- General access (4) Any person may examine the records referred to in clauses 27(1)(c) and (d) and is entitled to receive copies of those records during the usual business hours of the corporation on payment of a reasonable fee.
- Shareholder lists (5) If the corporation is a distributing corporation, any person, on payment of a reasonable fee and on sending to the corporation or its agent the statutory declaration referred to in subsection (9), may on application require the corporation or its agent to furnish within ten days after the receipt of the statutory declaration a basic list made up to a date not more than ten days before the date of receipt of the statutory declaration setting out the names of the shareholders of the corporation, the number of shares owned by each shareholder and the address of each shareholder as shown on the records of the corporation.
- Supplemental lists (6) A person requiring a corporation to furnish a basic list may, by stating in the statutory declaration referred to in subsection (5) that supplemental lists are required, require the corporation or its agent on payment of a reasonable fee to furnish supplemental lists setting out any changes from the basic list in the names or addresses of the shareholders and the number of shares owned by each shareholder for each business day following the date the basic list is made up to.
- When supplemental lists to be furnished (7) The corporation or its agent shall furnish a supplemental list required under subsection (6)
- (a) on the date the basic list is furnished, where the information relates to changes that took place prior to that date; and
 - (b) on the business day following the day to which the supplemental list relates, where the information relates to changes that take place on or after the date the basic list is furnished.
- Holders of options (8) A person requiring a corporation to furnish a basic list or a supplemental list may also require the corporation to include in that list the name and address of any known holder of an option or right to acquire shares of the corporation.
- Contents of affidavit (9) The statutory declaration required under subsection (5) shall state
- (a) the name and address of the applicant;
 - (b) the name and address for service of the body corporate, if the applicant is a body corporate; and
 - (c) that the basic list and any supplemental lists obtained pursuant to subsection (6) or the information contained in the securities register obtained pursuant to subsection (2), as the case may be, shall not be used except as permitted under subsection (11).

(10) If the applicant is a body corporate, the statutory declaration shall be made by a director or officer of the body corporate. Idem

(11) A list of shareholders or information from a securities register obtained under this section shall not be used by any person except in connection with

- (a) an effort to influence the voting of shareholders of the corporation;
- (b) an offer to acquire securities of the corporation; or
- (c) any other matter relating to the affairs of the corporation.

(12) A person who, without reasonable cause, contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both. Offence

29. (1) All registers and other records required by this Act to be prepared and maintained may be in a bound or loose-leaf form or in a photographic film form, or may be entered or recorded by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or any other information storage device that is capable of reproducing any required information in intelligible written form within a reasonable time. Form of records

(2) A corporation and its agents shall take reasonable precautions to

- (a) prevent loss or destruction of;
- (b) prevent falsification of entries in; and
- (c) facilitate detection and correction of inaccuracies in the registers and other records required by this Act to be prepared and maintained. Precautions

(3) A person who, without reasonable cause, contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both. Offence

30. (1) A corporation may, but is not required to, adopt a corporate seal, and may change a corporate seal that it has adopted. Corporate seal

(2) A document executed on behalf of a corporation is not invalid merely because a corporate seal is not affixed to it. Validity of unsealed documents

PART VI

CORPORATE FINANCE

31. (1) Shares of a corporation shall be in registered form and shall be without nominal or par value. Shares

Transitional	(2) When a body corporate is continued under this Act, a share with nominal or par value issued by the body corporate before it was continued is, for the purpose of subsection (1), deemed to be a share without nominal or par value.
Rights attached to shares	(3) Where a corporation has only one class of shares, the rights of the holders of them are equal in all respects and include the rights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) to vote at any meeting of shareholders of the corporation; (b) to receive any dividend declared by the corporation; and (c) to receive the remaining property of the corporation on dissolution.
Rights to classes of shares	(4) The articles may provide for more than one class of shares and, if so, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the shares of each class shall be set out in the articles; and (b) each of the rights set out in subsection (3) shall be attached to at least one class of shares, but all those rights are not required to be attached to any one class.
Issue of shares	32. (1) Subject to the articles, the bylaws and any unanimous shareholder agreement and to section 35, shares may be issued at the times, to the persons and for the consideration determined by the directors.
Shares non-assessable	(2) Shares issued by a corporation are non-assessable and the holders are not liable to the corporation or to its creditors in respect of them.
Consideration	(3) A share shall not be issued until the consideration for the share is fully paid in money or in property or past services that are not less in value than the fair equivalent of the money that the corporation would have received if the share had been issued for money.
Consideration other than money	(4) In determining whether property or past services are the fair equivalent of a money consideration, the directors may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organization and reorganization and payments for property and past services reasonably expected to benefit the corporation.
Definition of "property"	(5) For the purposes of this section, "property" does not include a promissory note, or a promise to pay, that is made by a person to whom a share is issued, or a person who does not deal at arm's length, within the meaning of that expression in the Income Tax Act (Canada), with a person to whom a share is issued.
Stated capital account	33. (1) A corporation shall maintain a separate stated capital account for each class and series of shares it issues.

(2) A corporation shall add to the appropriate stated capital account the full amount of any consideration it receives for any shares it issues.

Entries in stated capital account

(3) Despite subsection (2), a corporation may, subject to subsection (4), add to the stated capital accounts maintained for the shares of classes or series the whole or any part of the amount of the consideration that it receives in an exchange if the corporation issues shares

Exception for non-arm's length transactions

(a) in exchange for

(i) property of a person who immediately before the exchange did not deal with the corporation at arm's length within the meaning of that expression in the Income Tax Act (Canada),

(ii) shares of, or another interest in, a body corporate that immediately before the exchange, or that because of the exchange, did not deal with the corporation at arm's length within the meaning of that expression in the Income Tax Act (Canada), or

(iii) property of a person who, immediately before the exchange, dealt with the corporation at arm's length within the meaning of that expression in the Income Tax Act (Canada), if the person, the corporation and all the holders of shares in the class or series of shares consent to the exchange; or

(b) pursuant to an agreement referred to in subsection 156(1) or an arrangement referred to in clause 166(1)(b) or (c) or to shareholders of an amalgamating body corporate who receive the shares in addition to or instead of securities of the amalgamated body corporate.

(4) On the issue of a share, a corporation shall not add to a stated capital account in respect of the share it issues an amount greater than the amount of the consideration it received for the share.

Limit on addition to stated capital account

(5) Where a corporation proposes to add any amount to a stated capital account it maintains in respect of a class or series of shares, if

Constraint on addition to stated capital account

(a) the amount to be added was not received by the corporation as consideration for the issue of shares; and

(b) the corporation has issued any outstanding shares of more than one class or series, the addition to the stated capital account shall be approved by special resolution unless all the issued and outstanding shares are shares of not more than two classes of convertible shares referred to in subsection 46(5).

(6) When a body corporate is continued under this Act, it may add to a stated capital account any consideration received by it for a share it issued and a corporation at any time may, subject to subsection (5), add to a stated capital account any amount it credited to a retained earnings or other surplus account.

Other additions to stated capital

Transitional	(7) When a body corporate is continued under this Act, subsection (2) does not apply to the consideration received by it before it was continued unless the share in respect of which the consideration is received is issued after the corporation is continued.
Idem	(8) When a body corporate is continued under this Act, any amount unpaid in respect of a share issued by the body corporate before it was continued and paid after it was continued shall be added to the stated capital account maintained for the shares of that class or series.
Transitional	(9) For the purposes of subsection 41(2), sections 45 and 49, and clause 159(2)(a), when a body corporate is continued under this Act, its stated capital is deemed to include the amount that would have been included in stated capital if the body corporate had been incorporated under this Act.
Restriction	(10) A corporation shall not reduce its stated capital or any stated capital account except in the manner provided in this Act.
Exception for open-end mutual fund	(11) Subsections (1) to (10) and any other provisions of this Act relating to stated capital do not apply to an open-end mutual fund.
Definition, "open-end mutual fund"	(12) For the purposes of this section, "open-end mutual fund" means a distributing corporation that carries on only the business of investing the consideration it receives for the shares it issues, and all or substantially all of those shares are redeemable on the demand of a shareholder.
Shares in series	34. (1) The articles may authorize, subject to any limitations set out in them, the issue of any class of shares in one or more series and may do either or both of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) fix the number of shares in, and determine the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the shares of, each series; or (b) authorize the directors to fix the number of shares in, and determine the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the shares of, each series.
Series participation	(2) If any cumulative dividends or amounts payable on return of capital in respect of a series of shares are not paid in full, the shares of all series of the same class participate rateably in respect of accumulated dividends and return of capital.
Restrictions on series	(3) No rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to a series of shares authorized under this section shall confer on a series a priority in respect of dividends or return of capital over any other series of shares of the same class that are then outstanding.

(4) If the directors exercise their authority under clause (1)(b), they shall, before the issue of shares of the series, send, in the form approved by the Director, articles of amendment to the Director to designate a series of shares.

Amendment of articles

(5) On receipt of articles of amendment designating a series of shares, the Director shall issue a certificate of amendment in accordance with section 230.

Certificate of amendment

(6) The articles of the corporation are amended accordingly on the date shown in the certificate of amendment.

Effect of certificate

35. (1) If the articles so provide, no shares of a class shall be issued unless the shares have first been offered to the shareholders holding shares of that class, and those shareholders have a pre-emptive right to acquire the offered shares in proportion to their holdings of the shares of that class, at the price and on the terms as those on which the shares are to be offered to others.

Pre-emptive right

(2) Notwithstanding that the articles provide the pre-emptive right referred to in subsection (1), shareholders have no pre-emptive right in respect of shares to be issued

Exception

- (a) for a consideration other than money;
- (b) as a share dividend; or
- (c) pursuant to the exercise of conversion privileges, options or rights previously granted by the corporation.

36. (1) A corporation may issue certificates, warrants or other evidences of conversion privileges, options or rights to acquire securities of the corporation, and shall set out the conditions of them

Options and rights

- (a) in the certificates, warrants or other evidences; or
- (b) in certificates evidencing the securities to which the conversion privileges, options or rights are attached.

(2) Conversion privileges, options and rights to acquire securities of a corporation may be made transferable or non-transferable, and options and rights to acquire may be made separable or inseparable from any securities to which they are attached.

Transferable rights

(3) Where a corporation has granted privileges to convert any securities issued by the corporation into shares, or into shares of another class or series, or has issued or granted options or rights to acquire shares, if the articles limit the number of authorized shares, the corporation shall reserve and continue to reserve sufficient authorized shares to meet the exercise of those conversion privileges, options and rights.

Reserved shares

- Corporation holding its own shares 37. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and sections 38 to 43, a corporation
 (a) shall not hold shares in itself or in its holding body corporate;
 and
 (b) shall not permit any of its subsidiary bodies corporate to acquire shares of the corporation.
- Subsidiary holding shares of its parent (2) Subject to section 38, a corporation shall cause a subsidiary body corporate of the corporation that holds shares of the corporation to sell or otherwise dispose of those shares within five years from the date
 (a) the body corporate became a subsidiary of the corporation; or
 (b) the corporation was continued under this Act.
- Exception 38. (1) A corporation may in the capacity of a legal representative hold shares in itself or in its holding body corporate unless it or the holding body corporate or a subsidiary of either of them has a beneficial interest in the shares.
- Idem* (2) A corporation may hold shares in itself or in its holding body corporate by way of security for the purposes of a transaction entered into by it in the ordinary course of a business that includes the lending of money.
- Exception -- subsidiary acquiring shares (3) A corporation may permit any of its subsidiary bodies corporate to acquire shares of the corporation
 (a) in the subsidiary's capacity as a legal representative, unless the subsidiary would have a beneficial interest in the shares; or
 (b) by way of security for the purposes of a transaction entered into by the subsidiary in the ordinary course of a business that includes the lending of money.
- Exception -- conditions precedent (4) A corporation may permit any of its subsidiary bodies corporate to acquire shares of the corporation through the issuance of those shares by the corporation to the subsidiary body corporate if, before the acquisition takes place, the conditions prescribed for the purposes of this subsection are met.
- Conditions subsequent (5) After an acquisition has taken place under the purported authority of subsection (4), the conditions prescribed for the purposes of this subsection must be met.
- Non-compliance with conditions (6) If
 (a) a corporation permits a subsidiary body corporate to acquire shares of the corporation under the purported authority of subsection (4); and
 (b) either
 (i) one or more of the conditions prescribed for the purposes of subsection (4) were not met, or

(ii) one or more of the conditions prescribed for the purposes of subsection (5) are not met or cease to be met, then, notwithstanding subsections 14(3) and 33(2), the prescribed consequences apply in respect of the acquisition of the shares and their issuance.

39. (1) Subject to subsection 46(8), a corporation may, for the purpose of assisting the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to qualify under any prescribed law of Canada or a province to receive licences, permits, grants, payments or other benefits by reason of attaining or maintaining a specified level of Canadian ownership or control, hold shares in itself that

Exception relating to Canadian ownership

- (a) are not constrained for the purpose of assisting the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to qualify; or
- (b) are shares into which shares held under clause (a) were converted by the corporation that are constrained for the purpose of assisting the corporation to qualify and that were not previously held by the corporation.

(2) A corporation shall not transfer shares held under subsection (1) to any person unless the corporation is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the ownership of the shares as a result of the transfer would assist the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to achieve the purpose set out in subsection (1).

Prohibited transfers

(3) A corporation that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Offence

(4) Where a corporation commits an offence under subsection (3), any director of the corporation who knowingly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is a party to and guilty of the offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both, whether or not the corporation has been prosecuted or convicted.

Directors of corporation

(5) Where shares held under subsection (1) are transferred by a corporation, subsections 32(1), (3), (4) and (5), clause 90(2)(c) and subsection 93(1) apply, with such modifications as the circumstances require, in respect of the transfer as if the transfer were an issue.

Where shares are transferred

(6) No transfer of shares by a corporation shall be void or voidable solely because the transfer is in contravention of subsection (2).

Transfer not void

Voting shares

40. (1) A corporation holding shares in itself or in its holding body corporate shall not vote or permit those shares to be voted unless the corporation

- (a) holds the shares in the capacity of a legal representative; and
- (b) has complied with section 128.

Subsidiary body corporate

(2) A corporation shall not permit any of its subsidiary bodies corporate holding shares in the corporation to vote, or permit those shares to be voted, unless the subsidiary body corporate satisfies the requirements of subsection (1).

Acquisition of corporation's own
shares

41. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and to its articles, a corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by it.

Limitation

(2) A corporation shall not make any payment to purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by it if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would after the payment be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

Alternative acquisition of
shares

42. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 41(2), but subject to subsection (3) and to its articles, a corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by it to

- (a) settle or compromise a debt or claim asserted by or against the corporation;
- (b) eliminate fractional shares; or
- (c) fulfil the terms of a non-assignable agreement under which the corporation has an option or is obliged to purchase shares owned by a director, an officer or an employee of the corporation.

Idem

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 41(2), a corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by it to

- (a) satisfy the claim of a shareholder who dissents under section 164; or
- (b) comply with an order under section 202.

Limitation

(3) A corporation shall not make any payment to purchase or acquire under subsection (1) shares issued by it if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would after the payment be less than the aggregate of
 - (i) its liabilities, and

(ii) the amount required for payment on a redemption or in a liquidation of all shares the holders of which have the right to be paid before the holders of the shares to be purchased or acquired, to the extent that the amount has not been included in its liabilities.

43. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 41(2) or 42(3), but subject to subsection (2) and to its articles, a corporation may purchase or redeem any redeemable shares issued by it at prices not exceeding the redemption price stated in the articles or calculated according to a formula stated in the articles. Redemption of shares

(2) A corporation shall not make any payment to purchase or redeem any redeemable shares issued by it if there are reasonable grounds for believing that Limitation

- (a) the corporation is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would after the payment be less than the aggregate of
 - (i) its liabilities, and
 - (ii) the amount that would be required to pay the holders of shares that have a right to be paid, on a redemption or in a liquidation, rateably with or before the holders of the shares to be purchased or redeemed, to the extent that the amount has not been included in its liabilities.

44. A corporation may accept from any shareholder a share of the corporation surrendered to it as a gift, but may not extinguish or reduce a liability in respect of an amount unpaid on the share except in accordance with section 36. Donated shares

45. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a corporation may by special resolution reduce its stated capital for any purpose including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the purpose of Other reduction of stated capital

- (a) extinguishing or reducing a liability in respect of an amount unpaid on any share;
- (b) distributing to the holder of an issued share of any class or series of shares an amount not exceeding the stated capital of the class or series; and
- (c) declaring its stated capital to be reduced by an amount that is not represented by realizable assets.

(2) A special resolution under this section shall specify the stated capital account or accounts from which the reduction of stated capital effected by the special resolution will be deducted. Contents of special resolution

Limitation

(3) A corporation shall not reduce its stated capital for any purpose other than the purpose mentioned in clause (1)(c) if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is, or would after the reduction be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.

Recovery

(4) A creditor of a corporation is entitled to apply to the court for an order compelling a shareholder or other recipient

- (a) to pay to the corporation an amount equal to any liability of the shareholder that was extinguished or reduced contrary to this section; or
- (b) to pay or deliver to the corporation any money or property that was paid or distributed to the shareholder or other recipient as a consequence of a reduction of capital made contrary to this section.

Limitation

(5) An action to enforce a liability imposed by this section may not be commenced after two years from the date of the act complained of.

Adjustment of
account

46. (1) On a purchase, redemption or other acquisition by a corporation under section 41, 42, 43, 51 or 164 or clause 202(3)(f), of shares or fractions of shares issued by it, the corporation shall deduct from the stated capital account maintained for the class or series of shares of which the shares purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired form a part an amount equal to the result obtained by multiplying the stated capital of the shares of that class or series by the number of shares of that class or series or fractions of shares purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired, divided by the number of issued shares of that class or series immediately before the purchase, redemption or other acquisition.

Idem

(2) A corporation shall deduct the amount of a payment made by the corporation to a shareholder under clause 202(3)(g) from the stated capital account maintained for the class or series of shares in respect of which the payment was made.

Idem

(3) A corporation shall adjust its stated capital account or accounts in accordance with any special resolution referred to in subsection 45(2).

Idem

(4) On a conversion of issued shares of a corporation into shares of another class or series or a change under section 147, 165 or 202 of issued shares of a corporation into shares of another class or series, the corporation shall

- (a) deduct from the stated capital account maintained for the class or series of shares converted or changed an amount equal to the result obtained by multiplying the stated capital of the shares of that class or series by the number of shares of that class or series converted or changed, divided by the number of issued shares of that class or series immediately before the conversion or change; and

(b) add the result obtained under clause (a) and any additional consideration received pursuant to the conversion or change to the stated capital account maintained or to be maintained for the class or series of shares into which the shares have been converted or changed.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) and subject to its articles, where a corporation issues two classes of shares and there is attached to each such class a right to convert a share of the one class into a share of the other class, if a share of one class is converted into a share of the other class, the amount of stated capital attributable to a share in either class is the aggregate of the stated capital of both classes divided by the number of issued shares of both classes immediately before the conversion.

Stated capital of
shares

(6) Shares or fractions of shares of any class or series of shares issued by a corporation and purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by it shall be cancelled or, if the articles limit the number of authorized shares, may be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of the class.

Cancellation or restoration of shares

(7) For the purposes of this section, a corporation holding shares in itself as permitted by subsections 38(1) and (2) is deemed not to have purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired those shares.

Exception

(8) For the purposes of this section, a corporation holding shares in itself as permitted by clause 39(1)(a) is deemed not to have purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired the shares at the time they were acquired, but

Idem

(a) any of those shares that are held by the corporation at the expiration of two years; and

(b) any shares into which any of those shares were converted by the corporation and held under clause 39(1)(b) that are held by the corporation at the expiration of two years after the shares from which they were converted were acquired, are deemed to have been acquired at the expiration of the two years.

(9) Shares issued by a corporation and converted into shares of another class or series or changed under section 147, 165 or 202 into shares of another class or series shall become issued shares of the class or series of shares into which the shares have been converted or changed.

Conversion or change of shares

(10) Where the articles limit the number of authorized shares of a class of shares of a corporation and issued shares of that class or of a series of shares of that class have become, pursuant to subsection (9), issued shares of another class or series, the number of unissued shares of the

shares on number of unissued shares

first-mentioned class shall, unless the articles otherwise provide, be increased by the number of shares that, pursuant to subsection (9), became shares of another class or series.

Repayment

(11) Debt obligations issued, pledged, hypothecated or deposited by a corporation are not redeemed by reason only that the indebtedness evidenced by the debt obligations or in respect of which the debt obligations are issued, pledged, hypothecated or deposited is repaid.

Acquisition and reissue of debt obligations

(12) Debt obligations issued by a corporation and purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by it may be cancelled or, subject to any applicable trust indenture or other agreement, may be reissued, pledged or hypothecated to secure any obligation of the corporation then existing or thereafter incurred, and the acquisition and reissue, pledge or hypothecation is not a cancellation of the debt obligations.

Enforcement of contract to buy

47. (1) A corporation shall fulfil its obligations under a contract to buy shares of the corporation, except where the corporation can prove that enforcement of the contract would put it in breach of any of sections 32 to 34.

Status of contracting party

(2) Until the corporation has fulfilled all its obligations under a contract referred to in subsection (1), the other party retains the status of claimant entitled to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors and to the rights of holders of any class of shares whose rights were in priority to the rights given to the holders of the class of shares being purchased, but in priority to the rights of other shareholders.

Commission for sale of shares

48. The directors may authorize the corporation to pay a reasonable commission to any person in consideration of the person's purchasing or agreeing to purchase shares of the corporation from the corporation or from any other person, or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for those shares.

Dividends

49. A corporation shall not declare or pay a dividend if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

Form of dividend

50. (1) A corporation may pay a dividend by issuing fully paid shares of the corporation and, subject to section 49, a corporation may pay a dividend in money or property.

(2) If shares of a corporation are issued in payment of a dividend, the declared amount of the dividend stated as an amount of money shall be added to the stated capital account maintained or to be maintained for the shares of the class or series issued in payment of the dividend.

stated capital
account

51. (1) The shareholders of a corporation are not, as shareholders, liable for any liability, act or default of the corporation except under subsection 45(4), 93(4) or (5), 121(5) or 188(5) or (6).

Shareholder immunity

(2) Subject to the Securities Transfer Act, the articles may provide that the corporation has a lien on a share registered in the name of a shareholder or the shareholder's personal representative for a debt of that shareholder to the corporation, including an amount unpaid in respect of a share issued by a body corporate on the date it was continued under this Act.

Lien on shares

(3) A corporation may enforce a lien referred to in subsection (2) in accordance with its bylaws.

Enforcement of lien

PART VII

SECURITY CERTIFICATES, REGISTERS AND TRANSFERS

Interpretation and General

52. Except as otherwise provided in this Act and in the Judgment and Execution Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. J-2, the transfer or transmission of a security is governed by the Securities Transfer Act.

Application of Securities Transfer Act

53. (1) Every security holder is entitled at the holder's option to a security certificate that complies with this Act or a non-transferable written acknowledgment of the holder's right to obtain a security certificate from a corporation in respect of the holder's securities of that corporation.

Rights of holder

(2) A corporation may charge a fee, not exceeding the prescribed amount, for a security certificate issued in respect of a transfer.

Maximum fee for
regulation

(3) A corporation is not required to issue more than one security certificate in respect of securities held jointly by several persons, and delivery of a certificate to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all.

Joint holders

(4) A security certificate shall be signed by at least one of the following persons, or the signature shall be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced on the certificate:

Signatures

(a) a director or officer of the corporation;

- (b) a registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the corporation; and
- (c) a trustee who certifies it in accordance with a trust indenture.

signature

(5) If a security certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the corporation may issue the security certificate, notwithstanding that the person has ceased to be a director or an officer of the corporation, and the security certificate is as valid as if the person were a director or an officer at the date of its issue.

Contents of share
certificate

(6) There shall be stated on the face of each share certificate issued by a corporation

- (a) the name of the corporation;
- (b) the words “Incorporated under the Business Corporations Act”;
- (c) the name of the person to whom it was issued; and
- (d) the number and class of shares and the designation of any series that the certificate represents.

Limit on restriction

(7) A distributing corporation whose shares are held by more than one person shall not restrict the transfer of its shares except by way of a constraint permitted under section 138.

Particulars of class

(8) There shall be stated legibly on a share certificate issued by a corporation that is authorized to issue shares of more than one class or series

- (a) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the shares of each class and series that exists when the share certificate is issued; or
- (b) that the class or series of shares that it represents has rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to it and that the corporation will furnish a shareholder, on demand and without charge, with a full copy of the text of
 - (i) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to each class authorized to be issued and to each series in so far as they have been fixed by the directors, and
 - (ii) the authority of the directors to fix the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of subsequent series.

Duty

(9) Where a share certificate issued by a corporation contains the statement referred to in clause (8)(b), the corporation shall furnish a shareholder, on demand and without charge, with a full copy of the text of

- (a) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to each class authorized to be issued and to each series in so far as they have been fixed by the directors; and

(b) the authority of the directors to fix the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of subsequent series.

(10) A corporation may issue a certificate for a fractional share or may issue in place of it scrip certificates in bearer form that entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share by exchanging scrip certificates aggregating a full share.

Fractional share

(11) The directors may attach conditions to any scrip certificates issued by a corporation, including conditions that

Scrip certificates

- (a) the scrip certificates become void if not exchanged for a share certificate representing a full share before a specified date; and
- (b) any shares for which such scrip certificates are exchangeable may, notwithstanding any pre-emptive right, be issued by the corporation to any person and the proceeds of them distributed rateably to the holders of the scrip certificates.

(12) A holder of a fractional share issued by a corporation is not entitled to exercise voting rights or to receive a dividend in respect of the fractional share, unless

Holder of fractional share

- (a) the fractional share results from a consolidation of shares; or
- (b) the articles of the corporation otherwise provide.

(13) A holder of a scrip certificate is not entitled to exercise voting rights or to receive a dividend in respect of the scrip certificate.

Holder of scrip certificate

54. (1) A corporation shall maintain a securities register in which it records the securities issued by it in registered form, showing with respect to each class or series of securities

Securities records

- (a) the names, alphabetically arranged, and the latest known address of each person who is or has been a security holder;
- (b) the number of securities held by each security holder; and
- (c) the date and particulars of the issue and transfer of each security.

(2) A corporation may appoint an agent to maintain a central securities register and branch securities registers.

Central and branch registers

(3) A central securities register shall be maintained by a corporation at its registered office or at any other place in Prince Edward Island designated by the directors, and any branch securities registers may be kept at any place in or out of Prince Edward Island designated by the directors.

Place of register

(4) Registration of the issue or transfer of a security in the central securities register or in a branch securities register is complete and valid registration for all purposes.

Effect of registration

Branch register

(5) A branch securities register shall only contain particulars of securities issued or transferred at that branch.

Central register

(6) Particulars of each issue or transfer of a security registered in a branch securities register shall also be kept in the corresponding central securities register.

Destruction of certificates

(7) A corporation, its agent or a trustee defined in subsection 57(1) is not required to produce

(a) a cancelled security certificate in registered form, an instrument referred to in subsection 36(1) that is cancelled or a like cancelled instrument in registered form six years after the date of its cancellation;

(b) a cancelled security certificate in bearer form or an instrument referred to in subsection 36(1) that is cancelled or a like cancelled instrument in bearer form after the date of its cancellation; or

(c) an instrument referred to in subsection 36(1) or a like instrument, irrespective of its form, after the date of its expiration.

Dealings with registered holder

55. (1) A corporation or a trustee defined in subsection 57(1) may, subject to sections 108, 109 and 112 and the Judgment and Execution Act, treat the registered owner of a security as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any interest, dividend or other payments in respect of the security, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the security.

Constructive registered holder

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a corporation whose articles restrict the right to transfer its securities shall, and any other corporation may, treat a person as a registered security holder entitled to exercise all the rights of the security holder that the person represents, if the person furnishes the corporation with evidence as described in the Securities Transfer Act that the person is

(a) the heir of a deceased security holder, or the personal representative of the heirs, or the personal representative of the estate of a deceased security holder;

(b) a personal representative of a registered security holder who is a minor, an incompetent person or a missing person; or

(c) a liquidator of, or a trustee in bankruptcy for, a registered security holder.

Permissible registered holder

(3) If a person on whom the ownership of a security devolves by operation of law, other than a person described in subsection (2), furnishes proof of the person's authority to exercise rights or privileges in respect of a security of the corporation that is not registered in the person's name, the corporation shall treat the person as entitled to exercise those rights or privileges.

(4) A corporation is not required to inquire into the existence of, or see to the performance or observance of, any duty owed to a third person by a registered holder of any of its securities or by anyone whom it treats, as permitted or required by this section, as the owner or registered holder of them.

Immunity of corporation

(5) If a minor exercises any rights of ownership in the securities of a corporation, no subsequent repudiation or avoidance is effective against the corporation.

Persons less than eighteen years of age

(6) A corporation may treat as owner of a security the survivors of persons to whom the security was issued as joint holders, if it receives proof satisfactory to it of the death of the joint holders.

Joint holders

(7) Subject to any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes, a person referred to in clause (2)(a) is entitled to become a registered holder, or to designate a registered holder, if the person deposits with the corporation or its transfer agent

Transmission of securities

(a) the original grant of probate or of letters of administration, or a copy of either certified to be a true copy by

(i) the court that granted the probate or letters of administration,

(ii) a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province, or

(iii) a lawyer or notary acting on behalf of the person referred to in clause (2)(a); or

(b) in the case of transmission by notarial will in the Province of Quebec, a copy of it authenticated pursuant to the laws of that Province, together with

(c) an affidavit or declaration of transmission made by a person referred to in clause (2)(a), stating the particulars of the transmission; and

(d) the security certificate that was owned by the deceased holder

(i) in case of a transfer to a person referred to in clause (2)(a), with or without the endorsement of that person, and

(ii) in case of a transfer to any other person, with an effective endorsement in accordance with the Securities Transfer Act, and accompanied by any assurance the corporation may require under the Securities Transfer Act.

(8) Despite subsection (7), if the laws of the jurisdiction governing the transmission of a security of a deceased holder do not require a grant of probate or of letters of administration in respect of the transmission, a personal representative of the deceased holder is entitled, subject to any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes, to become a registered

holder or to designate a registered holder, if the personal representative deposits with the corporation or its transfer agent

- (a) the security certificate that was owned by the deceased holder; and
- (b) reasonable proof of the governing laws, of the deceased holder's interest in the security and of the right of the personal representative or the person designated by the personal representative to become the registered holder.

