SCHEDULE

Workplace Harassment

Workplace

1. (1) The workplace includes but is not limited to the physical worksite, washrooms, cafeterias, training sessions, business travel, conferences, work-related social gatherings, locker rooms and vehicles.

(2) It also includes any place where actions of a police officer or security police officer, whether on duty or not, will have such serious repercussions on the work environment as to seriously affect relationships between police officers or security police officers of a police agency or other employees within a police agency.

Protected grounds

2. Protected grounds are age, colour, creed, ethnic or national origin, family status, marital status, physical or intellectual disability, political belief, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or source of income.

Application

3. (1) This Schedule applies to the conduct of a police officer or security police officer of a police agency that is directed toward

- (a) another police officer or security police officer or group of police officers or security police officers; or
- (b) an employee within a police agency or group of employees within a police agency.

(2) Managers and supervisors are responsible for taking appropriate action to halt workplace harassment of which they become aware.

Workplace harassment

4. Workplace harassment includes personal and sexual harassment, poisoned work environment, abuse of authority and discrimination.

Personal harassment

5. Personal harassment means any objectionable or offensive behaviour that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome and includes objectionable conduct, comment or display made on either a one-time or continuous basis that demeans, belittles or causes personal humiliation or embarrassment.

Sexual harassment

6. Sexual harassment means any conduct, comment, gesture, or contact of a sexual nature
 (a) that might reasonably be expected to cause offence or humiliation; or
 (b) that might reasonably be perceived as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment, an opportunity for training or promotion.

Poisoned work environment

7. A poisoned work environment is characterized by any activity or behaviour, not necessarily directed at anyone in particular, that creates a hostile or offensive workplace. A poisoned work environment can exist even if employees agree to participate in demeaning behaviour or voice no objections.

Abuse of authority

8. Harassment also includes abuse of authority where a person improperly uses the power and authority inherent in a position to endanger another person's job, undermine the performance of that job, threaten another person's economic livelihood or in any way interfere with or influence another person's career.

Discrimination

9. (1) Discrimination includes but is not limited to
 (a) differential treatment having an adverse impact on a person on the basis of any of the protected grounds;
 (b) any action or policy that has an adverse impact on a person based on any of the protected grounds; and
 (c) use of stereotyped images or language, including jokes and anecdotes, which suggest that all or most employees of a particular group of people are the same, thereby denying their individuality as persons, where such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

(2) Clauses 6(4)(a) and (b) and section 11 of the Human Rights Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. H-12 apply to clauses (1)(a) and (b).
