This Order-in-Council comes into force on August 21, 2012.

EC2012-505

LIQUOR CONTROL ACT
REGULATIONS
AMENDMENT

Pursuant to section 8 of the Liquor Control Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. L-14, the Prince Edward Island Liquor Control Commission, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, made the following regulations:

1. Section 1 of the Liquor Control Act Regulations (EC704/75) is amended

   (a) by the addition of the following after clause (b):

   (b.1) “function” means, unless the context indicates otherwise, a function respecting

      (i) a wedding or reunion, or

      (ii) any other activity of a cultural, sporting or social nature;

   (b) by the addition of the following after clause (d):

   (d.1) “licensee” means the holder of a liquor license;

2. Section 16 of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:

   16. A licensee who holds a dining room license may permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be in or remain in the licensed dining room of the licensee.

3. Section 24 of the regulations is revoked.

4. Section 35 of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:

   35. A club licensee shall not admit any person to the club premises of the licensee except as permitted by the bylaws of the club.

5. Section 45 of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:
45. A licensee who holds a military canteen license shall not admit any person to the licensed premises of the licensee except as permitted by the bylaws of the canteen.

6. Section 70 of the regulations is amended

(a) by the addition of the word “or” following clause (k); and

(b) by the revocation of clauses (l) and (m).

7. The regulations are amended by the addition of the following after section 74:

74.1 A licensee may permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be in or remain in the licensed premises where

(a) the person enters, is present in or remains in the licensed premises

(i) to attend a wedding function,
(ii) to provide entertainment, by himself or herself or as a member of a group, and is accompanied by, or subject to or under the supervision of,

(A) a parent or permanent legal guardian, or
(B) the operator of the licensed premises, if the operator is authorized in writing by the parent or the permanent legal guardian to be in charge of the underaged entertainer while that person is performing; or

(b) the licensee

(i) holds a written approval issued by the Commission issued under section 74.2 authorizing the licensee to permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be in or remain in the licensed premises, and
(ii) is in compliance with any terms or conditions imposed on that approval.

74.2 (1) On application by a licensee, the Commission may, subject to this section, issue a written approval to the licensee authorizing the licensee to permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be present in or remain in the licensed premises of the licensee

(a) for the purpose of attending or participating or assisting in a function, other than a wedding function; or
(b) for such other purposes, or in such other circumstances, as the Commission considers appropriate.

(2) The Commission may, on issuing a written approval under subsection (1), attach such terms and conditions to the written approval as the Commission considers appropriate.

74.3 Any person under the age of nineteen years may enter, be in, or remain in the licensed premises of a licensee where the licensee is, under the Act or these regulations, authorized to permit the person to enter, be in or remain in the licensed premises of the licensee.

8. These regulations come into force on September 1, 2012.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds definitions for the words “function” and “licensee”.

SECTION 2 authorizes a licensee who holds a dining room license to permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be in or remain in the licensed dining room of the licensee.

SECTION 3 revokes a provision of the regulations respecting the admission of persons under the age of nineteen years to a lounge that is not needed in light of the general prohibition in the Act concerning the admission of such persons and the other amendments effected by these regulations.

SECTIONS 4 and 5 rewrite provisions of the regulations respecting the admission of persons under the age of nineteen years to a club or canteen.
to recognize the general prohibition in the Act concerning the admission of such persons and the other amendments effected by these regulations.

SECTION 6 revokes two clauses of a provision currently prohibiting the admission of under age persons to licensed premises that are not needed in light of the general prohibition in the Act concerning such admissions and the other amendments effected by these regulations.

SECTION 7 indicates when a licensee may permit any person under the age of nineteen years to enter, be in or remain in the licensed premises of the licensee.

In addition, the section empowers the Commission to issue an approval to a licensee that authorizes the admission of such a person for the purpose of attending a function or for other purposes and in other circumstances.

This section also explains when persons under the age of nineteen years may enter, be in, or remain in licensed premises.

SECTION 8 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
