1. Section 1 of the Animal Health Regulations (EC193/91) is amended by the revocation of clauses (a) to (f).

2. Section 2 of the regulations is revoked.

3. Subsections 4(1) to (7) of the regulations are revoked.

4. Sections 5 and 7 of the regulations are revoked.

5. Section 6 of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:

6. (1) Where an order of an inspector is made under subsections 3.2(2) of the Act is posted on a premises, no person shall, without the approval of the inspector,
   (a) allow the transportation of, or transport, an animal or an animal by-product from the premises; or
   (b) allow an animal or animal by-product to be transported, or transport an animal or by-product, to the premises.

6. (2) Any person who drives or operates a vehicle used for the transportation of an animal or animal by-product to a farm or premises on which an order made under subsection 3.2(2) of the Act is posted shall, after the transportation is completed, ensure that the vehicle is disinfected in a manner acceptable to the inspector.

6. Section 8 of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

8. Where an animal is infected with, or an inspector believes on reasonable grounds that the animal is infected with, a named disease, the inspector may, inspect and take samples from
   (a) any animal by-product of the animal; and
EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ______________________________ 29 MARCH 2005

(b) any hay, straw, fodder, litter or other item that the inspector believes on reasonable grounds came into contact with, or may have come into contact with, the animal.

7. Sections 9 and 10 of the regulations are revoked.

8. The Schedule of the regulations is revoked.

9. These regulations come into force on April 9, 2005.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

These amendments revoke certain provisions in the regulations, and the schedule, respecting the quarantining of animals that are no longer needed because of recent amendments to the Act. These amendments also clarify that an inspector may test animal by-products, hay, fodder and other items that may have come into contact with an animal that has or is suspected of having a named disease. In addition these amendments prohibit the transportation of such animals and animal by-products without the approval of an inspector.
