Pursuant to section 28 of the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9, Council made the following regulations:

2. Where a person transfers a lump-sum amount from the Fund to a registered pension plan under section 3 of the Act in respect of a transfer of service, any surplus funds remaining after the transfer shall remain in the Fund.

3. (1) Where a member or vested former member is applying for pension benefits, the member or vested former member shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

   (a) a declaration that the person is the member or vested former member;
   (b) proof of the member or vested former member’s date of birth.

   (2) Where a person who is eligible for a separate pension under section 27.01 of the Act is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

   (a) a declaration that the person is entitled to a separate pension;
   (b) proof of the person’s date of birth.

   (3) Where a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

   (a) where the person was married to the member, vested former member or pensioner, a copy of the marriage certificate or an equivalent document evidencing the marriage;
   (b) where the person was not married to the member, vested former member or pensioner,

      (i) proof that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were claiming each other as common-law spouses on a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada), or
      (ii) if applicable, a copy of a long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were the natural or adoptive parents of a child or children;
   (c) a declaration that the spouse or former spouse and the member, vested former member or pensioner were living together for a continuous period of at least three years, including on the date of death of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
   (d) proof of the dates of birth of both the spouse or former spouse and the member, vested former member or pensioner.

   (4) Where a dependent child of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits under section 13 or 13.1 of the Act, the dependent child, or his or her guardian, shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:
(a) a copy of a long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the dependent child is the natural or adopted child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
(b) where the child is 18 years of age or older and dependent on the member, vested former member or pensioner for maintenance and support by reason of mental or physical disability,
   (i) confirmation from a medical practitioner that the person applying for the benefit has a mental or physical disability that renders the person dependent on the member, vested former member of pensioner, and
   (ii) proof that the member, vested former member or pensioner was claiming the dependent child when filing a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the year preceding the date of the application;
(c) where the child is 18 years of age or older and is attending post-secondary studies, evidence of attendance on a full-time basis at an institution of learning described in subsection 14(2) of the Student Financial Assistance Act R.S.P.E.I.1988, c.S-8.2;
(d) a declaration that the person was at the time of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s death, and still is, the dependent child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
(e) proof of the dates of birth of both the dependent child and the member, vested former member or pensioner.

(5) Where a personal representative of a member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension is applying for pension benefits under the Act, the personal representative shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:
(a) a copy of the letters probate or letters of administration of the Supreme Court or a superior court of a province or territory appointing the person as the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;
(b) a declaration that the person is the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;
(c) a copy of the death certificate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (5), the Commission may accept alternative information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits if, in the opinion of the Commission, the required information is not reasonably available to the person who is making the application for pension benefits.

(7) In addition to the information required by subsections (1) to (5), an applicant for pension benefits shall provide any additional information required by the Commission to establish the applicant’s proof of eligibility for pension benefits under the Act.

(8) Where a dependent child is in receipt of a benefit, the Commission may require periodic proof of continued dependency.

4. (1) The following employers are participating employers to which the Act applies:
(a) a reporting entity specified in Schedule A to the Financial Administration Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, c.F-9;
(b) the following reporting entities specified in Schedule B to the Financial Administration Act;

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a corporation is not a participating employer in the Fund with respect to any employee employed by a subsidiary of the corporation.

5. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes the definition of “Act” for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 provides that where a person transfers a lump-sum amount from the Fund to a registered pension plan, any surplus funds remaining after the transfer remain in the Fund.

SECTION 3 establishes the requirements for proof of eligibility for pension benefits that apply to a member or vested former member, a person eligible for a separate pension under section 27.01 of the Act, a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner, a dependent child of a member, vested former member or pensioner, and a personal representative of a member, vested former member or pensioner. The section also authorizes the Commission to accept alternative information as proof if the required information is not reasonably available to the person applying for pension benefits, and authorizes the Commission to request additional information from an applicant to establish proof of eligibility. If the dependent child is in receipt of a benefit, the Commission may require periodic proof of continued dependency.

SECTION 4 establishes the participating employers to whom the Act applies.

SECTION 5 provides for the commencement of the regulations.

