TAX RELIEF FOR ALL ISLANDERS

The Basic Personal Amount will increase by $1,000 over two years, keeping more money in the pockets of Islanders.

Approximately 2,200 additional Islanders will no longer pay any provincial income tax. This is the first step toward regional tax parity over the next five years.

The provincial portion of HST will also be rebated on firewood, pellets and propane through a point of sale credit or rebate.

This will build on Prince Edward Island’s position as a leader in environmental stewardship and provides a clear pricing signal for cleaner energy.
