1) If an assessment of placement risk gives reason to believe that there is apparent risk to the child’s basic welfare, then the person making the placement shall reconsider the plan, and either make adjustments and apply conditions so as to control the risk, or else make a new plan for placement of the child.

   Mitigation of risk

   (2) The person making the placement shall inform the Director of what measures have been taken under subsection (1) to mitigate apparent risk.

   Powers of Director
