EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ___________________________ 22 FEBRUARY 2011

EC2011-88

PSYCHOLOGISTS ACT
GENERAL REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 64 of the Psychologists Act R.S.P.E.I 1988, Cap. P-27.2, after consultation with the Psychological Association of Prince Edward Island, the Prince Edward Island Psychologists Registration Board made, and the Lieutenant Governor in Council approved, the following regulations:

INTERPRETATION

1. In the Act and these regulations
   (a) “in good standing”, in relation to a professional regulatory body, means
       (i) not under investigation by the professional regulatory body, and
       (ii) not subject to a prohibition or restriction on the practice of psychology, or the use of a title relating to the practice of psychology, by the professional regulatory body;
   (b) “internship” means practical training in psychology undertaken after the completion of all required coursework for a degree in psychology;
   (c) “practicum” means practical training in psychology integrated with the required coursework for a degree in psychology.

2. In these regulations
   (a) “Act” means the Psychologists Act R.S.P.E.I 1988, Cap. P-27.2;
   (b) “candidate” means a psychologist candidate or a psychological associate candidate;
   (c) “Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology” means the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology established by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards, as amended from time to time.

REGISTRATION

Practicum, Internship and Supervised Practice Requirements

3. (1) For the purposes of clause 13(3)(d) of the Act, an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologists shall have successfully completed
   (a) a doctoral practicum consisting of at least 600 hours;
   (b) a doctoral internship consisting of at least 1,700 hours; and
   (c) at least 1,700 hours of post-doctoral supervised practice.

   (2) For the purposes of clause 14(3)(d) of the Act, an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologist Candidates shall have successfully completed
   (a) a doctoral practicum consisting of at least 600 hours; and
   (b) a doctoral internship consisting of at least 1,700 hours.

   (3) For the purposes of clause 15(3)(d) of the Act, an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychological Associates shall have successfully completed
   (a) a graduate practicum consisting of at least 300 hours;
   (b) a graduate internship consisting of at least 850 hours; and
   (c) at least 3,400 hours of post-graduate supervised practice.

   (4) For the purposes of clause 16(3)(d) of the Act, an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates shall have successfully completed
   (a) a graduate practicum consisting of at least 300 hours; and
   (b) a graduate internship consisting of at least 850 hours.

   (5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (4), where an applicant for registration has not completed the minimum hours of a practicum or an interpractum or internship not completed, the applicant is deemed to have met the practicum or internship requirements in subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4), as the case may be.

(6) For greater certainty, in the case of an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychological Associates, the supervised practice referred to in subsection (5) shall be in addition to the minimum hours of supervised practice required under clause (1)(c) or (3)(c), as the case may be.

(7) Where an applicant
(a) applies for registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychological Associates within one year after the coming into force of the Act; and
(b) successfully completed, before the coming into force of the Act, a period of post-doctoral or post-graduate supervised practice, as the case may be, described in clause 9(1)(b) of the former Act and section 6 of the Registration Regulations, EC181/91 as they read immediately before the coming into force of the Act, the Board shall credit the hours of supervised practice toward those required to be successfully completed by the applicant under clause (1)(c) or (3)(c), as the case may be.

Examinations

4. (1) For the purposes of clause 13(3)(e) or 15(3)(e) of the Act, an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychological Associates shall have
(a) obtained, in no more than four attempts, a minimum scaled score of 500 on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology; and
(b) passed the oral or written examinations administered by the Board, or a person designated by the Board, respecting ethical guidelines, standards of practice and jurisprudence of the province.

(2) For the purposes of subclause 22(3)(g)(ii), 22(3)(h)(ii), 24(4)(g)(ii) or 24(4)(h)(ii) of the Act, an applicant for the renewal of his or her certificate of registration as a candidate or for reinstatement of his or her registration in the Register of Psychologist Candidates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates shall
(a) where the applicant has been registered as a candidate for a period or periods totalling not less than 12 months, have written the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology before the expiry of the 12th month of registration; and
(b) where the applicant has been registered as a candidate for a period or periods totalling not less than 24 months, have obtained, in no more than four attempts before the expiry of the 24th month of registration, a minimum scaled score of 500 on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology.

Currency of Professional Knowledge and Skills

5. (1) For the purposes of clauses 13(3)(f), 15(3)(f), 22(3)(c) and 24(4)(c) of the Act, an applicant for registration or reinstatement of registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychological Associates, or for the renewal of his or her certificate of registration as a psychologist or psychological associate, shall have
(a) graduated from a degree program that meets the requirements of clause 13(3)(b) or 15(3)(b) of the Act, as the case may be, within five years immediately preceding the date of application;
(b) successfully completed the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology within three years immediately preceding the date of application; or
(c) actively practiced psychology as a psychologist or psychological associate, as the case may be, or in a professional category considered by the Board to be equivalent in another jurisdiction recognized by the Board, for
(i) at least 900 hours within five years immediately preceding the date of application, or
(ii) at least 450 hours within three years immediately preceding the date of application.

