

My Birthday

When I was seven I went to a bowling party, it was my birthday!

I invited my friends zachary, and Brett and my cousin Logan. First, we played a little bowling, everybody liked doing that activity. Then, when we walked into a room that we were going to have pepperoni pizza in, the pepperoni pizza was really delicious!

After we had transformers cupcakes. When we were done of that, zachary gave me a talki birthday card! His face was on it. It so have a terrific birthday!

Then I had an idea, I made

Up a game called spongebob tag.
Whoever had the spongebob card was it.
Zachary was it, he was running around the room trying to catch us, he got me was it. I didn't catch anyone before I left

After it was time to go, we wished that we would do this again some other time!