Right of corporation (9) Deposit of the documents required by subsection (7) or (8) empowers a corporation or its transfer agent to record in a securities register the transmission of a security from the deceased holder to a person referred to in clause (2)(a) or to a person designated by the person referred to in that clause and, thereafter, to treat the person who thus becomes a registered holder as the owner of those securities.

Retroactive validation of overissue 56. (1) When there has been an overissue within the meaning of the Securities Transfer Act, and the corporation subsequently amends its articles, or a trust indenture to which it is a party, to increase its authorized securities to a number equal to or in excess of the number of securities previously authorized plus the amount of the securities overissued, the securities so overissued are valid from the date of their issue.

Application (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the issuer has purchased and delivered a security in accordance with the Securities Transfer Act.

Payment not a purchase or redemption (3) A purchase or payment in accordance with the Securities Transfer Act is not a purchase or payment to which section 41, 42, 43 or 46 applies.

PART VIII

TRUST INDENTURES

Definitions 57. (1) In this Part, event of default (a) "event of default" means an event specified in a trust indenture on the occurrence of which

- (i) a security interest constituted by the trust indenture becomes enforceable, or
- (ii) the principal, interest and other moneys payable under the trust indenture become or may be declared to be payable before maturity, but the event is not an event of default until all conditions prescribed by the trust indenture in connection with the event for the giving of notice or the lapse of time or otherwise have been satisfied;

- (b) “trustee” means any person appointed as trustee under the terms of a trust indenture to which a corporation is a party and includes any successor trustee; trustee
- (c) “trust indenture” means any deed, indenture or other instrument, including any supplement or amendment to it, made by a corporation after its incorporation or continuance under this Act, under which the corporation issues debt obligations and in which a person is appointed as trustee for the holders of the debt obligations issued under it. trust indenture
- (2) This Part applies to a trust indenture if the debt obligations issued or to be issued under the trust indenture are part of a distribution to the public. Application
- (3) The Director may exempt a trust indenture from this Part if the trust indenture, the debt obligations issued under it and the security interest effected by it are subject to a law of a province or a country other than Canada that is substantially equivalent to this Part. Exemption
- 58. (1) No person shall be appointed as trustee if there is a material conflict of interest between the person’s role as trustee and the person’s role in any other capacity. Conflict of interest
- (2) A trustee shall, within ninety days after becoming aware that a material conflict of interest exists
(a) eliminate the conflict of interest; or
(b) resign from office. Eliminating conflict of interest
- (3) A trust indenture, any debt obligations issued under it and a security interest effected by it are valid notwithstanding a material conflict of interest of the trustee. Validity
- (4) If a trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2), any interested person may apply to the court for an order that the trustee be replaced, and the court may make an order on such terms as it thinks fit. Removal of trustee
- 59. A trustee, or at least one of the trustees if more than one is appointed, shall be a body corporate incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province and authorized to carry on the business of a trust company. Qualification of trustee
- 60. (1) A holder of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture may, on payment to the trustee of a reasonable fee, require the trustee to furnish, within fifteen days after delivering to the trustee the statutory declaration referred to in subsection (4), a list setting out
(a) the names and addresses of the registered holders of the outstanding debt obligations; List of security holders

(b) the principal amount of outstanding debt obligations owned by each holder; and

(c) the aggregate principal amount of debt obligations outstanding as shown on the records maintained by the trustee on the day that the statutory declaration is delivered to that trustee.

Duty of issuer (2) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer of debt obligations shall furnish the trustee with the information required to enable the trustee to comply with subsection (1).

Corporate applicant (3) If the person requiring the trustee to furnish a list under subsection (1) is a body corporate, the statutory declaration required under that subsection shall be made by a director or officer of the body corporate.

Contents of statutory declaration (4) The statutory declaration required under subsection (1) shall state
(a) the name and address of the person requiring the trustee to furnish the list and, if the person is a body corporate, the address for service of the corporation; and
(b) that the list will not be used except as permitted under subsection (5).

Use of list (5) No person shall use a list obtained under this section except in connection with
(a) an effort to influence the voting of the holders of debt obligations;
(b) an offer to acquire debt obligations; or
(c) any other matter relating to the debt obligations or the affairs of the issuer or guarantor of them.

Offence (6) A person who, without reasonable cause, contravenes subsection (5) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Evidence of compliance 61. (1) An issuer or a guarantor of debt obligations issued or to be issued under a trust indenture shall, before doing any act under clause (a), (b) or (c), furnish the trustee with evidence of compliance with the conditions in the trust indenture relating to
(a) the issue, certification and delivery of debt obligations under the trust indenture;
(b) the release or release and substitution of property subject to a security interest constituted by the trust indenture; or
(c) the satisfaction and discharge of the trust indenture.

Duty of issuer or guarantor (2) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued or to be issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with evidence of compliance with the trust indenture by the issuer or guarantor in respect of any act to be done by the trustee at the request of the issuer or guarantor.

62. Evidence of compliance as required by section 61 shall consist of

- (a) a statutory declaration or certificate made by a director or an officer of the issuer or guarantor stating that the conditions referred to in that section have been complied with; and
- (b) where the trust indenture requires compliance with conditions that are subject to review
 - (i) by legal counsel, an opinion of legal counsel that the conditions have been complied with, and
 - (ii) by an auditor or accountant, an opinion or report of the auditor of the issuer or guarantor, or another accountant selected by the trustee, that the conditions have been complied with.

Contents of declaration, etc.

63. The evidence of compliance referred to in section 62 shall include a statement by the person giving the evidence

- (a) declaring that the person has read and understood the conditions of the trust indenture described in section 61;
- (b) describing the nature and scope of the examination or investigation on which the certificate, statement or opinion is based; and
- (c) declaring that the person has made the examination or investigation that the person believes necessary to enable the person to make the statements or give the opinions.

Further evidence of compliance

64. (1) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with evidence in the form required by the trustee as to compliance with any condition of the trust indenture relating to any action required or permitted to be taken by the issuer or guarantor under the trust indenture.

Trustee may require evidence of compliance

(2) At least once in each twelve-month period beginning on the date of the trust indenture and at any other time on the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with a certificate that the issuer or guarantor has complied with all requirements contained in the trust indenture that, if not complied with, would, with the giving of notice, lapse of time or otherwise, constitute an event of default, or, if there has been failure to comply with them, giving particulars of the failure.

Certificate of compliance

65. The trustee shall give to the holders of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture, within thirty days after the trustee becomes aware of the occurrence of the event, notice of every event of default arising under the trust indenture and continuing at the time the notice is given, unless the trustee reasonably believes that it is in the best interests of the holders of the debt obligations to withhold the notice and so informs the issuer and guarantor in writing.

Notice of default

Duty of care

66. A trustee in exercising the trustee's powers and discharging the trustee's duties shall

(a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the holders of the debt obligations issued under the trust indenture; and

(b) exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent trustee.

Reliance on statements

67. Notwithstanding section 66, a trustee is not liable if the trustee relies in good faith on statements contained in a statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report that complies with this Act or the trust indenture.

No exculpation

68. No term of a trust indenture or of any agreement between a trustee and the holders of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture or between the trustee and the issuer or guarantor shall operate so as to relieve a trustee from the duties imposed on the trustee by section 66.

PART IX

RECEIVERS AND RECEIVER-MANAGERS

Functions of receiver

69. A receiver of any property of a corporation may, subject to the rights of secured creditors, receive the income from the property and pay the liabilities connected with the property and realize the security interest of those on behalf of whom the receiver is appointed, but, except to the extent permitted by the court, the receiver may not carry on the business of the corporation.

Functions of receiver-manager

70. A receiver of a corporation who is also appointed receiver-manager of the corporation may carry on any business of the corporation to protect the security interest of those on behalf of whom the receiver is appointed.

Directors' powers cease

71. If a receiver-manager is appointed by the court or under an instrument, the powers of the directors of the corporation that the receiver-manager is authorized to exercise may not be exercised by the directors until the receiver-manager is discharged.

Duty to act

72. A receiver or receiver-manager appointed by the court shall act in accordance with the directions of the court.

Duty under instrument

73. A receiver or receiver-manager appointed under an instrument shall act in accordance with that instrument and any direction of the court made under section 75.

74. A receiver or receiver-manager of a corporation appointed under an instrument shall

Duty of care

- (a) act honestly and in good faith; and
- (b) deal with any property of the corporation in the receiver's or receiver-manager's possession or control in a commercially reasonable manner.

75. On an application by a receiver or receiver-manager, whether appointed by the court or under an instrument, or on an application by any interested person, the court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

Directions given by court

- (a) an order appointing, replacing or discharging a receiver or receiver-manager and approving the receiver's or receiver-manager's accounts;
- (b) an order determining the notice to be given to any person or dispensing with notice to any person;
- (c) an order fixing the remuneration of the receiver or receiver-manager;
- (d) an order requiring the receiver or receiver-manager, or a person by or on behalf of whom the receiver or receiver-manager is appointed, to make good any default in connection with the receiver's or receiver-manager's custody or management of the property and business of the corporation, or to relieve any such person from any default on such terms as the court thinks fit, and to confirm any act of the receiver or receiver-manager; and
- (e) an order giving directions on any matter relating to the duties of the receiver or receiver-manager.

76. A receiver or receiver-manager shall

Duties of receiver and receiver-manager

- (a) immediately notify the Director of the person's appointment and discharge;
- (b) take into the person's custody and control the property of the corporation in accordance with the Court order or instrument under which the person is appointed;
- (c) open and maintain a bank account in the person's name as receiver or receiver-manager of the corporation for the moneys of the corporation coming under the person's control;
- (d) keep detailed accounts of all transactions carried out as receiver or receiver-manager;
- (e) keep accounts of the person's administration that shall be available during usual business hours for inspection by the directors of the corporation;
- (f) prepare at least once in every six-month period after the date of the person's appointment financial statements of the person's administration as far as is practicable in the form required by section 130; and

(g) on completion of the person's duties, render a final account of the person's administration in the form adopted for interim accounts under clause (f).

PART X

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Duty to manage or supervise management	77. (1) Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, the directors shall manage, or supervise the management of, the business and affairs of a corporation.
Number of directors	(2) A corporation shall have one or more directors but a distributing corporation, any of the issued securities of which remain outstanding and are held by more than one person, shall have not fewer than three directors, at least two of whom are not officers or employees of the corporation or its affiliates.
Bylaws	78. (1) Unless the articles, bylaws or a unanimous shareholder agreement otherwise provide, the directors may, by resolution, make, amend or repeal any bylaws that regulate the business or affairs of the corporation.
Shareholder approval	(2) The directors shall submit a bylaw, or an amendment or a repeal of a bylaw, made under subsection (1) to the shareholders at the next meeting of shareholders, and the shareholders may, by ordinary resolution, confirm, reject or amend the bylaw, amendment or repeal.
Effective date	(3) A bylaw, or an amendment or a repeal of a bylaw, is effective from the date of the resolution of the directors under subsection (1) until it is confirmed, confirmed as amended or rejected by the shareholders under subsection (2) or until it ceases to be effective under subsection (4) and, where the bylaw is confirmed or confirmed as amended, it continues in effect in the form in which it was confirmed.
Idem	(4) If a bylaw, an amendment or a repeal is rejected by the shareholders, or if the directors do not submit a bylaw, an amendment or a repeal to the shareholders as required under subsection (2), the bylaw, amendment or repeal ceases to be effective and no subsequent resolution of the directors to make, amend or repeal a bylaw having substantially the same purpose or effect is effective until it is confirmed or confirmed as amended by the shareholders.
Shareholder proposal	(5) A shareholder entitled to vote at an annual meeting of shareholders may, in accordance with section 111, make a proposal to make, amend or repeal a bylaw.

- 79. (1) After issue of the certificate of incorporation, a meeting of the directors of the corporation shall be held at which the directors may
- (a) make bylaws;
 - (b) adopt forms of security certificates and corporate records;
 - (c) authorize the issue of securities;
 - (d) appoint officers;
 - (e) appoint an auditor to hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders;
 - (f) make banking arrangements; and
 - (g) transact any other business.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a body corporate to which a certificate of amalgamation has been issued under subsection 159(4) or to which a certificate of continuance has been issued under subsection 161(4).
- (3) An incorporator or a director may call the meeting of directors referred to in subsection (1) by giving not less than five days' notice by mail to each director, stating the time and place of the meeting.
- 80. (1) The following persons are disqualified from being a director of a corporation:
- (a) anyone who is less than eighteen years of age;
 - (b) anyone who is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court in Canada or elsewhere;
 - (c) a person who is not an individual; or
 - (d) a person who has the status of bankrupt.
- (2) Unless the articles otherwise provide, a director of a corporation is not required to hold shares issued by the corporation.
- 81. (1) At the time of sending articles of incorporation, the incorporators shall send to the Director a notice of directors in the form approved by the Director, and the Director shall file the notice.
- (2) Where no director named in the notice referred to in subsection (1) is a resident of Prince Edward Island, the incorporators shall send to the Director, together with the notice, a certificate in the form approved by the Director that is completed on behalf of the incorporators by a solicitor entitled to practise law in Prince Edward Island.
- (3) Each director named in the notice referred to in subsection (1) holds office from the issue of the certificate of incorporation until the first meeting of shareholders.
- (4) Subject to clause 82(b), shareholders of a corporation shall, by ordinary resolution at the first meeting of shareholders and at each succeeding annual meeting at which an election of directors is required, elect directors to hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the third annual meeting of shareholders following the election.

Election of directors

Staggered terms

(5) It is not necessary that all directors elected at a meeting of shareholders hold office for the same term.

No stated terms

(6) A director not elected for an expressly stated term ceases to hold office at the close of the first annual meeting of shareholders following the director's election.

Incumbent directors

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (3), (4) and (6), if directors are not elected at a meeting of shareholders the incumbent directors continue in office until their successors are elected.

Vacancy among candidates

(8) If a meeting of shareholders fails to elect the number or the minimum number of directors required by the articles by reason of the lack of consent, disqualification, incapacity or death of any candidates, the directors elected at that meeting may exercise all the powers of the directors if the number of directors elected constitutes a quorum.

Appointment of directors

(9) The directors may, if the articles of the corporation so provide, appoint one or more additional directors, who shall hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the next annual meeting of shareholders, but the total number of directors so appointed may not exceed one third of the number of directors elected at the previous annual meeting of shareholders.

Election or appointment as director

(10) An individual who is elected or appointed to hold office as a director is not a director and is deemed not to have been elected or appointed to hold office as a director unless

(a) he or she was present at the meeting when the election or appointment took place and he or she did not refuse to hold office as a director; or

(b) he or she was not present at the meeting when the election or appointment took place and

(i) he or she consented to hold office as a director in writing before the election or appointment or within ten days after it, or

(ii) he or she has acted as a director pursuant to the election or appointment.

Cumulative voting

82. Where the articles provide for cumulative voting,

(a) the articles shall require a fixed number and not a minimum and maximum number of directors;

(b) each shareholder entitled to vote at an election of directors has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of votes attached to the shares held by the shareholder multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, and may cast all of those votes in favour of one candidate or distribute them among the candidates in any manner;

(c) a separate vote of shareholders shall be taken with respect to each candidate nominated for director unless a resolution is passed unanimously permitting two or more persons to be elected by a single resolution;

(d) if a shareholder has voted for more than one candidate without specifying the distribution of votes, the shareholder is deemed to have distributed the votes equally among those candidates;

(e) if the number of candidates nominated for director exceeds the number of positions to be filled, the candidates who receive the least number of votes shall be eliminated until the number of candidates remaining equals the number of positions to be filled;

(f) each director ceases to hold office at the close of the first annual meeting of shareholders following the director's election;

(g) a director may be removed from office only if the number of votes cast in favour of the director's removal is greater than the product of the number of directors required by the articles and the number of votes cast against the motion; and

(h) the number of directors required by the articles may be decreased only if the votes cast in favour of the motion to decrease the number of directors is greater than the product of the number of directors required by the articles and the number of votes cast against the motion.

