COMPLAINTS

2. (1) The Minister may designate an employee of the Department as a review officer.

(2) A review officer shall, in accordance with these regulations, review complaints respecting the decisions of the Director.

COMPLAINTS

2. (1) The Minister may designate an employee of the Department as a review officer.

(2) A review officer shall, in accordance with these regulations, review complaints respecting the decisions of the Director.

3. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Director may, in accordance with this section, make a complaint to the Director.

(2) A complaint shall be made in writing and shall

(a) identify or describe the decision of the Director that is the subject of the complaint;

(b) state in detail the nature of the complaint and the efforts that the complainant has undertaken to have the decision reconsidered by the Director before filing the complaint; and

(c) provide the address and phone number of the complainant.

4. On receipt of a complaint submitted in accordance with section 3, the Director shall give to the Minister

(a) the complaint; and

(b) a description of

(i) the efforts that the Director has undertaken to review with the complainant the decision that is subject of the complaint, and

(ii) the reasons why the Director has not reconsidered that decision.

5. (1) On receipt of a complaint, the Minister shall direct a review officer to review the complaint and shall provide the review officer with a copy of the complaint and the description referred to in clause 4(b).

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a review officer who is directed to review a complaint shall commence the review of the complaint as soon as possible and shall complete the review within 30 days of the date the direction is received by the review officer.

(3) A review officer may, at any time,

(a) dismiss a complaint where the review officer determines that the complaint is frivolous or without merit; or

(b) discontinue the review of a complaint where, before the review is completed,

(i) the complaint is withdrawn by the complainant, or

(ii) the complaint is resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant.

(4) A review officer shall, as soon as possible, give notice of any decision by the review officer to dismiss or discontinue the review of a complaint to

(a) the Minister;

(b) the Director; and

(c) the complainant.
6. (1) When conducting the review of a complaint, a review officer shall make reasonable efforts to determine the views of
(a) the complainant,
(b) the person affected by the decision that is the subject of the complaint, if that person is not the complainant, and
(c) the Director;
(b) may make inquiries orally or in writing of any person whom the review officer believes has, or may have, information relevant to the review of the complaint; and
(c) shall consider
(i) the information and views obtained pursuant to clause (a),
(ii) the purposes of the Act,
(iii) the resources available to the Director to satisfy the complaint, and
(iv) the reasonableness of the use of any of those resources for the satisfaction of the complaint.

(2) On completing his or her review of a complaint, the review officer shall determine
(a) if the review officer agrees or disagrees with the decision of the Director that is the subject of the complaint; and
(b) if the review officer disagrees with the decision of the Director that is the subject of the complaint, determine the course of action that the review officer considers appropriate to recommend for settlement of the complaint.

(3) The review officer shall give to the Director and to the Minister a written notice setting out any determination made under subsection (2).

7. On receipt of the written notice from a review officer given in accordance with subsection 6(3), the Director shall
(a) review the notice, including any recommendation provided by the review officer for the settlement of the complaint;
(b) make a final decision of the matter; and
(c) by registered mail, give a written copy of the Director’s final decision to the complainant and to the Minister.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

8. (1) The Director shall keep separate records, containing information gathered in the administration of the Act, in respect of a person who
(a) is a child, youth or parent; and
(b) receives child welfare services under the Act.

(2) The Director shall identify and mark each record made under the Act with the name of the child, youth or parent to whom the record pertains.

9. On receipt of a request made by a person who is the subject of a record made under the prior Act for disclosure of information contained in the record, the Director may refuse to disclose any information contained in the record that pertains to any other person.

10. (1) A request for disclosure of information in a record shall be made to the Director, in writing, and shall specify
(a) the nature of the information that is wanted;
(b) the purpose and intended use of the information; and
(c) whether the person requesting the disclosure wishes
(i) to obtain a copy of the record, or
(ii) to examine the record.

(2) Subject to the Act and these regulations, the Director shall make every reasonable effort to respond to a request for the disclosure of information in a record not later than 60 days after receiving the request.

(3) The response of the Director shall be made, in writing, to the person requesting the disclosure and shall advise that person
(a) whether disclosure of all or some of information in the record is granted or refused;
(b) if disclosure of information is granted of all or some of the information in the record, when, where and how the disclosure will be provided; and
(c) if disclosure of all or some of the information in the record is refused,
(i) of the reasons for the refusal, and
(ii) of the name of a person who can answer questions concerning the refusal.