(2) For the purposes of clauses 14(3)(f), 16(3)(f), 22(3)(c) and 24(4)(c) of the Act, an applicant for registration or reinstatement of registration in the Register of Psychologist Candidates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates, or for the renewal of his or her certificate of registration as a candidate, shall

(a) have graduated from a degree program that meets the requirements of clause 14(3)(b) or 16(3)(b) of the Act, as the case may be, within five years immediately preceding the date of application; or

(b) have successfully completed the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology within three years immediately preceding the date of application.

Supervisors and Supervised Practice

6. (1) For the purposes of clause 14(3)(e) and subclauses 22(3)(g)(i) and 24(4)(g)(i) of the Act, the following persons may supervise the practice of a psychologist candidate:

(a) a psychologist who

(i) has been a psychologist for not less than two years immediately preceding the date of commencement of the supervision, and

(ii) has, in the opinion of the Board, sufficient knowledge and experience in the candidate’s chosen areas of practice;

(b) two psychologists, jointly, who

(i) have each been a psychologist for not less than two years immediately preceding the date of commencement of the supervision, and

(ii) have, in the opinion of the Board, together, sufficient knowledge and experience in the candidate’s chosen areas of practice.

(2) For the purposes of clause 16(3)(e) and subclauses 22(3)(h)(i) and 24(4)(h)(i) of the Act, the following persons may supervise the practice of a psychological associate candidate:

(a) a person specified in clause (1)(a) or (b);

(b) a psychologist and a psychological associate, jointly, who

(i) have each been a psychologist and a psychological associate, respectively, for not less than two years immediately preceding the date of commencement of the supervision, and

(ii) have, in the opinion of the Board, together, sufficient knowledge and experience in the candidate’s chosen areas of practice.

7. (1) Where a candidate has one supervisor, the supervisor shall meet at least bi-weekly for a minimum of two hours with the candidate.

(2) Where a candidate has two supervisors,

(a) at least one supervisor shall meet at least bi-weekly for a minimum of two hours with the candidate; and

(b) each supervisor shall meet with the candidate at least monthly.

(3) A supervisor shall provide training to the candidate under his or her supervision, and evaluate the performance of the candidate, in the following core competencies in psychology:

(a) interpersonal relationships;

(b) assessment and evaluation;

(c) intervention and consultation;

(d) ethics and standards.

(4) A supervisor of a candidate shall ensure that the candidate

(a) provides the name and contact information of the candidate’s supervisor or supervisors to the candidate’s clients; and

(b) includes the name and contact information of the candidate’s supervisor or supervisors in any reports prepared by the candidate.
(5) A supervisor of a candidate shall submit to the Board, in a form approved by the Board, such reports respecting the supervised practice of the candidate as the Board may require.

Insurance

8. A registrant shall carry, at all times, professional liability insurance with coverage of at least $1,000,000.

Transitional

9. (1) An applicant who
   (a) applies for registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychologist Candidates within one year after the coming into force of the Act; and
   (b) has met the professional education requirements of clause 9(1)(a) of the former Act and section 5 of the Registration Regulations, EC181/91 as those provisions read immediately before the coming into force of the Act, is deemed to meet the requirements of clauses 13(3)(b) and (c) or 14(3)(b) and (c) of the Act, as the case may be, and clauses 3(1)(a) and (b) or subsection 3(2) of these regulations, as the case may be.

   (2) An applicant who
   (a) applies for registration in the Register of Psychological Associates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates within one year after the coming into force of the Act; and
   (b) has met the professional education requirements of clause 9(3)(a) of the former Act and section 5 of the Registration Regulations, EC181/91 as those provisions read immediately before the coming into force of the Act, is deemed to meet the requirements of clauses 15(3)(b) and (c) or 16(3)(b) and (c) of the Act, as the case may be, and clauses 3(3)(a) and (b) or subsection 3(4) of these regulations, as the case may be.

Name of Professional Psychology Corporation

10. (1) The name of a professional psychology corporation and any business name or partnership name under which the corporation carries on the practice of psychology shall
   (a) be, in the opinion of the Board, in good taste, dignified and professional; and
   (b) not contain the words “and Company”, “and Associates” or “and Partners”, or similar words, unless a registrant other than a registrant or registrants denoted in the name is also carrying on the practice of psychology on behalf of the corporation.

   (2) Either the name of a professional psychology corporation or the business name or partnership name under which the corporation carries on the practice of psychology shall contain words indicating that the professional psychology corporation carries on the practice of psychology.

REGISTERS

11. Upon the request of a professional regulatory body in another jurisdiction regulating the practice of psychology or the use of titles relating to psychology, the Registrar shall disclose to that body
   (a) the nature of any ongoing complaints, investigations or hearings respecting a registrant; and
   (b) the nature and disposition of any complaint, investigation or hearing respecting a registrant
      (i) that was resolved by agreement or by an order made with the consent of the registrant, or
      (ii) where the hearing committee determined that the conduct of the registrant constituted professional misconduct or incompetence.
CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

12. (1) In this section, “continuing education activities”, in respect of a registrant, means
(a) reading professional psychology journals or reference sources;
(b) practicing or consulting with professional peers to acquire knowledge and skills in areas of the practice of psychology that are unfamiliar to the registrant; and
(c) attending lectures, taking courses or participating in in-service education opportunities respecting psychology, to maintain familiarity with current professional practices and enhance professional competence, with an emphasis on the foundational knowledge of psychology and skills in the core competencies of interpersonal relationships, assessment and evaluation, intervention and consultation, research and ethics and standards.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), for the purposes of clause 22(3)(b) of the Act, an applicant for renewal of a certificate of registration shall have completed, within one year immediately preceding the date of the application, 40 hours of continuing education activities.