83. (1) A director of a corporation ceases to hold office when the director

Ceasing to hold office

- (a) dies or resigns;
- (b) is removed in accordance with section 84; or
- (c) becomes disqualified under subsection 80(1).

(2) A resignation of a director becomes effective at the time a written resignation is sent to the corporation, or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later.

Effective date of resignation

84. (1) Subject to clause 82(g), the shareholders of a corporation may by ordinary resolution at a special meeting remove any director or directors from office.

Removal of directors

(2) Where the holders of any class or series of shares of a corporation have an exclusive right to elect one or more directors, a director so elected may only be removed by an ordinary resolution at a meeting of the shareholders of that class or series.

Exception

(3) Subject to clauses 82(b) to (e), a vacancy created by the removal of a director may be filled at the meeting of the shareholders at which the director is removed or, if not filled at that meeting, may be filled under section 80.

Manager deemed director

(4) If all of the directors have resigned or have been removed without replacement, a person who manages or supervises the management of the business and affairs of the corporation is deemed to be a director for the purposes of this Act.

Exception

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to

- (a) an officer who manages the business or affairs of the corporation under the direction or control of a shareholder or other person;
- (b) a lawyer, notary, accountant or other professional who participates in the management of the corporation solely for the purpose of providing professional services; or
- (c) a trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, receiver-manager or secured creditor who participates in the management of the corporation or exercises control over its property solely for the purpose of the realization of security or the administration of a bankrupt's estate, in the case of a trustee in bankruptcy.

Attendance at meeting

85. (1) A director of a corporation is entitled to receive notice of and to attend and be heard at every meeting of shareholders.

Statement of director

(2) A director who

- (a) resigns;
- (b) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of removing the director from office; or
- (c) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of directors or shareholders at which another person is to be appointed or elected to fill the office of director, whether because of the director's resignation or removal or because the director's term of office has expired or is about to expire, is entitled to submit to the corporation a written statement giving reasons for resigning or for opposing any proposed action or resolution.

Circulating statement

(3) A corporation shall immediately send a copy of the statement referred to in subsection (2) to every shareholder entitled to receive notice of any meeting referred to in subsection (1) unless the statement is included in or attached to a management proxy circular required by section 125.

No liability

(4) No corporation or person acting on its behalf incurs any liability by reason only of circulating a director's statement in compliance with subsection (3).

Filling vacancy

86. (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a quorum of directors may fill a vacancy among the directors, except a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number or the minimum or maximum number of directors or a failure to elect the number or minimum number of directors provided for in the articles.

(2) If there is not a quorum of directors or if there has been a failure to elect the number or minimum number of directors provided for in the articles, the directors then in office shall without delay call a special meeting of shareholders to fill the vacancy and, if they fail to call a meeting or if there are no directors then in office, the meeting may be called by any shareholder.

Calling meeting

(3) If the holders of any class or series of shares of a corporation have an exclusive right to elect one or more directors and a vacancy occurs among those directors,

Class director

(a) subject to subsection (4), the remaining directors elected by the holders of that class or series of shares may fill the vacancy, except a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number or the minimum or maximum number of directors for that class or series or from a failure to elect the number or minimum number of directors provided for in the articles for that class or series; or

(b) if there are no remaining directors any holder of shares of that class or series, may call a meeting of the holders of shares of that class or series for the purpose of filling the vacancy.

(4) The articles may provide that a vacancy among the directors shall only be filled by a vote of the shareholders, or by a vote of the holders of any class or series of shares having an exclusive right to elect one or more directors if the vacancy occurs among the directors elected by that class or series.

Shareholders filling
vacancy

(5) A director appointed or elected to fill a vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the director's predecessor.

Unexpired term

87. (1) The shareholders of a corporation may amend the articles to increase or, subject to clause 82(h), to decrease the number of directors, or the minimum or maximum number of directors, but no decrease shall shorten the term of an incumbent director.

Number of directors

(2) Where the shareholders at a meeting adopt an amendment to the articles of a corporation to increase or, subject to clause 82(h) and to subsection (1), decrease the number or minimum or maximum number of directors, the shareholders may, at the meeting, elect the number of directors authorized by the amendment, and for that purpose, notwithstanding subsections 153(1) and 230(3), on the issue of a

- (b) is for indemnity or insurance under section 99; or
- (c) is with an affiliate.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a general notice to the directors declaring that a director or an officer is to be regarded as interested, for any of the following reasons, in a contract or transaction made with a party, is a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to the contract or transaction:

Continuing disclosure

- (a) the director or officer is a director or officer, or acting in a similar capacity, of a party referred to in clause (1)(b) or (c);
- (b) the director or officer has a material interest in the party; or
- (c) there has been a material change in the nature of the director's or the officer's interest in the party.

(7) The shareholders of the corporation may examine the portions of any minutes of meetings of directors or of committees of directors that contain disclosures under this section, and any other documents that contain those disclosures, during the usual business hours of the corporation.

Access to disclosures

(8) A contract or transaction for which disclosure is required under subsection (1) is not invalid, and the director or officer is not accountable to the corporation or its shareholders for any profit realized from the contract or transaction, because of the director's or officer's interest in the contract or transaction or because the director was present or was counted to determine whether a quorum existed at the meeting of directors or committee of directors that considered the contract or transaction, if

Avoidance standards

- (a) disclosure of the interest was made in accordance with subsections (1) to (6);
- (b) the directors approved the contract or transaction; and
- (c) the contract or transaction was reasonable and fair to the corporation when it was approved.

(9) Even if the conditions of subsection (8) are not met, a director or officer, acting honestly and in good faith, is not accountable to the corporation or to its shareholders for any profit realized from a contract or transaction for which disclosure is required under subsection (1), and the contract or transaction is not invalid by reason only of the interest of the director or officer in the contract or transaction, if

Confirmation by shareholders

- (a) the contract or transaction is approved or confirmed by special resolution at a meeting of the shareholders;

- (b) disclosure of the interest was made to the shareholders in a manner sufficient to indicate its nature before the contract or transaction was approved or confirmed; and
- (c) the contract or transaction was reasonable and fair to the corporation when it was approved or confirmed.

Application to court (10) If a director or an officer of a corporation fails to comply with this section, the court may, on application of the corporation or any of its shareholders, set aside the contract or transaction on any terms that it thinks fit, or require the director or officer to account to the corporation for any profit or gain realized on it, or do both those things.

Officers 96. Subject to the articles, the bylaws or any unanimous shareholder agreement,

- (a) the directors may designate the offices of the corporation, appoint as officers persons of full capacity, specify their duties and delegate to them powers to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, except powers to do anything referred to in subsection 90(2);
- (b) a director may be appointed to any office of the corporation; and
- (c) two or more offices of the corporation may be held by the same person.

Duty of care of directors and officers 97. (1) Every director and officer of a corporation, in exercising the person's powers and discharging the person's duties, shall

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Duty to comply (2) Every director and officer of a corporation shall comply with this Act, the regulations, articles, bylaws and any unanimous shareholder agreement.

No exculpation (3) Subject to subsection 121(5), no provision in a contract, the articles, the bylaws or a resolution relieves a director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with this Act or the regulations or relieves the director or officer from liability for a breach of them.

Dissent 98. (1) A director who is present at a meeting of directors or committee of directors is deemed to have consented to any resolution passed or action taken at the meeting unless

- (a) the director requests a dissent to be entered in the minutes of the meeting, or the dissent has been entered in the minutes;
- (b) the director sends a written dissent to the secretary of the meeting before the meeting is adjourned; or

(c) the director sends a dissent by registered mail or delivers it to the registered office of the corporation immediately after the meeting is adjourned.

(2) A director who votes for or consents to a resolution is not entitled to dissent under subsection (1). Loss of right to dissent

(3) A director who was not present at a meeting at which a resolution was passed or action taken is deemed to have consented to it unless within seven days after becoming aware of the resolution, the director Dissent of absent director

- (a) causes a dissent to be placed with the minutes of the meeting; or
- (b) sends a dissent by registered mail or delivers it to the registered office of the corporation.

(4) A director is not liable under section 93 or 94, and has complied with his or her duties under subsection 97(2), if the director exercised the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised in comparable circumstances, including reliance in good faith on Defence -- reasonable diligence

- (a) financial statements of the corporation represented to the director by an officer of the corporation or in a written report of the auditor of the corporation to present fairly the financial condition of the corporation; or
- (b) a report of a person whose profession lends credibility to a statement made by the professional person.

(5) A director has complied with his or her duties under subsection 97(1) if the director relied in good faith on Defence -- good faith

- (a) financial statements of the corporation represented to the director by an officer of the corporation or in a written report of the auditor of the corporation fairly to reflect the financial condition of the corporation; or
- (b) a report of a person whose profession lends credibility to a statement made by the professional person.

99.(1) A corporation may indemnify a director or officer of the corporation, a former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity. Indemnification

(2) A corporation may advance moneys to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to Advance of costs in subsection (1) and the individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfil the conditions of subsection (3).

Limitation

(3) A corporation shall not indemnify an individual under subsection (1) unless the individual

(a) acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the corporation's request; and

(b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual's conduct was lawful.

Indemnification in derivative actions

(4) A corporation may, with the approval of the court, indemnify an individual referred to in subsection (1), or advance moneys under subsection (2), in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation or other entity to procure a judgment in its favour, to which the individual is made a party because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1), against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with that action, if the individual fulfils the conditions set out in subsection (3).

Right to indemnity

(5) Despite subsection (1), an individual referred to in that subsection is entitled to indemnity from the corporation in respect of all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with the defence of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding to which the individual is subject because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1), if the individual seeking indemnity

(a) was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done; and

(b) fulfils the conditions set out in subsection (3).

Insurance

(6) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of an individual referred to in subsection (1) against any liability incurred by the individual

(a) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer of the corporation; or

(b) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer, or similar capacity, of another entity, if the individual acts or acted in that capacity at the corporation's request.

Application to court

(7) A corporation, an individual or an entity referred to in subsection (1) may apply to the court for an order approving an indemnity under this section and the court may so order and make any further order that it sees fit.

(8) An application under subsection (7) shall provide notice to the Director of the application and the Director is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. Notice to Director

(9) On an application under subsection (7) the court may order notice to be given to any interested person and the person is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. Other notice

SHAREHOLDERS

106. (1) Meetings of shareholders of a corporation shall be held at the place within Prince Edward Island provided in the bylaws or, in the absence of any provision, at the place within Prince Edward Island that the directors determine. Place of meetings

(2) Despite subsection (1), a meeting of shareholders of a corporation may be held at a place outside Prince Edward Island if the place is specified in the articles or all the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting agree that the meeting shall be held at that place. Meeting outside Prince Edward Island

(3) A shareholder who attends a meeting of shareholders held outside Prince Edward Island is deemed to have agreed to it being held outside Prince Edward Island except when the shareholder attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully held. Exception

(4) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, any person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders may participate in the meeting, in accordance with the regulations, if any, by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the corporation makes available such a communication facility, and a person participating in a meeting by that means is deemed for the purposes of this Act to be present at the meeting. Participation in meeting by electronic means

(5) If the directors or the shareholders of a corporation call a meeting of shareholders pursuant to this Act, those directors or shareholders, as the case may be, may determine that the meeting shall be held, in accordance with the regulations, if any, entirely by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the bylaws so provide. Meeting held by electronic means

107. (1) The directors of a corporation shall call an annual meeting of shareholders Calling annual meetings

- (a) not later than eighteen months after the corporation comes into existence; and
- (b) subsequently, not later than fifteen months after holding the last preceding annual meeting, and not later than six months after the end of the corporation's preceding financial year.

(2) The directors of a corporation may at any time call a special meeting of shareholders. Calling special meetings

meeting
Fixing record date

(3) Despite subsection (1), the corporation may apply to the court for an order extending the time for calling an annual meeting.

108. (1) The directors may, within the prescribed period, fix in advance a date as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders

- (a) entitled to receive payment of a dividend;
- (b) entitled to participate in a liquidation distribution;
- (c) entitled to receive notice of a meeting of shareholders;
- (d) entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders; or
- (e) for any other purpose.

No record date fixed

(2) If no record date is fixed,

(a) the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of a meeting of shareholders shall be

- (i) at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given, or
 - (ii) if no notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held;
- and

(b) the record date for the determination of shareholders for any purpose other than to establish a shareholder's right to receive notice of a meeting or to vote shall be at the close of business on the day on which the directors pass the resolution relating to it.

When record date
fixed

(3) If a record date is fixed, unless notice of the record date is waived in writing by every holder of a share of the class or series affected whose name is set out in the securities register at the close of business on the day the directors fix the record date, notice of the record date must be given within the prescribed period

- (a) by advertisement in a newspaper published or distributed in the place where the corporation has its registered office and in each place in Canada where it has a transfer agent or where a transfer of its shares may be recorded; and

(5) If requested by the corporation within the prescribed period, a person who submits a proposal shall provide proof, within the prescribed period, that the person meets the requirements of subsection (2).

Information circular

(6) A corporation that solicits proxies shall set out the proposal in the management proxy circular required by section 125 or attach the proposal to it.

Supporting statement

(7) If so requested by the person who submits a proposal, the corporation shall include in the management proxy circular or attach to it a statement in support of the proposal by the person and the name and address of the person, and the statement and the proposal shall together not exceed the prescribed maximum number of words.

Nomination for director

(8) A proposal may include nominations for the election of directors if the proposal is signed by one or more holders of shares representing in the aggregate not less than five per cent of the shares or five per cent of the shares of a class of shares of the corporation entitled to vote at the meeting to which the proposal is to be presented, but this subsection does not preclude nominations made at a meeting of shareholders.

Exemptions

(9) A corporation is not required to comply with subsections (6) and (7) if

- (a) the proposal is not submitted to the corporation at least 90 days before the anniversary date of the previous annual meeting of shareholders;

- (b) it clearly appears that the primary purpose of the proposal is to enforce a personal claim or redress a personal grievance against the corporation or its directors, officers or security holders;
- (c) it clearly appears that the proposal does not relate in a significant way to the business or affairs of the corporation;
- (d) less than 2 years before the receipt of a proposal, the same person failed to present, in person or by proxy, at a meeting of shareholders, a proposal that, at the person's request, had been included in a management proxy circular relating to the meeting;
- (e) substantially the same proposal was submitted to shareholders in a management proxy circular or a dissident's proxy circular relating to a meeting of shareholders held not more than 2 years before the receipt of the proposal and the proposal was defeated; or
- (f) the rights conferred by this section are being abused to secure publicity.

(10) If a person who submits a proposal fails to continue to hold or own the required number of shares up to and including the day of the meeting, the corporation is not required to set out in the management proxy circular, or attach to it, any proposal submitted by that person for any meeting held within the prescribed period following the date of the meeting.

Corporation may refuse to include proposal

(11) No corporation or person acting on its behalf incurs any liability by reason only of circulating a proposal or statement in compliance with this section.