11. (1) A person who is the subject of a record and who believes that there is an error or omission in the information in the record may, in writing, request the Director to correct the information.

(2) On receipt of a request made pursuant to subsection (1), the Director shall review the request and determine whether there is an error or omission in the information in the record.

(3) Where the Director determines that there is an error or omission in the information in the record, the Director shall
(a) correct any error by removing the error; and
(b) correct any omission by adding the information missing.

(4) Where the Director determines that there is no error or omission in the record, the Director shall refuse to correct the record and shall
(a) provide written notice of the refusal to the person who made the request for the correction; and
(b) advise the person who made the request of the name of a person who can answer questions concerning the refusal.

12. (1) The Director shall note on a record
(a) every disclosure of information from the record made to a person requesting disclosure; and
(b) every request for a correction of the record that is refused.

(2) A notation made under subsection (1) and a correction made under section 12 form part of the record.

GENERAL REPORTS

13. (1) The general report given by the Director in accordance with subsection 12(5) of the Act shall be given in writing.

(2) Where, after carrying out an investigation in respect of a child, the Director determines that the child is not in need of protection, the general report given by the Director pursuant to subsection 12(5) of the Act shall state that
(a) the Director has determined that the child is not in need of protection; and
(b) the investigation is concluded.

(3) Where, after carrying out an investigation in respect of a child, the Director determines that the child is in need of protection, the general report given by the Director pursuant to subsection 12(5) of the Act shall state that
(a) the Director has determined that the child is in need of protection; and
(b) the reasons for that determination.

(4) Where, after carrying out an investigation in respect of a child, the Director makes an application to the court under section 29 of the Act, the Director is not required to give a general report of the results of the investigation pursuant to subsection 12(5) of the Act.

ALTERNATIVE APPROACHES

14. (1) For the purposes of using an alternative approach for the development of a plan of care for a child, the Director shall establish a list of facilitators composed of persons whom the Director considers to be qualified to conduct an alternative approach.

(2) Where, under subsection 16(1) of the Act, the Director initiates an alternative approach for the development of a plan of care for a child, the Director shall choose, from the list established under subsection (1), a facilitator to conduct the alternative approach.

(3) The cost of the services provided by a facilitator shall be paid by the Director in accordance with the rates established by the Director.

(4) The Director may pay all or part of any day-to-day expenses that are necessary for the parent of the child to attend any appointments associated with the use of an alternative approach for the development of a plan of care for a child, including expenses for

(a) transportation;
(b) day care; and
(c) food.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister shall appoint as members of an Advisory Committee

(a) the Director of Child Welfare or an employee of the Department nominated by the Director;
(b) an employee of each health authority who is knowledgeable about child welfare services;
(c) a legal aid lawyer;
(d) a lawyer who provides legal services to the Director;
(e) three persons, 16 years of age or more, of whom at least one shall be a youth, who have received child welfare services;
(f) two persons who have demonstrated an informed concern for the welfare of children; and
(g) such other persons, not exceeding two, as the Minister may determine.

(2) Among the persons appointed as members of an Advisory Committee shall be

(a) a person who is fluent in French and English; and
(b) a person who is an aboriginal person.

(3) The Minister may appoint one of the members of an Advisory Committee as its chairperson.

(4) Members of an Advisory Committee shall serve from the time of their appointment until the time the report of the Advisory Committee is delivered to the Minister pursuant to section 58 of the Act, which shall in no case be longer than six months from the time the Advisory Committee is appointed.

DECLARATION RE

EC2003-218

INTERJURISDICTIONAL SUPPORT ORDERS ACT
GENERAL REGULATIONS

Pursuant to subsection 41(4) of the Interjurisdictional Support Orders Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. I-4.2, Council made the following regulations:

1. In these regulations

   (a) “Act” means the Interjurisdictional Support Orders Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. I-4.2;

2. For the purposes of subsection 4(2) of the Act, a support application must be in the form required by the applicable designated authority and must include

   (a) the financial information required in the support application form;

   (b) other information and documents required by the reciprocating jurisdiction; and

   (c) the original application and two copies of it for transmission to the reciprocating jurisdiction.