1. The Contributions for Eligible Prior Employment Regulations (EC572/04) are amended by the addition of the following after section 1:

1.1 These regulations apply to persons who became members and commenced to contribute to the Fund prior to April 1, 2018.

2. Section 6 of the regulations is revoked and the following substituted:

6. These regulations are revoked on March 31, 2020.

3. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds a new section 1.1 to the regulations to clarify that the regulations apply only to persons who became members and commenced to contribute to the Fund prior to April 1, 2018.

SECTION 2 provides that the regulations will be revoked on March 31, 2020. Any member to whom the regulations apply may elect, until that date, to purchase eligible prior employment in accordance with the regulations.

SECTION 3 provides for the commencement of the regulations.

EC2018-87

CIVIL SERVICE SUPERANNUATION ACT
ELIGIBLE PRIOR EMPLOYMENT REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 28 of the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9, Council made the following regulations:

1. In these regulations,

(a) “Act” means the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9;

(b) “eligible prior employment” means employment of an individual with a participating employer prior to the individual’s entry into the Fund in respect of which no contributions have been made to the Fund.

2. These regulations apply to persons who become members and commence to contribute to the Fund on or after April 1, 2018.

3. (1) Any member who is contributing to the Fund may, within 24 months of commencing to contribute to the Fund, elect, in writing, to purchase eligible prior employment.

(2) The maximum eligible prior employment shall be equal to the actual number of regular hours worked in the 24 months immediately prior to the date the member commenced contributing to the Fund.

(3) Where a member makes an election to purchase eligible prior employment, the required contributions shall be paid no later than 90 days from the date of the letter informing the member of the cost of purchasing the eligible prior employment.
(4) For greater certainty, employment that is prior to the date a participating employer began participating in the Fund shall not be considered as eligible prior employment.

Limitation

4. (1) The cost to purchase eligible prior employment is equal to the amount that is two times the sum of the base and supplementary contributions required in respect of the member’s salary as of the date of the member’s election to purchase the eligible prior employment.

Purchase cost

(2) The purchase of eligible prior employment shall be made by a single lump-sum payment.

Lump-sum payment

(3) Where the lump-sum payment is sufficient to cover the entire cost payable under subsection (1), the entire period of eligible prior employment shall be credited to the member as pensionable service.

Where lump-sum payment sufficient

(4) Where the lump-sum payment is insufficient to cover the entire cost payable under subsection (1), only that portion of the eligible prior employment paid for shall be credited to the member as pensionable service.

Where lump-sum payment insufficient

(5) The portion of the eligible prior employment to be credited to the member as pensionable service under subsection (4) shall be calculated by applying the ratio of the payment received divided by the total contributions required to the total period of eligible prior employment.

Calculation

5. Contributions for the purchase of a member’s eligible prior employment are in addition to the contributions required of the member under the Act.

Contributions

6. (1) Where required under the Income Tax Act (Canada), a past service pension adjustment in respect of eligible prior employment purchased by a member shall be filed by the Minister with the appropriate Federal government authorities for their approval.

Income Tax Act requirement

(2) No benefits shall be paid with respect to eligible prior employment purchased until the Minister has received proof that the past service pension adjustment has been approved by the appropriate Federal government authorities referred to in subsection (1).

Approval required

7. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

Commencement

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 provides that these regulations apply only to persons who become members and commence to contribute to the Fund on or after April 1, 2018.

SECTION 3 sets out the process by which a member may elect to purchase eligible prior employment, and establishes the maximum eligible prior employment that may be purchased.

SECTION 4 establishes the cost to purchase eligible prior employment, requires that it be paid in the form of a single lump-sum payment, and clarifies the consequences where the lump-sum payment is or is not sufficient to purchase all of the eligible prior employment.

SECTION 5 clarifies that contributions made to purchase a member’s eligible prior employment are in addition to the contributions the member is required to make under the Act.

SECTION 6 requires the Minister to file a past service pension adjustment in respect of eligible prior employment purchased by a member where it is required under the Income Tax Act (Canada), and provides that benefits shall not be paid in respect of the member’s eligible prior employment until the past service pension adjustment has been approved by the appropriate Federal government authorities.