No liability

(12) If a corporation refuses to include a proposal in a management proxy circular, the corporation shall, within 10 days after the day on which it receives the proposal, notify in writing the person submitting the proposal of its intention to omit the proposal from the management proxy circular and of the reasons for the refusal.

Notice of refusal

(13) On the application of a person submitting a proposal who claims to be aggrieved by a corporation's refusal under subsection (12), the court may restrain the holding of the meeting to which the proposal is sought to be presented and make any further order it thinks fit.

Person may apply to court

(14) The corporation or any person claiming to be aggrieved by a proposal may apply to the court for an order permitting the corporation to omit the proposal from the management proxy circular, and the court, if it is satisfied that subsection (9) applies, may make any order it thinks fit.

Corporation's application to court

112. (1) A corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of its shareholders entitled to receive notice of a meeting, showing the number of shares held by each shareholder,

List of shareholders entitled to receive notice

- (a) if a record date is fixed under clause 108(1)(c), not later than ten days after that date; or
- (b) if no record date is fixed, on the record date established under clause 108(2)(a).

Voting list - if record date fixed

(2) If a record date for voting is fixed under clause 108(1)(d), the corporation shall prepare, no later than ten days after the record date, an alphabetical list of shareholders entitled to vote as of the record date at a meeting of shareholders that shows the number of shares held by each shareholder.

Voting list - if no record date fixed

(3) If a record date for voting is not fixed under clause 108(1)(d), the corporation shall prepare, no later than ten days after a record date is fixed under clause 108(1)(c) or no later than the record date established under clause 108(2)(a), as the case may be, an alphabetical list of shareholders who are entitled to vote as of the record date that shows the number of shares held by each shareholder.

Entitlement to vote

(4) A shareholder whose name appears on a list prepared under subsection (2) or (3) is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite their name at the meeting to which the list relates.

Examination of list

- (5) A shareholder may examine the list of shareholders
- (a) during usual business hours at the registered office of the corporation or at the place where its central securities register is maintained; and
 - (b) at the meeting of shareholders for which the list was prepared.

Quorum

113. (1) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, a quorum of shareholders is present at a meeting of shareholders, irrespective of the number of persons actually present at the meeting, if the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting are present in person or represented by proxy.

Opening quorum sufficient

(2) If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present may, unless the bylaws otherwise provide, proceed with the business of the meeting, notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting.

Adjournment

(3) If a quorum is not present at the opening of a meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

One shareholder
meeting

(4) If a corporation has only one shareholder, or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or by proxy constitutes a meeting.

Right to vote

114. (1) Unless the articles otherwise provide, each share of a corporation entitles the holder of it to one vote at a meeting of shareholders.

(2) If a body corporate or association is a shareholder of a corporation, the corporation shall recognize any individual authorized by a resolution of the directors or governing body of the body corporate or association to represent it at meetings of shareholders of the corporation.

Representative

(3) An individual authorized under subsection (2) may exercise on behalf of the body corporate or association all the powers it could exercise if it were an individual shareholder.

Powers of representative

(4) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, if two or more persons hold shares jointly, one of those holders present at a meeting of shareholders may in the absence of the others vote the shares, but if two or more of those persons who are present, in person or by proxy, vote, they shall vote as one on the shares jointly held by them.

Joint shareholders

115. (1) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, voting at a meeting of shareholders shall be by show of hands except where a ballot is demanded by a shareholder or proxyholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Voting

(2) A shareholder or proxyholder may demand a ballot either before or after any vote by show of hands.

Ballot

(3) Despite subsection (1), unless the bylaws otherwise provide, any vote referred to in subsection (1) may be held, in accordance with the regulations, if any, entirely by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility, if the corporation makes available that a communication facility.

Electronic voting

(4) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, any person participating in a meeting of shareholders under subsection 106(4) or (5) and entitled to vote at that meeting may vote, in accordance with the regulations, if any, by means of the telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that the corporation has made available for that purpose.

Voting while participating electronically

116. (1) Except where a written statement is submitted by a director under subsection 85(2) or by an auditor under subsection 142(5),

Resolution in lieu of meeting

(a) a resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders; and

(b) a resolution in writing dealing with all matters required by this Act to be dealt with at a meeting of shareholders, and signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote at that meeting, satisfies all the requirements of this Act relating to meetings of shareholders.

Filing resolution	(2) A copy of every resolution referred to in subsection (1) shall be kept with the minutes of the meetings of shareholders.
Evidence	(3) Unless a ballot is demanded, an entry in the minutes of a meeting to the effect that the chairperson of the meeting declared a resolution to be carried or defeated is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
Requisition of meeting	117. (1) The holders of not less than five per cent of the issued shares of a corporation that carry the right to vote at a meeting sought to be held may requisition the directors to call a meeting of shareholders for the purposes stated in the requisition.
Form	(2) The requisition referred to in subsection (1), which may consist of several documents of like form each signed by one or more shareholders, shall state the business to be transacted at the meeting and shall be sent to each director and to the registered office of the corporation.
Directors calling meeting	(3) On receiving the requisition referred to in subsection (1), the directors shall call a meeting of shareholders to transact the business stated in the requisition, unless <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a record date has been fixed under clause 108(1)(c) and notice of it has been given under subsection 108(3); (b) the directors have called a meeting of shareholders and have given notice thereof under section 109; or (c) the business of the meeting as stated in the requisition includes matters described in clauses 111(5)(b) to (f).
Shareholder calling meeting	(4) If the directors do not within twenty-one days after receiving the requisition referred to in subsection (1) call a meeting, any shareholder who signed the requisition may call the meeting.
Procedure	(5) A meeting called under this section shall be called as nearly as possible in the manner in which meetings are to be called pursuant to the bylaws, this Part and Part XIII.
Reimbursement	(6) Unless the shareholders otherwise resolve at a meeting called under subsection (4), the corporation shall reimburse the shareholders the expenses reasonably incurred by them in requisitioning, calling and holding the meeting.
Meeting called by court	118. (1) The court, on the application of a director or a shareholder who is entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may order a meeting of a corporation to be called, held and conducted in the manner that the court directs, if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) it is impracticable to call the meeting within the time or in the manner in which those meetings are to be called;

- (b) it is impracticable to conduct the meeting in the manner required by this Act or the bylaws; or
- (c) the court thinks that the meeting should be called, held and conducted within the time or in the manner it directs for any other reason.

(2) Without restricting the generality of subsection (1), the court may order that the quorum required by the bylaws or this Act be varied or dispensed with at a meeting called, held and conducted pursuant to this section. Varying quorum

(3) A meeting called, held and conducted pursuant to this section is for all purposes a meeting of shareholders of the corporation duly called, held and conducted. Valid meeting

119. (1) A corporation, shareholder or director may apply to the court to determine any controversy with respect to an election or appointment of a director or auditor of the corporation. Court review of election

(2) On an application under this section, the court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Powers of court

- (a) an order restraining a director or auditor whose election or appointment is challenged from acting pending determination of the dispute;
- (b) an order declaring the result of the disputed election or appointment;
- (c) an order requiring a new election or appointment, and including in the order directions for the management of the business and affairs of the corporation until a new election is held or appointment made; and
- (d) an order determining the voting rights of shareholders and of persons claiming to own shares.

120. A written agreement between two or more shareholders may provide that in exercising voting rights the shares held by them shall be voted as provided in the agreement. Pooling agreement

121. (1) An otherwise lawful written agreement among all the shareholders of a corporation, or among all the shareholders and one or more persons who are not shareholders, that restricts, in whole or in part, the powers of the directors to manage, or supervise the management of, the business and affairs of the corporation is valid. Unanimous shareholder agreement

(2) If a person who is the beneficial owner of all the issued shares of a corporation makes a written declaration that restricts in whole or in part the powers of the directors to manage, or supervise the management of, Declaration by single shareholder the business and affairs of the corporation, the declaration is deemed to be a unanimous shareholder agreement.

Constructive party (3) A purchaser or transferee of shares subject to a unanimous shareholder agreement is deemed to be a party to the agreement.

When no notice given (4) If notice is not given to a purchaser or transferee of the existence of a unanimous shareholder agreement, the purchaser or transferee may, no later than 30 days after the purchaser or transferee becomes aware of the existence of the unanimous shareholder agreement, rescind the transaction by which the shares were acquired.

Rights of shareholder (5) To the extent that a unanimous shareholder agreement restricts the powers of the directors to manage, or supervise the management of, the business and affairs of the corporation, parties to the unanimous shareholder agreement who are given that power to manage or supervise the management of the business and affairs of the corporation have all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of a director of the corporation, whether they arise under this Act or otherwise, including any defences available to the directors, and the directors are relieved of their rights, powers, duties and liabilities, including their liabilities under section 129, to the same extent.

Discretion of shareholders (6) Nothing in this section prevents shareholders from fettering their discretion when exercising the powers of directors under a unanimous shareholder agreement.

PART XIII

PROXIES

(e) “solicitation by or on behalf of the management of a corporation” means a solicitation by any person pursuant to a resolution or instructions of, or with the acquiescence of, the directors or a committee of the directors.

solicitation by or on behalf of the management of a corporation

(2) A person who acts in accordance with the proxy requirements of securities legislation to which a corporation is subject is exempt from the requirements of this Part.

Exemption

123. (1) A shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may by means of a proxy appoint a proxyholder or one or more alternate

Appointing

proxyholders who are not required to be shareholders, to attend and act at the meeting in the manner and to the extent authorized by the proxy and with the authority conferred by the proxy.

Execution of proxy	(2) A proxy shall be executed by the shareholder or by the shareholder's attorney authorized in writing.
Validity of proxy	(3) A proxy is valid only at the meeting in respect of which it is given or any adjournment of the meeting.
Revocation of proxy	(4) A shareholder may revoke a proxy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) by depositing an instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or by the shareholder's attorney authorized in writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) at the registered office of the corporation at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the meeting, or an adjournment of it, at which the proxy is to be used, or (ii) with the chairman of the meeting on the day of the meeting or an adjournment of it; or (b) in any other manner permitted by law.
Deposit of proxies	(5) The directors may specify in a notice calling a meeting of shareholders a time not exceeding forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays and holidays, preceding the meeting or an adjournment of it before which time proxies to be used at the meeting must be deposited with the corporation or its agent.
Mandatory solicitation	124. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the management of a corporation shall, concurrently with giving notice of a meeting of shareholders, send a form of proxy in prescribed form to each shareholder who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting.
Exception	(2) The management of the corporation is not required to send a form of proxy under subsection (1) if it <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) is not a distributing corporation; and (b) has 150 or fewer shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting, two or more joint holders being counted as one shareholder.
Offence	(3) If the management of a corporation fails to comply, without reasonable cause, with subsection (1), the corporation is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.
Officers, etc., of corporations	(4) Where a corporation commits an offence under subsection (3), any director or officer of the corporation who knowingly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is a party to and guilty of the offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both, whether or not the corporation has been prosecuted or convicted.

125. (1) A person shall not solicit proxies unless

Soliciting proxies

(a) in the case of solicitation by or on behalf of the management of a corporation, a management proxy circular in prescribed form, either as an appendix to or as a separate document accompanying the notice of the meeting; or

(b) in the case of any other solicitation, a dissident's proxy circular in prescribed form stating the purposes of the solicitation, is sent to the auditor of the corporation, to each shareholder whose proxy is solicited, to each director and, if clause (b) applies, to the corporation.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a person may solicit proxies, other than by or on behalf of the management of the corporation, without sending a dissident's proxy circular, if the total number of shareholders whose proxies are solicited is fifteen or fewer, two or more joint holders being counted as one shareholder.

Exception -- solicitation to fifteen or fewer shareholders

(3) Despite subsection (1), a person may solicit proxies, other than by or on behalf of the management of the corporation, without sending a dissident's proxy circular if the solicitation is, in the prescribed circumstances, conveyed by public broadcast, speech or publication.

Exception -- solicitation by public broadcast

(4) A person required to send a management proxy circular or dissident's proxy circular shall send concurrently a copy of it to the Director together with a statement in the form approved by the Director, the form of proxy, any other documents for use in connection with the meeting and, in the case of a management proxy circular, a copy of the notice of meeting.

Copy to Director

(5) A person who fails to comply with subsections (1) and (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both, whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted or convicted.

Offence

(6) Where a body corporate commits an offence under subsection (5), any director or officer of the body corporate who knowingly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is a party to and guilty of the offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both, whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted or convicted.

Officers, etc., of bodies corporate

126. On the application of an interested person, the court may exempt the person, on any terms that the court thinks fit, from any of the requirements of section 124 or subsection 125(1), and the exemption may have retrospective effect.

Attendance at meeting

127. (1) A person who solicits a proxy and is appointed proxyholder shall attend in person or cause an alternate proxyholder to attend the meeting in respect of which the proxy is given and comply with the directions of the shareholder who appointed the proxyholder.

Right of a proxyholder

(2) A proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has the same rights as the shareholder by whom the proxyholder was appointed to speak at a meeting of shareholders in respect of any matter, to vote by way of ballot at the meeting and, except where a proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has conflicting instructions from more than one shareholder, to vote at such a meeting in respect of any matter by way of any show of hands.

Show of hands

(3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), if the chairperson of a meeting of shareholders declares to the meeting that, if a ballot is conducted, the total number of votes attached to shares represented at the meeting by proxy required to be voted against what to the knowledge of the chairperson will be the decision of the meeting in relation to any matter or group of matters is less than five per cent of all the votes that might be cast by shareholders personally or through proxy at the meeting on the ballot, unless a shareholder or proxyholder demands a ballot,

(a) the chairperson may conduct the vote in respect of that matter or group of matters by a show of hands; and

(b) a proxyholder or alternate proxyholder may vote in respect of that matter or group of matters by a show of hands.

Offence

(4) A proxyholder or alternate proxyholder who without reasonable cause fails to comply with the directions of a shareholder under this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Duty of intermediary

128. (1) Shares of a corporation that are registered in the name of an intermediary or the intermediary's nominee and not beneficially owned by the intermediary shall not be voted unless the intermediary, without delay after receipt of the notice of the meeting, financial statements, management proxy circular, dissident's proxy circular and any other documents other than the form of proxy sent to shareholders by or on behalf of any person for use in connection with the meeting, sends a copy of the document to the beneficial owner and, except when the intermediary has received written voting instructions from the beneficial owner, a written request for such instructions.

(2) An intermediary, or a proxyholder appointed by an intermediary, shall not vote shares that the intermediary does not beneficially own and that are registered in the name of the intermediary or in the name of a nominee of the intermediary unless the intermediary or proxyholder, as the case may be, receives written voting instructions from the beneficial owner.

Restriction on voting

(3) A person by or on behalf of whom a solicitation is made shall provide, at the request of an intermediary, without delay, to the intermediary at the person's expense the necessary number of copies of the documents referred to in subsection (1), other than copies of the document requesting voting instructions.

Copies

(4) An intermediary shall vote or appoint a proxyholder to vote any shares referred to in subsection (1) in accordance with any written voting instructions received from the beneficial owner.

Instructions to intermediary

(5) If a beneficial owner so requests and provides an intermediary with appropriate documentation, the intermediary shall appoint the beneficial owner or a nominee of the beneficial owner as proxyholder.

Beneficial owner as proxyholder

(6) The failure of an intermediary to comply with this section does not render void any meeting of shareholders or any action taken at the meeting.

Validity

(7) Nothing in this section gives an intermediary the right to vote shares that the intermediary is otherwise prohibited from voting.

