Pursuant to section 4 of the Animal Health and Protection Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. A-11.1, Council made the following regulations:

1. Section 1 of the Animal Health and Protection Act Swine Importation Regulations (EC523/98) is amended

   (a) by the addition of the following after clause (a):

   (a.1) “accredited” means accredited by the Canadian Food Inspection Agency;

   (b) by the addition of the following after clause (q.1):

   (q.2) “PCR sample” means a whole blood or blood serum sample taken from a boar for the purpose of performing a PCR test;

   (q.3) “PCR test” means a polymerase chain reaction test of a PCR sample conducted at an accredited laboratory;

   (q.4) “PRRS” means Porcine Reproductive and Respiratory Syndrome;

   (c) in clause (r), by the deletion of the words “under the Civil Service Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-8”;

   (d) by the revocation of clause (x) and the substitution of the following:

   (x) “swine” means any species of domesticated or wild pig, including pot-bellied pigs having the scientific genus Sus but does not include market hogs;

2. Subsection 3(5) of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:

   (5) The Department may, on the application of a person, issue a semen import permit to the person if the person provides a health certificate certified by the certifying veterinarian stating:

   (a) the semen to be imported was collected from boars at an accredited export collection station; and

   (b) the semen to be imported is free of PRRS, which shall be verified using the following methods identified on the health certificate:

   (i) the semen to be imported is verified negative for PRRS by an approved laboratory, or

   (ii) each boar supplying semen to be imported is verified negative for PRRS by a negative PCR test for PRRS of each PCR sample taken at the time of semen collection from each boar supplying semen, or

   (iii) the herd may be verified negative for PRRS as follows:

   (A) where the herd at the accredited export collection station identified in the health certificate has been free from PRRS for a period of at least two years, and

   (B) where the herd at the accredited export collection station is composed of less than 50 boars, that
(I) PCR samples were taken from a minimum of five boars of the herd not more than six calendar days before the semen collection, and
(II) all of the PCR samples tested negative for PRRS, or
(C) where the herd at the accredited export collection station is composed for 50 or more boars, that
(I) PCR samples were taken from a minimum of 10 boars of the herd not more than six calendar days before the semen collection, and
(II) all of the PCR samples tested negative for PRRS.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), a person may, without a semen import permit, import semen from an accredited export collection station to an approved laboratory on Prince Edward Island for PRRS testing as long as the following procedure is used:
(a) the person shall
   (i) within three days of the semen importation, notify the Department of the importation by providing the Department with a health certificate by the certifying veterinarian verifying the semen was collected from an accredited export collection station, and
   (ii) provide the Department with a copy of the PRRS test results within five days of the person receiving the test results;
(b) where the PRRS test results state the semen is not free of PRRS,
   (i) the person shall not use the imported semen, and
   (ii) the person shall, within 10 days after receiving the PRRS test results, either destroy the imported semen or return the imported semen to the sender; or
(c) where the PRRS test results state the semen is free of PRRS, the person may use the imported semen.

3. These regulations come into force on July 25, 2009.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds new definitions to the definition section of the regulations and amends the definition of “provincial veterinarian”.

SECTION 2 clarifies the circumstances under which the Department may issue a semen import permit. A provision is added to provide an exemption for the requirement to issue a semen import permit in the described circumstances.

SECTION 3 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