SECTION 7 provides for the commencement of the regulations.
Pursuant to section 28 of the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9, Council made the following regulations:

1. The Maternity, Parental and Adoption Leave Regulations (EC411/01) are amended by the addition of the following after section 1:

   1.1 These regulations apply to members whose leave commenced prior to January 1, 2018. Application

2. The regulations are amended by the addition of the following after section 7:

   8. These regulations are revoked on March 31, 2020. Revocation

3. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 amends the regulations to add a new section 1.1 that clarifies that the regulations apply to members whose leave commenced prior to January 1, 2018. After January 1, 2018, the rules for purchasing the member’s period of leave will be determined by the Commission, pursuant to section 17 of the Act.

SECTION 2 provides that the regulations will be revoked on March 31, 2020. This allows a period of time during which members may elect to purchase leaves that commenced prior to January 1, 2018, before the regulations are revoked.

SECTION 3 provides for the commencement of the regulations.

Pursuant to section 28 of the Civil Service Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-9, Council made the following regulations:

1. The Civil Service Superannuation Act Participating Employer Regulations (EC414/01) are revoked.

2. These regulations come into force on March 31, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 revokes the Participating Employer Regulations made under the Civil Service Superannuation Act.

SECTION 2 provides for the commencement of the regulations.

EC2018-112

TEACHERS' SUPERANNUATION ACT
GENERAL REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 33 of the Teachers’ Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. T-1, Council made the following regulations:

2. (1) For the purposes of subsection 16(6) of the Act, and subject to subsection (2), in computing the amount of yearly pension payable to a member who is under the age of 65 years and eligible to receive an unreduced yearly pension under subsection 16(6) of the Act, the yearly pension shall be adjusted by reducing the amount payable by the amount calculated in accordance with subsection 18(2) of the Act. Adjustment of yearly pension

(2) The adjustment referred to in subsection (1) does not apply to the yearly pension payable to a member who provides proof satisfactory to the Commission, upon the request of the Commission, that the member is not receiving Canada Pension Plan disability benefits. Exception

3. Where a person transfers a lump sum amount from the Fund to a registered pension plan under section 30 of the Act in respect of transfer of service, any surplus funds remaining after the transfer shall remain with the Fund. Surplus funds after transfer

4. (1) Where a member or vested former member is applying for pension benefits, the member or vested former member shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a declaration that the person is the member or vested former member;
(b) proof of the member or vested former member’s date of birth. Proof of eligibility - member or vested former member

(2) Where a person who is eligible for a separate pension under section 31.91 of the Act is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a declaration that the person is the person entitled to a separate pension;
(b) proof of the person’s date of birth. Proof of eligibility - person eligible for separate pension

(3) Where a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits, the person shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) where the person was married to the member, vested former member or pensioner, a copy of the marriage certificate or an equivalent document evidencing the marriage;
(b) where the person was not married to the member, vested former member or pensioner, Proof of eligibility - spouse or former spouse

(i) proof that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were claiming each other as common-law spouses on a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the year preceding the date of the application, or
(ii) if applicable, a copy of the long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner were the natural or adoptive parents of a child or children;
(c) a declaration that the person and the spouse or former spouse of the member, vested former member or pensioner were living together for a continuous period of at least three years, including on the date of death of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
(d) proof of the dates of birth of both the person and the member, vested former member or pensioner.

(4) Where a dependent child of a member, vested former member or pensioner is applying for pension benefits under section 24 or 25 of the Act, the dependent child, or his or her guardian, shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a copy of the long form birth certificate, an adoption order or an equivalent document evidencing that the dependent child is the natural or adopted child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
(b) where the child is 18 years of age or older and dependent on the member, vested former member or pensioner for maintenance and support by reason of mental or physical disability,
   (i) confirmation from a medical practitioner that the person applying for the benefit has a mental or physical disability that renders the person dependent on the member, vested former member or pensioner, and
   (ii) proof that the member, vested former member or pensioner was claiming the dependent child when filing a T-1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return filed under the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the year preceding the date of the application;
(c) where the child is 18 years of age or older and is attending post-secondary studies, evidence of attendance on a full-time basis at an institution of learning described in subsection 14(2) of the Student Financial Assistance Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. S-8.2;
(d) a declaration that the person was at the time of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s death, and still is, the dependent child of the member, vested former member or pensioner;
(e) proof of the dates of birth of both the dependent child and the member, vested former member or pensioner.