Limitation

(8) An intermediary who knowingly fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Offence

(9) If an intermediary that is a body corporate commits an offence under subsection (8), any director or officer of the body corporate who knowingly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is a party to and guilty of the offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both, whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted or convicted.

Officers, etc., of bodies corporate

129. (1) If a form of proxy, management proxy circular or dissident's proxy circular contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required in it or necessary to make a statement contained in it not misleading in the light of the circumstances in which it was made, an interested person may apply to the court and the court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

Restraining order

- (a) an order restraining the solicitation, the holding of the meeting, or any person from implementing or acting on any resolution passed at the meeting to which the form of proxy, management proxy circular or dissident's proxy circular relates;
- (b) an order requiring correction of any form of proxy or proxy circular and a further solicitation; and
- (c) an order adjourning the meeting.

Notice to Director

(2) An application under this section shall provide notice to the Director of the application and the Director is entitled to appear and to be heard in person or by counsel.

PART XIV

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Annual financial statements

130. (1) The directors of a corporation shall place before the shareholders at every annual meeting

- (a) in the case of a corporation that is not a distributing corporation, financial statements for the period that began on the date of incorporation of the corporation and ended not more than six months before the general meeting, or, if the corporation has completed a financial year, the period that began immediately after the end of the last completed financial year and ended not more than six months before the annual meeting;
- (b) in the case of a corporation that is a distributing corporation, comparative financial statements relating separately to
 - (i) the period that began on the date of incorporation of the corporation and ended not more than six months before the annual meeting or, if the corporation has completed a financial year, the period that began immediately after the end of the last completed financial year and ended not more than six months before the annual meeting, and
 - (ii) the period covered by the financial year of the corporation next preceding the last financial year, if any;
- (c) the report of the auditor, if any or the review engagement report, if any; and
- (d) any further information respecting the financial position of the corporation and the results of its operations required by the articles, the bylaws or any unanimous shareholder agreement.

Exception

(2) Notwithstanding clause (1)(a), the financial statements referred to in subclause (1)(b)(ii) may be omitted if the reason for the omission is set out in the financial statements, or in a note in the financial statements, to be placed before the shareholders at an annual meeting.

131. (1) A corporation shall keep at its registered office a copy of the financial statements of each of its subsidiary bodies corporate and of each body corporate the accounts of which are consolidated in the financial statements of the corporation.

Consolidated statements

(2) Shareholders of a corporation and their personal representatives may on request examine the statements referred to in subsection (1) during the usual business hours of the corporation and may make extracts free of charge.

Examination

(3) A corporation may, within fifteen days of a request to examine statements under subsection (2), apply to the court for an order barring the right of any person to examine them, and the court may, if it is satisfied that the examination would be detrimental to the corporation or a subsidiary body corporate, bar the right and make any further order it thinks fit.

Barring examination

(4) A corporation shall provide notice to the Director and the person asking to examine statements under subsection (2) of an application under subsection (3) and the Director and the person may appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

Notice

132. (1) The directors of a corporation shall approve the financial statements referred to in section 130 and the approval shall be evidenced by the manual signature of one or more directors or a facsimile of the signatures reproduced in the statements.

Approval of financial statements

(2) A corporation shall not issue, publish or circulate copies of the financial statements referred to in section 130 unless the financial statements are

Condition precedent

- (a) approved and signed in accordance with subsection (1); and
- (b) accompanied by the report of the auditor of the corporation, if any.

133. (1) A corporation shall, not less than twenty-one days before each annual meeting of shareholders or before the signing of a resolution under clause 116(1)(b) in lieu of the annual meeting, send a copy of the documents referred to in section 130 to each shareholder, except to a shareholder who has informed the corporation in writing that he or she does not want a copy of those documents.

Copies to shareholders

(2) A corporation that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Offence

134. (1) A distributing corporation, any of the issued securities of which remain outstanding and are held by more than one person, shall send a copy of the documents referred to in section 130 to the Director

Copies to Director

- (a) not less than twenty-one days before each annual meeting of shareholders, or without delay after a resolution referred to in clause 116(1)(b) is signed; and
- (b) in any event within fifteen months after the last preceding annual meeting should have been held or a resolution in lieu of the meeting should have been signed, but no later than six months after the end of the corporation's preceding financial year.

Subsidiary corporation
exemption

- (2) A subsidiary corporation is not required to comply with this section if
- (a) the financial statements of its holding corporation are in consolidated or combined form and include the accounts of the subsidiary; and
 - (b) the consolidated or combined financial statements of the holding corporation are included in the documents sent to the Director by the holding corporation in compliance with this section.

Offence

- (3) A corporation that fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Qualification of auditor

- 135. (1) Subject to subsection (6), a person is disqualified from being an auditor of a corporation if the person is not independent of the corporation, any of its affiliates, or the directors or officers of the corporation or its affiliates.

Independence

- (2) For the purposes of this section,
- (a) independence is a question of fact; and
 - (b) a person is deemed not to be independent if the person or the person's business partner
 - (i) is a business partner, a director, an officer or an employee of the corporation or any of its affiliates, or a business partner of any director, officer or employee of any such corporation or any of its affiliates,
 - (ii) beneficially owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a material interest in the securities of the corporation or any of its affiliates, or
 - (iii) has been a receiver, receiver-manager, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy of the corporation or any of its affiliates within two years of the person's proposed appointment as auditor of the corporation.

Business partners

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person's business partner includes a shareholder of that person.

Duty to resign

(4) An auditor who becomes disqualified under this section shall, subject to subsection (6), resign forthwith after becoming aware of the disqualification.

(5) An interested person may apply to the court for an order declaring an auditor to be disqualified under this section and the office of auditor to be vacant.

Disqualification order

(6) An interested person may apply to the court for an order exempting an auditor from disqualification under this section and the court may, if it is satisfied that an exemption would not unfairly prejudice the shareholders, make an exemption order on such terms as it thinks fit, which order may have retrospective effect.

Exemption order

136. (1) Subject to section 137, shareholders of a corporation shall, by ordinary resolution, at the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each succeeding annual meeting, appoint an auditor to hold office until the close of the next annual meeting.

Appointment of auditor

(2) An auditor appointed under section 79 is eligible for appointment under subsection (1).

Eligibility

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if an auditor is not appointed at a meeting of shareholders, the incumbent auditor continues in office until a successor is appointed.

Incumbent auditor

(4) The remuneration of an auditor may be fixed by ordinary resolution of the shareholders or, if not so fixed, may be fixed by the directors.

Remuneration

137. (1) The shareholders of a corporation that is not a distributing corporation may resolve by ordinary resolution not to appoint an auditor.

Dispensing with auditor

(2) A resolution under subsection (1) is valid only until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders.

Limitation

(3) A resolution under subsection (1) is not valid unless it is consented to by all the shareholders, including shareholders not otherwise entitled to vote.

Unanimous consent

138. (1) An auditor of a corporation ceases to hold office when the auditor

Ceasing to hold office

- (a) dies or resigns; or
- (b) is removed pursuant to section 139.

(2) A resignation of an auditor becomes effective at the time a written resignation is sent to the corporation, or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later.

Effective date of resignation

Removal of auditor

139. (1) The shareholders of a corporation may by ordinary resolution at a special meeting remove from office the auditor other than an auditor appointed by the court under section 141.

Vacancy (2) A vacancy created by the removal of an auditor may be filled at the meeting at which the auditor is removed or, if not so filled, may be filled under section 140.

Filling vacancy 140. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the directors shall forthwith fill a vacancy in the office of auditor.

Calling meeting (2) If there is not a quorum of directors, the directors then in office shall, within twenty-one days after a vacancy in the office of auditor occurs, call a special meeting of shareholders to fill the vacancy and, if they fail to call a meeting or if there are no directors, the meeting may be called by any shareholder.

Shareholders filling vacancy (3) The articles of a corporation may provide that a vacancy in the office of auditor shall only be filled by vote of the shareholders.

Unexpired term (4) An auditor appointed to fill a vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the auditor's predecessor.

Court appointed auditor 141. (1) If a corporation does not have an auditor, the court may, on the application of a shareholder, appoint and fix the remuneration of an auditor who holds office until an auditor is appointed by the shareholders.

Exception (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the shareholders have resolved under section 137 not to appoint an auditor.

Right to attend meeting 142. (1) The auditor of a corporation is entitled to receive notice of every meeting of shareholders and, at the expense of the corporation, to attend and be heard on matters relating to the auditor's duties.

Duty to attend (2) If a director or shareholder of a corporation, whether or not the shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting, gives written notice not less than ten days before a meeting of shareholders to the auditor or a former auditor of the corporation, the auditor or former auditor shall attend the meeting at the expense of the corporation and answer questions relating to the person's duties as auditor.

Notice to corporation (3) A director or shareholder who sends a notice referred to in subsection (2) shall send concurrently a copy of the notice to the corporation.

Offence (4) An auditor or former auditor of a corporation who fails without reasonable cause to comply with subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(5) An auditor is entitled to submit to the corporation a written statement giving reasons for resigning or for opposing any proposed action or resolution when the auditor

Statement of auditor

- (a) resigns;
- (b) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of removing the auditor from office;
- (c) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of directors or shareholders at which another person is to be appointed to fill the office of auditor, whether because of the resignation or removal of the incumbent auditor or because the auditor's term of office has expired or is about to expire; or
- (d) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of shareholders at which a resolution referred to in section 137 is to be proposed.

(6) In the case of a proposed replacement of an auditor, whether through removal or at the end of the auditor's term, the following rules apply with respect to other statements:

Other statements

- (a) the corporation shall make a statement on the reasons for the proposed replacement; and
- (b) the proposed replacement auditor may make a statement in which he or she comments on the reasons referred to in clause (a).

(7) The corporation shall send a copy of the statements referred to in subsections (5) and (6) without delay to every shareholder entitled to receive notice of a meeting referred to in subsection (1), unless the statement is included in or attached to a management proxy circular required by section 125.

Circulating statement

(8) No person shall accept appointment or consent to be appointed as auditor of a corporation to replace an auditor who has resigned, been removed or whose term of office has expired or is about to expire until the person has requested and received from that auditor a written statement of the circumstances and the reasons, in that auditor's opinion, for their replacement.

Replacing auditor

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (8), a person otherwise qualified may accept appointment or consent to be appointed as auditor of a corporation if, within fifteen days after making the request referred to in that subsection, the person does not receive a reply.

Exception

(10) Unless subsection (9) applies, an appointment as auditor of a corporation of a person who has not complied with subsection (8) is void.

Effect of non-compliance

- (j) authorize the directors to change the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to unissued shares of any series;
- (k) revoke, diminish or enlarge any authority conferred under subclauses (i) and (j);
- (l) increase or decrease the number of directors or the minimum or maximum number of directors, subject to sections 82 and 87;
- (m) add, change or remove restrictions on the issue, transfer or ownership of shares; or
- (n) add, change or remove any other provision that is permitted by this Act to be set out in the articles.

Termination

(2) The directors of a corporation may, if authorized by the shareholders in the special resolution effecting an amendment under this section, revoke the resolution before it is acted on without further approval of the shareholders.

Amendment of
number name

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a corporation has a designating number as a name, the directors may amend its articles to change that name to a verbal name.

Constraints on shares

148. (1) Subject to sections 150 and 151, a distributing corporation, any of the issued shares of which remain outstanding and are held by more than one person, may by special resolution amend its articles in accordance with the regulations to constrain

- (a) the issue or transfer of shares of any class or series to persons who are not resident Canadians;
- (b) the issue or transfer of shares of any class or series to enable the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to qualify under any prescribed law of Canada or a province
 - (i) to obtain a licence to carry on any business,
 - (ii) to become a publisher of a Canadian newspaper or periodical, or
 - (iii) to acquire shares of a financial intermediary as defined in the regulations;
- (c) the issue, transfer or ownership of shares of any class or series in order to assist the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to qualify under any prescribed law of Canada or a province to receive licences, permits, grants, payments or other benefits by reason of attaining or maintaining a specified level of Canadian ownership or control;
- (d) the issue, transfer or ownership of shares of any class or series in order to assist the corporation to comply with any prescribed law;
- (e) the issue, transfer or ownership of shares of any class or series to enable the corporation to be a registered labour-sponsored venture capital corporation under Part X.3 of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

(2) Clause (1)(c) does not permit a constraint on the issue, transfer or ownership of shares of any class or series of which any shares are outstanding unless

Exception in respect of clause (1)(c)

- (a) in the case of a constraint in respect of a class, the shares of the class; or
- (b) in the case of a constraint in respect of a series, the shares of the series are already subject to a constraint permitted under that clause.

(3) A corporation may, pursuant to clause (1)(c), limit the number of shares of that corporation that may be owned, or prohibit the ownership of shares, by any person whose ownership would adversely affect the ability of the corporation or any of its affiliates or associates to attain or maintain a level of Canadian ownership or control specified in its articles that equals or exceeds a specified level referred to in clause (1)(c).

Limitation on ownership of shares

(4) A corporation referred to in subsection (1) may by special resolution amend its articles to change or remove any constraint on the issue, transfer or ownership of its shares.

Change or removal of constraint

(5) The directors of a corporation may, if authorized by the shareholders in the special resolution effecting an amendment under subsection (1) or (4), revoke the resolution before it is acted on without further approval of the shareholders.

