

IN THE MATTER OF
THE SECURITIES ACT, R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. S-3.1
(the “Act”)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF
NEW SELF-REGULATORY ORGANIZATION OF CANADA

RECOGNITION ORDER
(Sections 71 and 72 of the Act)

WHEREAS:

1. The Superintendent of Securities (the “Superintendent”) issued an order dated May 27, 2008, effective June 1, 2008, varied and restated by an order dated March 22, 2021, effective April 1, 2021, recognizing the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (“IIROC”) as a self-regulatory organization pursuant to section 72 of the Act (“IIROC Order”).
2. The Superintendent issued an order dated March 15, 2013, varied and restated by an order dated March 22, 2021, effective April 1, 2021, recognizing the Mutual Fund Dealers Association of Canada (the “MFDA”) as a self-regulatory organization pursuant to sections 71 and 72 of the Act (“MFDA Order”).
3. Following public consultations, the Canadian Securities Administrators (“CSA”) published CSA Position Paper 25-404 – New Self-Regulatory Organization Framework, describing the plan to establish a new single enhanced self-regulatory organization that will consolidate the functions of IIROC and the MFDA in order to provide a framework for efficient and effective regulation in the public interest, including an enhanced governance structure, improved investor protection and education, and strengthened industry proficiency.
4. IIROC and the MFDA have agreed to consolidate their regulatory activities through a legal amalgamation to form the New Self-Regulatory Organization of Canada (“New SRO”), which was subsequently approved by a vote of their respective members.
5. The New SRO will, among other things, regulate mutual fund dealers, investment dealers and the trading on Marketplace Members, as defined in Appendix A to this order (“Recognition Order”); and perform the functions identified in section 15 Performance of New SRO functions of Appendix A to this Recognition Order.
6. The New SRO will act as a regulation services provider in accordance with National Instrument 21-101 Marketplace Operation and National Instrument 23-101 Trading Rules.

7. The New SRO has committed to a strong corporate governance structure with a majority of independent directors on New SRO's board of directors and its committees.
8. The New SRO has committed to establish formal investor advocacy mechanisms to ensure proper investor input in policy development and rulemaking.
9. The New SRO has adopted interim rules which include (i) the Investment Dealer and Partially Consolidated Rules, (ii) the Universal and Market Integrity Rules and (iii) the Mutual Fund Dealer Rules, which are largely based on the rules of IIROC and the rules and certain by-laws and policies of the MFDA that were in force immediately prior to amalgamation. The New SRO has adopted, as applicable, policies, regulations, forms, notices, regulatory notices, bulletins, directives, guidance and fee models of IIROC and the MFDA that were in force immediately prior to amalgamation.
10. IIROC and the MFDA have applied to the Superintendent for recognition of the New SRO as a self-regulatory organization under section 72 of the Act to operate as a successor to IIROC and the MFDA following their amalgamation under the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act, SC 2009, c. 23.
11. IIROC and the MFDA have also requested the Superintendent accept the voluntary surrender of the recognition of IIROC and the MFDA as self-regulatory organizations under 73 of the Act submitting that there is no need to continue the IIROC Order and the MFDA Order, as they will be replaced by this Recognition Order once it is effective.
12. IIROC and the MFDA have also applied to the Alberta Securities Commission; Autorité des marchés financiers; British Columbia Securities Commission; Manitoba Securities Commission; Financial and Consumer Services Commission of New Brunswick; Office of the Superintendent of Securities, Digital Government and Services, Newfoundland and Labrador; Office of the Superintendent of Securities, Northwest Territories; Nova Scotia Securities Commission; Office of the Superintendent of Securities, Nunavut; Prince Edward Island Office of the Superintendent of Securities; Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan; and Office of the Yukon Superintendent of Securities (together with the Superintendent, the "Recognizing Regulators").
13. The Recognizing Regulators have entered into a Memorandum of Understanding regarding oversight of the New SRO ("MOU") effective January 1, 2023, as amended from time to time.
14. IIROC and the MFDA are consolidating through the legal amalgamation to continue as the New SRO, references to IIROC and the MFDA in the existing regulations, rules, orders, policies, notices or other instruments ("Provisions") in the jurisdictions of the Recognizing Regulators will be treated and interpreted as references to the New SRO until the appropriate consequential amendments are implemented, if considered necessary. To the extent that a Provision assigns requirements or privileges exclusively to either investment dealers or mutual fund dealers, who, prior to the amalgamation, were members of IIROC and the MFDA respectively, it is to be understood that such requirements and privileges shall apply exclusively to either investment dealers or mutual fund dealers of the New SRO, as applicable. Notwithstanding anything in this Recognition Order, or anything arising as a consequence of the amalgamation, the powers and duties, if applicable, of the New SRO with respect to the registration of firms and individuals in the jurisdiction of each of the Recognizing Regulators, including with respect to categories of registration, shall be the same as the powers and duties if applicable, of IIROC with respect to the registration of firms and individuals in the jurisdiction of each of the Recognizing Regulators immediately prior to the effective date of this Recognition Order unless changed by a Recognizing Regulator subsequent to this Order taking effect.