(3) At least 20 hours of the continuing education activities required under subsection (2) shall comprise activities described in clauses (1)(b) and (c).

(4) Where an applicant for renewal of a certificate of registration has held the certificate for less than one year, the Board may prorate the hours of continuing education activities required under subsection (2).

STANDARDS OF PRACTICE

13. (1) In this section, “Canadian Code of Ethics” means the Canadian Code of Ethics for Psychologists established by the Canadian Psychological Association, as amended from time to time.

(2) The Canadian Code of Ethics is adopted as the code of ethics governing registrants under the Act and these regulations.

(3) A registrant or a professional psychological corporation shall practice psychology in accordance with generally accepted professional standards and procedures that are consistent with
(a) the Canadian Code of Ethics;
(b) the rules of conduct established by the Board;
(c) the practice guidelines established by the Board;
(d) current teaching in psychology programs at educational institutions recognized by the Board; and
(e) current research and theory in psychology published in professional journals and reports recognized by the Board.

(4) A copy of the rules of conduct and practice guidelines referred to in clauses (3)(b) and (c) shall be made available for public inspection during regular business hours in the office of the Registrar and shall be posted on the Board’s website.

DISCIPLINE

14. In addition to the conduct outlined in subsection 34(1) of the Act, the conduct of a respondent constitutes professional misconduct if the conduct of the respondent would reasonably be regarded by other registrants as dishonourable or seriously offensive to a client.

15. For the purposes of clause 51(2)(b) of the Act, an order made by a hearing committee may impose a fine not exceeding $5,000.

COMMENCEMENT

16. These regulations come into force on March 5, 2011.
SECTION 1 sets out the definitions that apply for the purposes of the Act and these regulations.

SECTION 2 sets out the definitions that apply for the purposes of these regulations.

SECTION 3 sets out the practicum, internship and supervised practice requirements that must be met by an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologists, the Register of Psychologist Candidates, the Register of Psychological Associates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates.

SECTION 4 sets out the examination requirements that must be met by an applicant for registration in the Register of Psychologists or the Register of Psychological Associates, and by an applicant for the renewal or reinstatement of registration in the Register of Psychologist Candidates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates.

SECTION 5 sets out the requirements for currency of professional knowledge and skills that must be met by an applicant for registration or for renewal or reinstatement of registration in the Register of Psychologists, the Register of Psychological Associates, the Register of Psychologist Candidates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates.

SECTION 6 sets out the qualifications required of a supervisor of a psychological candidate or a psychological candidate.

SECTION 7 requires at least one supervisor to meet bi-weekly with a candidate under his or her supervision, and each supervisor to meet with a candidate monthly. A supervisor must provide training and evaluate the performance of the candidate in the core competencies in psychology, and report to the Board respecting the candidate’s supervised practice.

SECTION 8 requires a registrant to carry a minimum of $1,000,000 in professional liability insurance.

SECTION 9 sets out the transitional provisions for applicants who apply for registration in the Register of Psychologists, the Register of Psychologist Candidates, the Register of Psychological Associates or the Register of Psychological Associate Candidates within one year after the coming into force of the Act. An applicant is deemed to meet the professional education requirements of these regulations if he or she met the professional education requirements of the former Act and regulations.

SECTION 10 sets out the requirements for the name of a professional psychology corporation.

SECTION 11 sets out the information that the Registrar shall, upon request, disclose to a professional regulatory body regulating the practice of psychology or the use of titles relating to psychology in another jurisdiction.

SECTION 12 sets out the continuing education requirements for an applicant for renewal of a certificate of registration.

SECTION 13 adopts the Canadian Code of Ethics as the code of ethics governing registrants. It requires a registrant or a professional psychology corporation to practice psychology in accordance with generally accepted professional standards and procedures that are consistent with the Canadian Code of Ethics, rules of conduct and practice guidelines established by the Board and current teaching, research and theory in psychology.

SECTION 14 provides that the conduct of a respondent that is the subject of a complaint made under the Act constitutes professional... misconduct if it would reasonably be regarded by other registrants as dishonourable or seriously offensive to a client.

SECTION 15 establishes a maximum fine of $5,000 that an order made by a hearing committee may impose on a respondent under clause 51(2)(h) of the Act. Clause 51(2)(h) of the Act authorizes a hearing committee to make an order imposing a fine on a respondent to a complaint where the hearing committee determines that the conduct of the respondent constitutes professional misconduct or incompetence.

SECTION 16 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