Termination

Regulations	(6) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations with respect to a corporation that constrains the issue, transfer or ownership of its shares prescribing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the disclosure of the constraints required in documents issued or published by the corporation; (b) the duties and powers of the directors to refuse to issue or register transfers of shares in accordance with the articles of the corporation; (c) the limitations on voting rights of any shares held contrary to the articles of the corporation; (d) the powers of the directors to require disclosure of beneficial ownership of shares of the corporation and the right of the corporation and its directors, employees and agents to rely on that disclosure and the effects of that reliance; and (e) the rights of any person owning shares of the corporation at the time of an amendment to its articles constraining share issues or transfers.
Validity of acts	(7) An issue or a transfer of a share or an act of a corporation is valid notwithstanding any failure to comply with this section or the regulations.
Proposal to amend	149. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a director or a shareholder who is entitled to vote at an annual meeting of shareholders may, in accordance with section 101, make a proposal to amend the articles.
Notice of amendment	(2) Notice of a meeting of shareholders at which a proposal to amend the articles is to be considered shall set out the proposed amendment and, where applicable, shall state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares in accordance with section 190, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate an amendment.
Class vote	150. (1) The holders of shares of a class or, subject to subsection (4), of a series are, unless the articles otherwise provide in the case of an amendment referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (e), entitled to vote separately as a class or series on a proposal to amend the articles to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) increase or decrease any maximum number of authorized shares of such class, or increase any maximum number of authorized shares of a class having rights or privileges equal or superior to the shares of the class; (b) effect an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of all or part of the shares of the class; (c) add, change or remove the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to the shares of the class and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

- (i) remove or change prejudicially rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends,
- (ii) add, remove or change prejudicially redemption rights,
- (iii) reduce or remove a dividend preference or a liquidation preference, or
- (iv) add, remove or change prejudicially conversion privileges, options, voting, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of a corporation, or sinking fund provisions;
- (d) increase the rights or privileges of any class of shares having rights or privileges equal or superior to the shares of the class;
- (e) create a new class of shares equal or superior to the shares of the class;
- (f) make any class of shares having rights or privileges inferior to the shares of the class equal or superior to the shares of the class;
- (g) effect an exchange or create a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of the class; or
- (h) constrain the issue, transfer or ownership of the shares of the class or change or remove the constraint.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a proposal to amend the articles to add a right or privilege for a holder to convert shares of a class or series into shares of another class or series that is subject to a constraint permitted under clause 148(1)(c) but is otherwise equal to the class or series first mentioned. Exception

(3) For the purpose of clause (1)(e), a new class of shares, the issue, transfer or ownership of which is to be constrained by an amendment to the articles pursuant to clause 148(1)(c), that is otherwise equal to an existing class of shares shall be deemed not to be equal or superior to the existing class of shares. Deeming provision

(4) The holders of a series of shares of a class are entitled to vote separately as a series under subsection (1) only if the series is affected by an amendment in a manner different from other shares of the same class. Limitation

(5) Subsection (1) applies whether or not shares of a class or series otherwise carry the right to vote. Right to vote

(6) A proposed amendment to the articles referred to in subsection (1) is adopted when the holders of the shares of each class or series entitled to vote separately on it as a class or series have approved the amendment by a special resolution. Separate resolutions

151. (1) Subject to any revocation under subsection 147(2) or 138(5), after an amendment has been adopted under section 147, 148 or 150, articles of amendment in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director. Delivery of articles

Reduction of stated capital	(2) If an amendment effects or requires a reduction of stated capital, subsections 45(3) and (4) apply.
Certificate of amendment	152. On receipt of articles of amendment, the Director shall issue a certificate of amendment in accordance with section 230.
Effect of certificate	153. (1) An amendment becomes effective on the date shown in the certificate of amendment and the articles are amended accordingly.
Rights preserved	(2) No amendment to the articles affects an existing cause of action or claim or liability to prosecution in favour of or against the corporation or its directors or officers, or any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which a corporation or its directors or officers is a party.
Restated articles	154. (1) The directors may at any time, and shall when reasonably so directed by the Director, restate the articles of incorporation.
Delivery of articles	(2) Restated articles of incorporation in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director.
Restated certificate	(3) On receipt of restated articles of incorporation, the Director shall issue a restated certificate of incorporation in accordance with section 230.
Effect of certificate	(4) Restated articles of incorporation are effective on the date shown in the restated certificate of incorporation and supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.
Amalgamation	155. Two or more corporations, including holding and subsidiary corporations, may amalgamate and continue as one corporation.
Amalgamation agreement	156. (1) Each corporation proposing to amalgamate shall enter into an agreement setting out the terms and means of effecting the amalgamation and, in particular, setting out <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the provisions that are required to be included in articles of incorporation under section 4; (b) the name and address of each proposed director of the amalgamated corporation; (c) the manner in which the shares of each amalgamating corporation are to be converted into shares or other securities of the amalgamated corporation; (d) if any shares of an amalgamating corporation are not to be converted into securities of the amalgamated corporation, the amount of money or securities of any body corporate that the holders of such shares are to receive in addition to or instead of securities of the amalgamated corporation; (e) the manner of payment of money instead of the issue of fractional shares of the amalgamated corporation or of any other body corporate the securities of which are to be received in the amalgamation;

(f) whether the bylaws of the amalgamated corporation are to be those of one of the amalgamating corporations and, if not, a copy of the proposed bylaws; and

(g) details of any arrangements necessary to perfect the amalgamation and to provide for the subsequent management and operation of the amalgamated corporation.

(2) If shares of one of the amalgamating corporations are held by or on behalf of another of the amalgamating corporations, the amalgamation agreement shall provide for the cancellation of those shares when the amalgamation becomes effective without any repayment of capital in respect of them, and no provision shall be made in the agreement for the conversion of those shares into shares of the amalgamated corporation. Cancellation

157. (1) The directors of each amalgamating corporation shall submit the amalgamation agreement for approval to a meeting of the holders of shares of the amalgamating corporation of which they are directors and, subject to subsection (4), to the holders of each class or series of those shares. Shareholder approval

(2) A notice of a meeting of shareholders complying with section 99 shall be sent in accordance with that section to each shareholder of each amalgamating corporation, and shall Notice of meeting

(a) include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amalgamation agreement; and

(b) state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares in accordance with section 164, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate an amalgamation.

(3) Each share of an amalgamating corporation carries the right to vote in respect of an amalgamation agreement whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote. Right to vote

(4) The holders of shares of a class or series of shares of each amalgamating corporation are entitled to vote separately as a class or series in respect of an amalgamation agreement if the amalgamation agreement contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles, would entitle those holders to vote as a class or series under section 150. Class vote

(5) Subject to subsection (4), an amalgamation agreement is adopted when the shareholders of each amalgamating corporation have approved of the amalgamation by special resolutions. Shareholder approval

Termination

(6) An amalgamation agreement may provide that at any time before the issue of a certificate of amalgamation the agreement may be terminated by the directors of an amalgamating corporation, notwithstanding approval of the agreement by the shareholders of all or any of the amalgamating corporations.

Vertical short-form
amalgamation

158. (1) A holding corporation and one or more of its subsidiary corporations may amalgamate and continue as one corporation without complying with sections 156 and 157 if

- (a) the amalgamation is approved by a resolution of the directors of each amalgamating corporation;
- (b) all of the issued shares of each amalgamating subsidiary corporation are held by one or more of the other amalgamating corporations; and
- (c) the resolutions provide that
 - (i) the shares of each amalgamating subsidiary corporation shall be cancelled without any repayment of capital in respect of them,
 - (ii) except as may be prescribed, the articles of amalgamation shall be the same as the articles of the amalgamating holding corporation, and
 - (iii) no securities shall be issued by the amalgamated corporation in connection with the amalgamation and the stated capital of the amalgamated corporation shall be the same as the stated capital of the amalgamating holding corporation.

Horizontal short-form amalgamation

(2) Two or more wholly-owned subsidiary corporations of the same holding body corporate may amalgamate and continue as one corporation without complying with sections 156 and 157 if

- (a) the amalgamation is approved by a resolution of the directors of each amalgamating corporation; and
- (b) the resolutions provide that
 - (i) the shares of all but one of the amalgamating subsidiary corporations shall be cancelled without any repayment of capital in respect of them,
 - (ii) except as may be prescribed, the articles of amalgamation shall be the same as the articles of the amalgamating subsidiary corporation whose shares are not cancelled, and
 - (iii) the stated capital of the amalgamating subsidiary corporations whose shares are cancelled shall be added to the stated capital of the amalgamating subsidiary corporation whose shares are not cancelled.

Sending of articles

159. (1) Subject to subsection 157(6), after an amalgamation has been adopted under section 157 or approved under section 158, articles of amalgamation in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director together with the documents required by sections 17 and 81.

(2) The articles of amalgamation shall have attached to them a statutory declaration of a director or an officer of each amalgamating corporation that establishes that

declarations

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that
 - (i) each amalgamating corporation is and the amalgamated corporation will be able to pay its liabilities as they become due, and
 - (ii) the realizable value of the amalgamated corporation's assets will not be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes; and
- (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that
 - (i) no creditor will be prejudiced by the amalgamation, or
 - (ii) adequate notice has been given to all known creditors of the amalgamating corporations and no creditor objects to the amalgamation otherwise than on grounds that are frivolous or vexatious.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), adequate notice is given if

Adequate notice

- (a) a notice in writing is sent to each known creditor having a claim against the corporation that exceeds one thousand dollars;
- (b) a notice is published once in a newspaper published or distributed in the place where the corporation has its registered office and reasonable notice of it is given in each province where the corporation carries on business; and
- (c) each notice states that the corporation intends to amalgamate with one or more specified corporations in accordance with this Act and that a creditor of the corporation may object to the amalgamation within thirty days from the date of the notice.

(4) On receipt of articles of amalgamation, the Director shall issue a certificate of amalgamation in accordance with section 230.

Certificate of amalgamation

160. On the date shown in a certificate of amalgamation

Effect of certificate

- (a) the amalgamation of the amalgamating corporations and their continuance as one corporation become effective;
- (b) the property of each amalgamating corporation continues to be the property of the amalgamated corporation;
- (c) the amalgamated corporation continues to be liable for the obligations of each amalgamating corporation;
- (d) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;
- (e) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against an amalgamating corporation may be continued to be prosecuted by or against the amalgamated corporation;

(f) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, an amalgamating corporation may be enforced by or against the amalgamated corporation; and

(g) the articles of amalgamation are deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the amalgamated corporation and the certificate of amalgamation is deemed to be the certificate of incorporation of the amalgamated corporation.

Continuance
(import)

161. (1) A body corporate incorporated otherwise than by or under an Act of the Legislature may, if so authorized by the laws of the jurisdiction where it is incorporated, apply to the Director for a certificate of continuance.

Amendments in
continuance

(2) A body corporate that applies for continuance under subsection (1) may, without so stating in its articles of continuance, effect by those articles any amendment to its Act of incorporation, articles, letters patent or memorandum or articles of association if the amendment is an amendment a corporation incorporated under this Act may make to its articles.

continuance

(3) Articles of continuance in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director together with the documents required by sections 19 and 116.

Certificate of
continuance

(4) On receipt of articles of continuance, the Director shall issue a certificate of continuance in accordance with section 230.

Effect of certificate

(5) On the date shown in the certificate of continuance

- (a) the body corporate becomes a corporation to which this Act applies as if it had been incorporated under this Act;
- (b) the articles of continuance are deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the continued corporation; and
- (c) the certificate of continuance is deemed to be the certificate of incorporation of the continued corporation.

Copy of certificate

(6) The Director shall forthwith send a copy of the certificate of continuance to the appropriate official or public body in the jurisdiction in which continuance under this Act was authorized.

Rights preserved

(7) When a body corporate is continued as a corporation under this Act,

- (a) the property of the body corporate continues to be the property of the corporation;
- (b) the corporation continues to be liable for the obligations of the body corporate;
- (c) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;

- (d) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against the body corporate may be continued to be prosecuted by or against the corporation; and
- (e) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, the body corporate may be enforced by or against the corporation.

(8) Subject to the Securities Transfer Act, a share of a body corporate issued before the body corporate was continued under this Act is deemed to have been issued in compliance with this Act and with the provisions of the articles of continuance irrespective of whether the share is fully paid and irrespective of any designation, rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions set out on or referred to in the certificate representing the share and continuance under this section does not deprive a holder of any right or privilege that the holder claims under, or relieve the holder of any liability in respect of, an issued share.

Issued shares

(9) Where a corporation continued under this Act had, before it was so continued, issued a share certificate in registered form that is convertible to bearer form, the corporation may, if a holder of such a share certificate exercises the conversion privilege attached to it, issue a share certificate in bearer form for the same number of shares to the holder.

Exception in case of convertible shares

(10) For the purposes of subsections (8) and (9), “share” includes an instrument referred to in subsection 36(1), a share warrant or a similar instrument.

Definition of “share”

(11) Where the Director determines, on the application of a body corporate, that it is not practicable to change a reference to the nominal or par value of shares of a class or series that the body corporate was authorized to issue before it was continued under this Act, the Director may, notwithstanding subsection 31(1), permit the body corporate to continue to refer in its articles to those shares, whether issued or unissued, as shares having a nominal or par value.

Where continued reference to par value shares permissible

(12) A corporation shall set out in its articles the maximum number of shares of a class or series referred to in subsection (11) and may not amend its articles to increase that maximum number of shares or to change the nominal or par value of those shares.

Limitation

162. (1) Subject to subsection (10), a corporation may apply to the appropriate official or public body of another jurisdiction requesting that the corporation be continued as if it had been incorporated under the laws of that other jurisdiction if the corporation

Continuance - other jurisdictions

- (a) is authorized by the shareholders in accordance with this section to make the application; and

(b) establishes that its proposed continuance in the other jurisdiction will not adversely affect creditors or shareholders of the corporation.

Notice of meeting (2) A notice of a meeting of shareholders complying with section 109 shall be sent in accordance with that section to each shareholder and shall state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares in accordance with section 164, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate a discontinuance under this Act.

Right to vote (3) Each share of the corporation carries the right to vote in respect of a continuance whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote.

Shareholder approval (4) An application for continuance becomes authorized when the shareholders voting on it have approved of the continuance by a special resolution.

Termination (5) The directors of a corporation may, if authorized by the shareholders at the time of approving an application for continuance under this section, abandon the application without further approval of the shareholders.

Discontinuance (6) On receipt of a notice satisfactory to the Director that the corporation has been continued under the laws of another jurisdiction, the Director shall file the notice and issue a certificate of discontinuance in accordance with section 230.

Notice deemed to be articles (7) For the purposes of section 230, a notice referred to in subsection (6) is deemed to be articles that are in the form approved by the Director.

Rights preserved (8) This Act ceases to apply to the corporation on the date shown in the certificate of discontinuance.

Prohibition (9) A corporation shall not be continued as a body corporate under the laws of another jurisdiction unless those laws provide in effect that

- (a) the property of the corporation continues to be the property of the body corporate;
- (b) the body corporate continues to be liable for the obligations of the corporation;
- (c) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution is unaffected;
- (d) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against the corporation may be continued to be prosecuted by or against the body corporate; and
- (e) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, the corporation may be enforced by or against the body corporate.

Borrowing powers

163. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws of or a unanimous shareholder agreement relating to a corporation otherwise provide, the directors of a corporation may, without authorization of the shareholders,

- (a) borrow money on the credit of the corporation;
- (b) issue, reissue, sell, pledge or hypothecate debt obligations of the corporation;
- (c) give a guarantee on behalf of the corporation to secure performance of an obligation of any person; and
- (d) mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create a security interest in all or any property of the corporation, owned or subsequently acquired, to secure any obligation of the corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 90(2) and clause 96(a), unless the articles or bylaws of or a unanimous shareholder agreement relating to a corporation otherwise provide, the directors may, by resolution, delegate the powers referred to in subsection (1) to a director, a committee of directors or an officer.

Delegation of borrowing powers

(3) A sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all the property of a corporation other than in the ordinary course of business of the corporation requires the approval of the shareholders in accordance with subsections (4) to (8).

Extraordinary sale, lease or exchange

(4) A notice of a meeting of shareholders complying with section 109 shall be sent in accordance with that section to each shareholder and shall

Notice of meeting

- (a) include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the agreement of sale, lease or exchange; and
- (b) state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares in accordance with section 164, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate a sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (3).

(5) At the meeting referred to in subsection (4), the shareholders may authorize the sale, lease or exchange and may fix or authorize the directors to fix any of the terms and conditions of it.

Shareholder approval

(6) Each share of the corporation carries the right to vote in respect of a sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (3) whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote.

Right to vote

(7) The holders of shares of a class or series of shares of the corporation are entitled to vote separately as a class or series in respect of a sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (3) only if the class or series is affected by the sale, lease or exchange in a manner different from the shares of another class or series.

Class vote

Shareholder approval

(8) A sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (3) is adopted when the holders of each class or series entitled to vote on it have approved of the sale, lease or exchange by a special resolution.

Termination

(9) The directors of a corporation may, if authorized by the shareholders approving a proposed sale, lease or exchange, and subject to the rights of third parties, abandon the sale, lease or exchange without further approval of the shareholders.

Right to dissent

164. (1) Subject to sections 165 and 202, a holder of shares of any class of a corporation may dissent if the corporation is subject to an order under clause 166(4)(d) that affects the holder or if the corporation resolves to

- (a) amend its articles under section 147 or 148 to add, change or remove any provisions restricting or constraining the issue, transfer or ownership of shares of that class;
- (b) amend its articles under section 147 to add, change or remove any restriction on the business or businesses that the corporation may carry on;
- (c) amalgamate otherwise than under section 158;
- (d) be continued under section 162; or
- (e) sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all its property under subsection 163(3).

