PUBLIC HEALTH ACT

RECREATIONAL CAMP REGULATIONS

AMENDMENT

Pursuant to section 72 of the Public Health Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. P-30.1, Council made the following regulations:

1. The Public Health Act Recreational Camp Regulations (EC416/15) are amended by the addition of the following after section 1:

1.1 Cleaning and sanitation policy

(1) An operator shall establish, maintain and follow a written policy with respect to the cleaning and disinfection of a recreational camp.

Contents of policy

(2) A written policy referred to in subsection (1) shall include, but need not be limited to,

- (a) procedures for
 - (i) cleaning and disinfecting frequently used items and surfaces, such as light switches, doorknobs and countertops,
 - (ii) monitoring for pests, and
 - (iii) maintaining shower rooms and bunkhouses in a sanitary condition;
- (b) a schedule on which the procedures referred to in clause (2)(a) shall be carried out; and
- (c) a list of approved cleaning and disinfection agents and, for each approved agent,
 - (i) the agent's intended use,
 - (ii) instructions with respect to mixing and concentration, where applicable, and
 - (iii) storage requirements.

Records

(3) An operator shall establish a record of each time a procedure referred to in this section is carried out.

Retention and production of records

- (4) With respect to a record referred to in subsection (3), an operator shall
- (a) retain the record for a period of at least 12 months; and
 - (b) produce the record for inspection by a public health official on request.

2. Section 7 of the regulations is amended by the addition of the following after subsection (3):

Mattresses

- (4) An operator shall ensure that, where the operator provides a mattress to an occupant,
- (a) the mattress
 - (i) is constructed of a washable material, and
 - (ii) has been washed between occupants; or
 - (b) the mattress is fully encased in a mattress cover that was applied between occupants.

3. These regulations come into force on November 23, 2024.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds section 1.1 to the Public Health Act Recreational Camp Regulations (EC416/15), which requires recreational camp operators to establish a written policy respecting the general maintenance, cleaning and disinfection of a recreational camp. Section 1.1 also requires operators to maintain a record of each time a procedure established in their written policy is carried out, and to produce these records upon request by a public health official.

SECTION 2 adds subsection 7(4) of the regulations, which sets out the cleaning and sanitation requirements that operators must follow with respect to the use of mattresses in a recreational camp.

SECTION 3 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