15. Based on the Application and the representations made by IIROC and the MFDA, the Superintendent is satisfied that recognizing the New SRO as a self-regulatory organization is in the public interest.
16. The Superintendent may, if the Superintendent is satisfied that to do so would be in the public interest, make any decision with respect to any by-law, rule, regulation, policy, procedure, interpretation or practice of the New SRO.
17. The Superintendent may, if satisfied that to do so would not be prejudicial to the public interest, make an order revoking or varying this Recognition Order or any orders for IIROC and the MFDA.
18. The Superintendent has determined that acceptance of the voluntary surrender of the recognition of IIROC and the MFDA as self-regulatory organizations would not be prejudicial to the public interest.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Under section 72 of the Act that the New SRO is recognized as a self-regulatory organization, subject to the terms and conditions set out in Appendix A to this Recognition Order and the applicable provisions of the MOU.
2. Under section 73 of the Act that the Superintendent accepts the voluntary surrender of the recognition of IIROC and the MFDA as self-regulatory organizations; as a result, the IIROC Order and the MFDA Order cease to have effect upon the effective date of this Recognition Order.
3. This order comes into effect on January 1, 2023.

DATED at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, this 24th day of November, 2022.

Steve Dowling,
Superintendent of Securities

APPENDIX A

Definition of Independent Director

- 2. (1) “Independent Director” means a Director who has no direct or indirect material relationship with the Corporation or a Member.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a “material relationship” is a relationship which, having regard to all relevant circumstances, could interfere with or be reasonably perceived to interfere with the exercise of a Director’s independent judgment.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), the following individuals are considered to have a material relationship with the Corporation or a Member:
- (a) an individual who is, or has been within the last three years, an employee or Executive Officer of the Corporation;
 - (b) an individual whose Immediate Family Member is, or has been within the last three years, an Executive Officer or non-independent director of the Corporation;
 - (c) an individual who, or whose Immediate Family Member, is or has been within the last three years, an Executive Officer of an entity if any of the Corporation’s current Executive Officers serves or served at that same time on the entity’s compensation committee;
 - (d) an individual who received, or whose Immediate Family Member who is employed as an Executive Officer of the Corporation received, more than $75,000 in direct compensation from the Corporation during any 12-month period within the last three years;
 - (e) an individual who is, or has been within the last three years, a partner, director, officer, employee, or person acting in a similar capacity of:
 - (i) a Member,
 - (ii) an Associate of a Member, or
 - (iii) an Affiliated Entity of a Member; and

- (f) an individual who is, or has been within the last three years, an Associate of a partner, director, officer, employee, or person acting in a similar capacity of a Member.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(d), direct compensation does not include:
- (a) remuneration for acting as a member of the Board or of any Board committee of the Corporation; and
 - (b) the receipt of fixed amounts of compensation under a retirement plan (including deferred compensation) for prior service with the Corporation if the compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service.
- (5) Despite subsection (3), an individual will ordinarily not be considered to have a material relationship with the Corporation solely because the individual or his or her Immediate Family Member:
- (a) has previously acted as an interim Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the Corporation; or
 - (b) acts, or has previously acted, as a chair or vice-chair of the Board or of any Board committee of the Corporation on a part-time basis.
- (6) If, despite the three-year cooling-off period described in paragraphs 3(e) and (f), the nature or duration of an individual’s relationship with a Member, its Associates, or its Affiliated Entities could be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of that individual’s independent judgment, then a sufficiently longer cooling-off period from the Member, Associate, and Affiliated Entity is required for that individual to be considered an Independent Director.
- (7) Despite any determination made under subsections (2) to (6), an individual is considered to have a material relationship with the Corporation if the individual
- (a) accepts, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Corporation or any subsidiary entity of the Corporation, other than as remuneration for acting in his or her capacity as a member of the Board or any Board committee, or as a part-time chair or vice-chair of the Board or any Board committee; or
 - (b) is an Affiliated Entity of the Corporation or any of its subsidiary entities.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), the indirect acceptance by an individual of any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee includes acceptance of a fee by
- (a) an individual's spouse, minor child or stepchild, or a child or stepchild who shares the individual's home; or