Further right

(2) A holder of shares of any class or series of shares entitled to vote under section 150 may dissent if the corporation resolves to amend its articles in a manner described in that section.

If one class of shares

(3) The right to dissent described in subsection (2) applies even if there is only one class of shares.

Payment for shares

(4) In addition to any other right the shareholder may have, but subject to subsection (26), a shareholder who complies with this section is entitled, when the action approved by the resolution from which the shareholder dissents or an order made under subsection 166(4) becomes effective, to be paid by the corporation the fair value of the shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents, determined as of the close of business on the day before the resolution was adopted or the order was made.

No partial dissent

(5) A dissenting shareholder may only claim under this section with respect to all the shares of a class held on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the dissenting shareholder.

Objection

(6) A dissenting shareholder shall send to the corporation, at or before any meeting of shareholders at which a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is to be voted on, a written objection to the resolution, unless the corporation did not give notice to the shareholder of the purpose of the meeting and of the shareholder's right to dissent.

(7) The corporation shall, within ten days after the shareholders adopt the resolution, send to each shareholder who has filed the objection referred to in subsection (6) notice that the resolution has been adopted, but such notice is not required to be sent to any shareholder who voted for the resolution or who has withdrawn the objection. Notice of resolution

(8) A dissenting shareholder shall, within twenty days after receiving a notice under subsection (7) or, if the shareholder does not receive the notice, within twenty days after learning that the resolution has been adopted, send to the corporation a written notice containing Demand for payment

- (a) the shareholder's name and address;
- (b) the number and class of shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents; and
- (c) a demand for payment of the fair value of such shares.

(9) A dissenting shareholder shall, within thirty days after sending a notice under subsection (8), send the certificates representing the shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents to the corporation or its transfer agent. Share certificate

(10) A dissenting shareholder who fails to comply with subsection (9) has no right to make a claim under this section. Forfeiture

(11) A corporation or its transfer agent shall endorse on any share certificate received under subsection (9) a notice that the holder is a dissenting shareholder under this section and shall immediately return the share certificates to the dissenting shareholder. Endorsing certificate

(12) On sending a notice under subsection (8), a dissenting shareholder ceases to have any rights as a shareholder other than to be paid the fair value of the shares as determined under this section except where Suspension of rights

- (a) the shareholder withdraws that notice before the corporation makes an offer under subsection (13);
- (b) the corporation fails to make an offer in accordance with subsection (13) and the shareholder withdraws the notice; or
- (c) the directors revoke a resolution to amend the articles under subsection 147(2) or 148(5), terminate an amalgamation agreement under subsection 157(6) or an application for continuance under subsection 162(5), or abandon a sale, lease or exchange under subsection 163(9), in which case the shareholder's rights are reinstated as of the date the notice was sent.

Offer to pay

(13) A corporation shall, not later than seven days after the later of the day on which the action approved by the resolution is effective or the day the corporation received the notice referred to in subsection (8), send to each dissenting shareholder who has sent that notice

(a) a written offer to pay for the shareholder's shares in an amount considered by the directors of the corporation to be the fair value, accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined; or

(b) if subsection (26) applies, a notification that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

Same terms

(14) Every offer made under subsection (13) for shares of the same class or series shall be on the same terms.

Payment

(15) Subject to subsection (26), a corporation shall pay for the shares of a dissenting shareholder within ten days after an offer made under subsection (13) has been accepted, but any such offer lapses if the corporation does not receive an acceptance of it within thirty days after the offer has been made.

Corporation may apply to Court

(16) Where a corporation fails to make an offer under subsection (13), or if a dissenting shareholder fails to accept an offer, the corporation may, within fifty days after the action approved by the resolution is effective or within any further period that the court may allow, apply to the court to fix a fair value for the shares of any dissenting shareholder.

Shareholder application to court

(17) If a corporation fails to apply to the court under subsection (16), a dissenting shareholder may apply to the court for the same purpose within a further period of twenty days or within any further period that the court may allow.

No security for costs

(18) A dissenting shareholder is not required to give security for costs in an application made under subsection (16) or (17).

Parties

(19) On an application to the court under subsection (16) or (17),

(a) all dissenting shareholders whose shares have not been purchased by the corporation shall be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court; and

(b) the corporation shall notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of the shareholder's right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

Powers of court

(20) On an application to the court under subsection (16) or (17), the court may determine whether any other person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders.

Appraisers

(21) The court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the shares of the dissenting shareholders.

(22) The final order of the court shall be rendered against the corporation in favour of each dissenting shareholder and for the amount of the shares as fixed by the court. Final order

(23) The court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the date the action approved by the resolution is effective until the date of payment. Interest

(24) If subsection (26) applies, the corporation shall, within ten days after the pronouncement of an order under subsection (23), notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares. Notice that subsection (26) applies

(25) If subsection (26) applies, a dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within thirty days after receiving a notice under subsection (24), may Effect where subsection (26) applies

- (a) withdraw the notice of dissent, in which case the corporation is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the shareholder is reinstated to full rights as a shareholder; or
- (b) retain a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.

(26) A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that Limitation

- (a) the corporation is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.

165. (1) In this section, "reorganization" means an order of the court made under Definition of "reorganization"

- (a) section 202;
- (b) the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) approving a proposal; or
- (c) any other Act of Parliament or an Act of the Legislature that affects the rights among the corporation, its shareholders and creditors.

(2) If a corporation is subject to an order referred to in subsection (1), its articles may be amended by the order to effect any change that might lawfully be made by an amendment under section 147.

Further powers

(3) If the court makes an order referred to in subsection (1), the court may also

- (a) authorize the issue of debt obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into shares of any class or having attached any rights or options to acquire shares of any class, and fix the terms of them; and
- (b) appoint directors in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors then in office.

Articles of reorganization

(4) After an order referred to in subsection (1) has been made, articles of reorganization in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director together with the documents required by sections 17 and 88, if applicable.

Certificate of reorganization

(5) On receipt of articles of reorganization, the Director shall issue a certificate of amendment in accordance with section 230.

Effect of certificate

(6) A reorganization becomes effective on the date shown in the certificate of amendment and the articles of incorporation are amended accordingly.

No dissent

(7) A shareholder is not entitled to dissent under section 164 if an amendment to the articles of incorporation is effected under this section.

Definition of "arrangement"

166. (1) In this section, "arrangement" includes

- (a) an amendment to the articles of a corporation;
- (b) an amalgamation of two or more corporations;
- (c) an amalgamation of a body corporate with a corporation that results in an amalgamated corporation subject to this Act;
- (d) a division of the business carried on by a corporation;
- (e) a transfer of all or substantially all the property of a corporation to another body corporate in exchange for property, money or securities of the body corporate;
- (f) an exchange of securities of a corporation for property, money or other securities of the corporation or property, money or securities of another body corporate;
- (g) a going-private transaction or a squeeze-out transaction in relation to a corporation;
- (h) a liquidation and dissolution of a corporation; and
- (i) any combination of the foregoing.

Where corporation insolvent

(2) For the purposes of this section, a corporation is insolvent

- (a) where it is unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or

(b) where the realizable value of the assets of the corporation are less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

(3) Where it is not practicable for a corporation that is not insolvent to effect a fundamental change in the nature of an arrangement under any other provision of this Act, the corporation may apply to the court for an order approving an arrangement proposed by the corporation.

Application to court for approval of arrangement

(4) In connection with an application under this section, the court may make any interim or final order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

Powers of court

(a) an order determining the notice to be given to any interested person or dispensing with notice to any person other than the Director;

(b) an order appointing counsel, at the expense of the corporation, to represent the interests of the shareholders;

(c) an order requiring a corporation to call, hold and conduct a meeting of holders of securities or options or rights to acquire securities in such manner as the court directs;

(d) an order permitting a shareholder to dissent under section 164; and

(e) an order approving an arrangement as proposed by the corporation or as amended in any manner the court may direct.

(5) After an order referred to in clause (4)(e) has been made, articles of arrangement in the form approved by the Director shall be sent to the Director together with the documents required by sections 17 and 88, if applicable.

arrangement

(6) On receipt of articles of arrangement, the Director shall issue a certificate of arrangement in accordance with section 230.

arrangement

(7) An arrangement becomes effective on the date shown in the certificate of arrangement.

Effect of certificate

Fee to be paid before service performed

230. (1) In this section, “statement” means a statement of intent to dissolve and a statement of revocation of intent to dissolve referred to in section 173.

Definition of “statement”

(2) Where this Act requires that articles or a statement relating to a corporation be sent to the Director,

Filing of articles and statements

(a) the articles or the statement shall be signed by a director or an officer of the corporation or, in the case of articles of incorporation, by an incorporator; and

(b) on receiving the articles or statement in the form that the Director fixes, any other required documents and the required fees, the Director shall

- (i) record the date of the filing,
- (ii) issue the appropriate certificate,
- (iii) file the certificate and the articles or statement, or a copy, image or photographic, electronic or other reproduction of the certificate and of the articles or statement,
- (iv) send the certificate, or a copy, image or photographic, electronic or other reproduction of the certificate, to the corporation or its agent, and
- (v) publish a notice of the issuance of the certificate in a publication generally available to the public.

Date of certificate (3) A certificate referred to in subsection (2) issued by the Director may be dated as of the day the Director receives the articles, statement or court order pursuant to which the certificate is issued or as of any later day specified by the court or person who signed the articles or statement.

Idem (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), a certificate of discontinuance may be dated as of the day on which the corporation amalgamates pursuant to another Act or is continued.

Signature 231. (1) A signature required on a certificate issued by the Director under this Act may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced on the certificate.

Authority to sign notices (2) The notices referred to in subsections 17(2) and (4) and subsections 81(1) and 88(1), and the annual return referred to in section 232, may be signed by any individual who has the relevant knowledge of the corporation and who is authorized to do so by the directors, or, in the case of the notice referred to in subsection 81(1), the incorporators.

Execution of documents (3) Any articles, notice, resolution, requisition, statement or other document required or permitted to be executed or signed by more than one individual for the purposes of this Act may be executed or signed in several documents of similar form, each of which is executed or signed by one or more of the individuals, and the documents, when duly executed or signed by all individuals required or permitted, as the case may be, to do so, shall be deemed to constitute one document for the purposes of this Act.

Annual return 232. Every corporation shall, on the prescribed date, send to the Director an annual return in the form approved by the Director and the Director shall file it.

Certificate

233. (1) The Director may provide any person with a certificate stating that a corporation

- (a) has sent to the Director a document required to be sent under this Act;
- (b) has paid all required fees; or
- (c) exists as of a certain date.

(2) For greater certainty, the Director may refuse to issue a certificate described in clause (1)(c) if the Director has knowledge that the corporation is in default of sending a document required to be sent under this Act or is in default of paying a required fee.

Director may refuse to issue certificate of existence

234. The Director may alter a notice or document, other than an affidavit or statutory declaration, if authorized by the person who sent the document or by that person's representative.

Alteration

235. (1) If a certificate or other document containing an error is issued to a corporation by the Director, the directors or shareholders of the corporation shall, on the request of the Director, pass the resolutions and send to the Director the documents required to comply with this Act, and take such other steps as the Director may reasonably require so that the Director may correct the certificate or document.

Corrections at request of Director

(2) A document issued under subsection (1) may bear the date of the document it replaces.

No prejudice

(3) If a corrected certificate materially amends the terms of the original certificate, the Director shall without delay give notice of the correction in a publication generally available to the public.

Notice

236. (1) In the prescribed circumstances, the Director may cancel the articles and related certificate of a corporation.

Cancellation of articles by Director

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the Director must be satisfied that the cancellation would not prejudice any of the shareholders or creditors of the corporation.

No prejudice

(3) In the prescribed circumstances, the Director may, at the request of a corporation or of any other interested person, cancel the articles and related certificate of the corporation if

Request to Director to cancel articles

(a) the cancellation is approved by the directors of the corporation; and

(b) the Director is satisfied that the cancellation would not prejudice any of the shareholders or creditors of the corporation and that the cancellation reflects the original intention of the corporation or the incorporators, as the case may be.

Application to court

(4) If, in the view of the Director, of the corporation or of any interested person who requests a cancellation, a cancellation of articles and a related certificate would prejudice any of the shareholders or creditors of a corporation, the Director, the corporation or the person, as the case may be, may apply to the court for an order that the articles and certificate be cancelled and for an order determining the rights of the shareholders or creditors.

Notice to Director (5) An applicant under subsection (4) shall give the Director notice of the application, and the Director is entitled to appear and to be heard in person or by counsel.

Return of certificate (6) The Director may demand the surrender of the original document, and may issue a corrected certificate or file the corrected articles, notice or other document.

Inspection 237. (1) A person who has paid the required fee is entitled during usual business hours to examine a document required by this Act or the regulations to be sent to the Director, except a report sent to the Director under subsection 192(2), and to be furnished with copies of or extracts from it.

Copies (2) The Director shall furnish any person with a copy, extract, certified copy or certified extract of a document required by this Act or the regulations to be sent to the Director, except a report sent under subsection 192(2).

Records of Director 238. (1) Records required by this Act to be maintained by the Director
(a) may be in bound or loose-leaf form or in photographic film form; or
(b) may be entered or recorded by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or by any other information storage device that is capable of reproducing any required information in intelligible form within a reasonable time.

Obligation to furnish (2) Where records are maintained by the Director otherwise than in written form,
(a) the Director shall furnish any copy required to be furnished under subsection 237(2) in intelligible form; and
(b) a report reproduced from those records, if it is certified by the Director, is admissible in evidence to the same extent as the original records would have been.

Retention of records (3) The Director is not required to produce any document, other than a certificate and attached articles or statement filed under section 230, after the expiration of the prescribed period.

Form of publication

239. Information or notices required by this Act to be summarized in a publication generally available to the public or published by the Director may be made available to the public or published by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or by any other information storage device that is capable of reproducing any required information or notice in intelligible form within a reasonable time.

240. (1) In this section, “charter” includes

- (a) an act of incorporation and any amendments to it; and
- (b) letters patent of incorporation and any letters patent supplementary to them.

Definition of “charter”

(2) In connection with a continuance under this Act, the shareholders of a body corporate incorporated or continued by or under an Act of the Legislature other than this Act who are entitled to vote at annual meetings of shareholders may, notwithstanding any provision in any other Act of the Legislature or any provision in the charter of the body corporate,

Amendment of
charter

- (a) by special resolution, authorize the directors of the body corporate to apply under section 161 for a certificate of continuance; and
- (b) by the same resolution, make any amendment to the charter of the body corporate that a corporation incorporated under this Act may make to its articles.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the shareholders of a body corporate may not, by a special resolution under that subsection, make any change of the nature referred to in subsection 150(1) that affects a class or series of shares, unless

Change of class

- (a) the charter of the body corporate otherwise provides in respect of an amendment of the nature referred to in clause 150(1)(a), (b) or (e); or
- (b) the holders of the class or series of shares approve the change in accordance with section 150.

(4) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), the directors of a body corporate incorporated or continued by or under an Act of the Legislature other than this Act may, notwithstanding any provision in any other Act of the Legislature or any provision in the charter of the body corporate, apply under section 161 for a certificate of continuance where the articles of continuance do not make any amendment to the charter of the body corporate other than an amendment required to conform to this Act.

Authorizing continuance