3. For the purposes of subsection 5(3) of the Act, where a reciprocating jurisdiction requests further information or documents from a claimant, the claimant shall, within the time required by the request, provide to the Director for transmission to the reciprocating jurisdiction.
(a) the further information requested as part of an affidavit and the further documents requested as exhibits to an affidavit; and
(b) two copies of the affidavit required by clause (a).

4. (1) Where a reciprocating jurisdiction requires a provisional order referred to subsection 6(1) of the Act, the claimant shall apply for the order
(a) by completing the support application referred to in subsection 4(2) of the Act in the form required by the designated authority and including the documents referred to in section 2; and
(b) by submitting the support application and a proposed provisional order to the designated authority to be filed with the court.

(2) The support application, including the documents referred to in sections 2 and 3, is evidence in the proceeding.

(3) Unless otherwise directed by a court, an application for a provisional order may proceed without an appearance by a claimant.

5. After being served by the designated authority with a support application and a notice in accordance with subsection 8(1) of the Act, a respondent shall
(a) provide the information or documents requested by the designated authority in the notice served with the support application;
(b) complete the form provided by the designated authority; and
(c) bring the information or documents and form required by clauses (a) and (b) to the hearing of the application.

6. (1) A party to an extra-provincial or foreign order who wishes to apply under subsection 18(2) of the Act to have the registration of the order set aside shall file a Notice of Motion, in accordance with the Rules of Court, setting out the grounds for setting aside the registration, not later than 30 days from receiving notice of the registration of the order.

(2) A Notice of Motion filed under subsection (1) shall be served by the applicant on the Director not later than 20 days before the hearing date of the motion.

(3) Service on the Director may be by the following means:
(a) personal service by leaving a copy with an employee of the Maintenance Enforcement Office;
(b) postal mail or fax sent to the Maintenance Enforcement Office.

7. For the purposes of subsection 18(6) of the Act, notice of a decision or order of the Supreme Court shall be given
(a) to the Director by personal service, by postal mail or by facsimile; and
(b) to the parties by postal mail at each party’s last known address.

8. For the purposes of subsection 23(2) of the Act, a support variation application must be in the form required by the applicable designated authority and must include
(a) the financial information as required in the support variation application form;
(b) any other information or documents that are required by the reciprocating jurisdiction; and
(c) two copies of the application, in addition to the original application for transmission to the reciprocating jurisdiction.

9. For the purposes of subsection 24(3) of the Act, where a reciprocating jurisdiction requests further information or documents from a claimant, the claimant shall, within the time required by the request, provide to the Director for transmission to the reciprocating jurisdiction
(a) the further information requested as part of an affidavit and the further documents requested as exhibits to an affidavit; and
(b) two copies of the affidavit required by clause (a).

10. For the purposes of subsection 27(1) of the Act, the respondent shall
(a) provide the information or documents requested by the designated authority or served with the support variation application;
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ________________________________29 APRIL 2003

(b) complete the form provided by the designated authority; and
(c) bring the information or documents and form required by clauses
(a) and (b) to the hearing of the application.

11. (1) A designated authority may effect the service of any application, order or document under the Act on the person being served by
(a) personal service;
(b) email; or
(c) facsimile,
to the most current address of that person on file with the designated authority.

(2) A party to a support application or support variation application shall provide the designated authority with any change of address of that party that occurs before the conclusion of the hearing of the application.

12. A designated authority shall use the following exchange rates to convert foreign currency to Canadian currency and vice versa:
(a) the rate of exchange for the equivalent amount in Canadian currency set by a Canadian chartered bank applicable to the date on which the order was made;
(b) if the rate of exchange on the date referred to in clause (a) is not reasonably available, the rate of exchange to be used is the rate of exchange for the equivalent amount in Canadian currency applicable to the date on which the order was registered for enforcement with the Director.

13. Employees or agents of a government department who assist an applicant or a respondent to complete the forms required by these regulations may charge an administrative fee of $25 per file, payable to that department.

14. The jurisdictions named in the Schedule to these regulations are declared to be reciprocating jurisdictions for the purposes of section 41 of the Act.

15. The Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act Consolidation Order (EC458/82) is revoked.