- (b) an entity in which such individual is a partner, member, an officer such as a managing director occupying a comparable position or Executive Officer, or occupies a similar position (except limited partners, non-managing members and those occupying similar positions who, in each case, have no active role in providing services to the entity) and which provides accounting, consulting, legal, investment banking or financial advisory services to the Corporation or any subsidiary entity of the Corporation.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection (7), compensatory fees do not include the receipt of fixed amounts of compensation under a retirement plan (including deferred compensation) for prior service with the Corporation if the compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service.

Recognition criteria

- 3. The New SRO must continue to comply with the criteria attached at Schedule 1.

Public interest

- 4. (1) The New SRO must act in the public interest. In ensuring it meets the public interest mandate, the New SRO must:
 - (a) articulate in its constating documents and inform its stakeholders, and the public in general, of its public interest mandate;
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that appropriate training is provided to its Directors, Board committee members, senior management, and staff in interpreting the New SRO's public interest mandate; and
 - (c) ensure that the compensation structure of its Executive Officers and senior management is appropriately linked to the effective delivery of the New SRO's public interest mandate.

Approval of changes

- 5. (1) Prior Superintendent approval is required for any changes to the following:
 - (a) the corporate governance structure of the New SRO;
 - (b) New SRO's articles of amalgamation;
 - (c) the charter of the Board and each of its committees; and
 - (d) the assignment, transfer, delegation or sub-contracting of the performance of all or a substantial part of its regulatory functions or responsibilities as a self-regulatory organization.

(2) Prior Superintendent approval is required for material changes to the following:

- (a) the fee model;
- (b) the functions the New SRO performs;
- (c) New SRO's organizational structure, including the location of New SRO offices or regulatory staff;
- (d) the activities, responsibilities, and authority of the Regional Councils;
- (e) Regions and Districts of the New SRO and
- (f) any regulation services agreement entered into by the New SRO.

Non-objection to changes

6. (1) Prior Superintendent non-objection, as described in the Appendix A of the New SRO MOU, is required for the following:

- (a) nomination of each candidate for an Independent Director position;
- (b) appointment of the CEO;
- (c) changes to Board skills matrices;
- (d) changes to the CEO skills sub-matrix; and
- (e) approval of a Board exemption, or an amendment or extension to a Board exemption, from a Rule that could have a significant impact on:
 - (i) Members and others subject to New SRO's jurisdiction, or
 - (ii) the capital markets generally, including, for greater clarity, particular stakeholders or sectors.

Superintendent oversight

7. (1) The New SRO must seek input from the Superintendent before finalizing its strategic and business plans, annual statements of priorities and budgets.

(2) The New SRO must cooperate and assist with any reviews of its functions by the Superintendent or an independent third-party that is acting at the direction of the Superintendent.

- (3) The scope of the independent third-party review, referred to in subsection (2), and the person or the persons that will undertake the review will be determined by the Superintendent. Such review will be at the New SRO's expense, including the New SRO reimbursing the Superintendent for any fees, when required.

Status

8. (1) The New SRO must operate on a not-for-profit basis.
- (2) The New SRO must comply with any terms and conditions the Superintendent may impose in the public interest concerning any transaction that would result in the New SRO:
- (a) ceasing to perform its functions;
 - (b) discontinuing, suspending or winding-up all or a significant portion of its operations;
 - (c) disposing of all or substantially all of its assets; or
 - (d) terminating its agreement with an information technology service provider providing critical technology systems.