(5) Where a personal representative of a member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension is applying for pension benefits under the Act, the personal representative shall provide to the Commission, in the specified form or the applicable form approved by the Commission, the following information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits:

(a) a copy of the letters probate or letters of administration of the Supreme Court or a superior court of a province or territory appointing the person as the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;
(b) a declaration that the person is the personal representative of the estate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension;
(c) a copy of the death certificate of the member, vested former member, pensioner or person entitled to a separate pension.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (5), the Commission may accept alternative information to establish proof of eligibility for pension benefits if, in the opinion of the Commission, the required information is not reasonably available to the person who is making the application for pension benefits.
(7) In addition to the information required by subsections (1) to (5), an applicant for pension benefits shall provide any additional information required by the Commission to establish the applicant’s proof of eligibility for pension benefits under the Act.

(8) Where a dependent child is in receipt of a benefit, the Commission may require periodic proof of continued dependency.

5. For the purpose of determining the pensionable salary of a member under subsection 1(4) of the Act, unpaid leave for the following purposes shall be included in the determination if the period of leave is in excess of one year in duration:
   (a) unpaid leave granted for the purposes of taking employment with the Department of Education, Early Learning and Culture;
   (b) unpaid leave granted for the purposes of seeking or holding public office as outlined in the Memorandum of Agreement between the Education Negotiating Agency and the Prince Edward Island Teachers’ Federation.

6. (1) This section applies to indexation in respect of approved leaves that commence after December 31, 2013.

   (2) Subject to subsection (3), where a member commences a leave on September 1 in a year, section 17.1 of the Act applies to the member’s pensionable salary as if the member were credited with service in respect of that period of leave to a maximum of two years.

   (3) Where a leave commenced as specified in subsection (2) exceeds two years, that portion of the leave that exceeds two years shall be subject to section 19.2 of the Act.

   (4) Subject to subsection (5), where a member commences a leave on a day other than September 1 in a year, section 17.1 of the Act applies to the member’s pensionable salary as if the member were credited with service in respect of that period of leave for the remainder of the year in which the leave commenced and up to a maximum of two additional years.

   (5) Where a leave commenced as specified in subsection (4) exceeds the maximum period of leave permitted under that subsection, the portion of the leave that exceeds the maximum is subject to section 19.2 of the Act.

7. The Teachers’ Superannuation Act Regulations (EC206/77) are revoked.

8. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines the term “Act” for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 provides that in computing the amount of yearly pension payable to a member under 65 who is eligible to receive an unreduced yearly pension under subsection 16(6) of the Act, the yearly pension shall be adjusted in accordance with subsection 18(2) of the Act, except in respect of a member who provides proof satisfactory to the Commission that the member is not receiving Canada Pension Plan disability benefits.

SECTION 3 provides that any surplus funds remaining after a transfer of a lump sum amount from the Fund to a registered pension plan under section 30 of the Act shall remain with the Fund.

SECTION 4 establishes the information and proof that must be provided to the Commission in an application for pension benefits by a member or vested former member, a person eligible for a separate pension under section 31.91 of the Act, a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner, a dependent child of a member, vested former member or pensioner, or a personal representative of a member, vested former member or pensioner. The section also authorizes the Commission to accept alternative information if the required information is not reasonably available to the applicant, and to require additional information where necessary to establish the applicant’s eligibility.

SECTION 5 specifies two types of unpaid leave that are to be included for the purposes of subsection 1(4) of the Act, if the period of leave is longer than one year.

SECTION 6 establishes rules respecting indexation that apply where a member commences a leave on September 1 or on another day in a year, including what rules apply where the leave exceeds the maximum periods specified in the section.

SECTION 7 revokes the Teachers’ Superannuation Act Regulations (EC206/77).

SECTION 8 provides for the commencement of the regulations.
