CIVIL SERVICE SUPERANNUATION ACT
CHAPTER C-9
GENERAL REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 28 of the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9, Council made the following regulations:

1. Definition

2. Surplus funds after transfer
   Where a person transfers a lump-sum amount from the Fund to a registered pension plan under section 3 of the Act in respect of a transfer of service, any surplus funds remaining after the transfer shall remain in the Fund.

3. Proof of eligibility - member or vested former member
   (1) Where a member or vested former member is applying for pension benefits, the member or vested former member shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:
      (a) a declaration that the person is the member or vested former member;
      (b) proof of the member or vested former member’s date of birth.

   Proof of eligibility - person eligible for separate pension
   (2) Where a person who is eligible for a separate pension under section 27.01 of the Act is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:
      (a) a declaration that the person is entitled to a separate pension;
      (b) proof of the person’s date of birth.

   Proof of eligibility - spouse or former spouse
   (3) Where a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) where the person was married to the member, vested former member or pensioner, a copy of the marriage certificate or an equivalent document evidencing the marriage;

(b) where the person was not married to the member, vested former member or pensioner,
   (i) proof that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were claiming each other as common-law spouses on a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada), or
   (ii) if applicable, a copy of a long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were the natural or adoptive parents of a child or children;

(c) a declaration that the spouse or former spouse and the member, vested former member or pensioner were living together for a continuous period of at least three years, including on the date of death of the member, vested former member or pensioner;

(d) proof of the dates of birth of both the spouse or former spouse and the member, vested former member or pensioner.

Proof of eligibility - dependent child

Where a dependent child of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits under section 13 or 13.1 of the Act, the dependent child, or his or her guardian, shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a copy of a long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the dependent child is the natural or adopted child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;

(b) where the child is 18 years of age or older and dependent on the member, vested former member or pensioner for maintenance and support by reason of mental or physical disability,
   (i) confirmation from a medical practitioner that the person applying for the benefit has a mental or physical disability that renders the person dependent on the member, vested former member of pensioner, and
   (ii) proof that the member, vested former member or pensioner was claiming the dependent child when filing a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the year preceding the date of the application;

(c) where the child is 18 years of age or older and is attending post-secondary studies, evidence of attendance on a full-time basis at an institution of learning described in subsection 14(2) of the Student Financial Assistance Act R.S.P.E.I.1988, Cap. S-8.2;

(d) a declaration that the person was at the time of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s death, and still is, the dependent child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;

(e) proof of the dates of birth of both the dependent child and the member, vested former member or pensioner.
Personal representative

(5) Where a personal representative of a member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension is applying for pension benefits under the Act, the personal representative shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a copy of the letters probate or letters of administration of the Supreme Court or a superior court of a province or territory appointing the person as the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;

(b) a declaration that the person is the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;

(c) a copy of the death certificate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension.

Alternative information

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (5), the Commission may accept alternative information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits if, in the opinion of the Commission, the required information is not reasonably available to the person who is making the application for pension benefits.

Additional information

(7) In addition to the information required by subsections (1) to (5), an applicant for pension benefits shall provide any additional information required by the Commission to establish the applicant’s proof of eligibility for pension benefits under the Act.

Periodic proof

(8) Where a dependent child is in receipt of a benefit, the Commission may require periodic proof of continued dependency.