Rules and rule-making

9. The New SRO must act in accordance with the process for introducing new or amending, revoking or suspending existing by-laws and Rules outlined in Appendix C of the New SRO MOU, as amended from time to time. For any proposal to be published for public comment, the New SRO must consider and clearly articulate why the proposal is in the public interest.

Governance

10. (1) The Board

The New SRO must ensure that:

- (a) it maintains a Board size of not more than 15 Directors;
- (b) the roles of CEO and chair of the Board are occupied by separate persons;
- (c) a majority of the Board, including the chair, are Independent Directors;
- (d) it maintains appropriate term limits for the Board; and

(e) it develops, maintains and complies with diversity and inclusion policies.

(2) Board committees

The New SRO must ensure that:

- (a) the governance committee of the Board is composed entirely of Independent Directors;
- (b) other Board committees are composed of a majority of Independent Directors; and
- (c) chairs of all Board committees are Independent Directors.

(3) Regional Councils

The New SRO will establish Regional Councils according to its by-laws. The Regional Councils will serve an advisory role to the New SRO to provide regional perspective on national or any other issues. The New SRO will allocate sufficient resources to the Regional Councils to ensure they can meaningfully fulfil their responsibilities. The Regional Councils will report to the Board at least annually.

Fees

11. The New SRO must develop an integrated fee model to be approved by the Superintendent. Until such time, the New SRO must seek authorization from the Superintendent or any increase in fees for Dealer Members that are not registered as both investment and mutual fund dealers or affiliated investment and mutual fund dealers where such increase is related to the costs of creation of the New SRO.

Investor engagement and protection

- 12. (1) The New SRO must create mechanisms to educate and formally engage with investors, including for the purpose of obtaining input on the design and implementation of applicable Rule proposals. In particular, the New SRO must:
- (a) establish an investor advisory panel to provide independent research or input on regulatory and public interest matters. The Board must meet with the investor advisory panel at least annually in addition to the New SRO executives meeting with the investor advisory panel;
 - (b) establish a separate investor office within the New SRO to support Rule development and provide investor education or outreach. The investor office must be prominently positioned, easily identifiable and accessible to investors;

- (c) ensure that appropriate New SRO advisory committees include a reasonable proportion of investor representatives; and
- (d) maintain a whistleblower program.

Due process

- 13. Subject to applicable laws and the Rules and by-laws of the New SRO, before rendering a decision that affects the rights of a person or company in relation to membership, registration, or enforcement matters, the New SRO must provide that person or company an opportunity to be heard.

Record keeping

- 14. (1) The New SRO must keep records of all matters subject to regulatory approvals by the New SRO under the Rules and New SRO by-laws for an appropriate time period in accordance with legal and industry standards for record retention, including but not limited to:
- (a) all granted membership requests, specifying the persons to whom membership was granted and the basis for its decision; and
 - (b) all denied membership requests or terms and conditions imposed on membership, specifying the basis for its decision.

Performance of New SRO functions

- 15. (1) The New SRO must set Rules governing its Dealer Members and others subject to its jurisdiction, and the New SRO must set Rules governing trading on Marketplace Members by Dealer Members and others subject to its jurisdiction.
- (2) The New SRO must administer and monitor compliance with both the applicable Rules and Canadian securities legislation by Members and others subject to its jurisdiction and enforce compliance with the Rules by Dealer Members, including alternative trading systems, and others subject to its jurisdiction,
- (3) In its capacity as a regulation services provider, the New SRO must administer, monitor and/or enforce rules pursuant to a regulation services agreement.
- (4) The New SRO, through its Directors, officers and employees, must be responsible for all membership matters while giving consideration to any regional issues raised by the Regional Councils on an advisory basis.
- (5) Subject to applicable legislation, the New SRO must:

