

PEI Pesticide Monitoring Program—Fish Sampling

The following charts show the various pesticide compounds that were detected in the stream water fish sampling segment of the PEI Pesticide Monitoring Program. Each chart shows the average detection value for each sampling year in green, with the respective Health Canada General Maximum Residue Limit (GMRL) for human consumption as a red line.

Cypermethrin Detections and Residue Limit in Trout (2007-2012)