- (a) collect, use and disclose personal information only to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out its regulatory activities and mandate; and
 - (b) protect personal information and confidential business information in its custody or under its control.
- (6) The New SRO must adopt policies and procedures designed to ensure that confidential information, including personal information, related to its operations, the Superintendent's operations, or those of any Dealer Member, Marketplace Member or marketplace participant, is maintained in confidence and not shared inappropriately with other persons, and must use all reasonable efforts to comply with these policies and procedures.
- (7) The New SRO must ensure that it is accessible for contact by the public for purposes relating to the performance of its functions as a self-regulatory organization.
- (8) The New SRO must develop and make available to the public processes for handling complaints against the New SRO, including appropriate escalation procedures.
- (9) The New SRO must publish concurrently in English and French each document issued to the public or generally to any class of Members.
- (10) The New SRO must, at least annually, self-assess the performance of its functions, and report thereon to its Board, together with any recommendations for improvements.
- (11) The New SRO must provide to the Superintendent any data, information or records concerning Marketplace activity in order, among other things, to facilitate the efficient identification and analysis of market misconduct and improvement of the insight into Canadian capital markets and market structures.
- (12) Any actions taken by the New SRO to administer, monitor or enforce compliance with Rules and securities legislation is without prejudice to any action that may be taken by the Superintendent under securities legislation.

Use of Monetary Sanctions

16. (1) All Monetary Sanctions collected by the New SRO may only be used, directly or indirectly, in the public interest as follows:
- (a) as approved by the governance committee,

- (i) for the development of systems or other related expenditures that are necessary to address emerging regulatory issues and are directly related to protecting investors or the integrity of the capital markets, provided that any such use does not constitute normal course operating expenses,
- (ii) for education or research projects that are directly relevant to the investment industry, and which benefit the public or the capital markets,
- (iii) for specific funding related to a whistleblower program, provided that any such use does not constitute normal course operating expenses,
- (iv) to contribute to a non-profit, tax-exempt organization, the purposes of which include protection of investors, or those described in paragraph (a)(ii), or
- (v) for such other purposes as may be subsequently approved by the Superintendent; or

- (b) for reasonable costs associated with the administration of New SRO's investor office, investor advisory panel and New SRO's hearings.

(2) The process to allocate such Monetary Sanctions must be fair and transparent.

Public Notice of Enforcement Proceedings

17. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and applicable laws, the New SRO must

(a) promptly notify the public and the news media of:

- (i) the specifics relating to each Enforcement Proceeding commenced by the New SRO, and
- (ii) the disposition of each Enforcement Proceeding, including reasons; and

(b) ensure that Enforcement Proceedings are open to the public and the news media.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the New SRO may, on its own initiative or on request of a party to the Enforcement Proceeding, or as permitted by its Rules, conduct a closed-door hearing or prohibit the publication or release of information or documents if it determines that it is required for the protection of confidential matters. The New SRO must establish written criteria for making a determination of confidentiality.

Capacity and integrity of systems

18. (1) The New SRO must

(a) ensure that each of New SRO's critical technology systems has

- (i) appropriate internal controls to ensure integrity and security of information and data, and
- (ii) reasonable and sufficient capacity, and backup to enable the New SRO to properly carry on its business;

(b) have controls to manage the risks associated with its operations, including an annual review of its contingency and business continuity plan.

(2) The New SRO must, on a reasonably frequent basis, and in any event at least annually, cause to be performed an independent review of the controls and capacity described in subsection (1) above in accordance with established audit procedures and standards. The Board must conduct a review of the report containing the recommendations and conclusions of the independent review. The New SRO must also, on a reasonably frequent basis, and in any event at least annually, complete the following, which may be completed as part of the independent review:

- (a) make reasonable current and future capacity estimates for its critical technology systems;
- (b) conduct capacity stress tests to determine the processing capability of those systems to perform its functions in an accurate, timely and efficient manner;
- (c) review and keep current the development and testing methodology of those systems; and
- (d) review the vulnerability of those systems to internal and external threats including, but not limited to, cyber attacks, physical hazards or natural disasters.

(3) The term and condition in subsection (2) above will not apply if:

(a) the information technology provider retained by the New SRO is required, either by law or otherwise, to conduct an annual independent review; and

(b) New SRO's Board obtains and reviews annually a copy of the independent review report of its information technology provider to ensure that it has controls in place to address the matters outlined in paragraphs (1) and (2) above.

(4) The New SRO must, periodically or at the request of the Superintendent, benchmark surveillance systems and services provided by its information technology providers against comparable systems and services available from other third-party technology providers.

Capacity and integrity of continuing education tracking system

19. (1) The New SRO must ensure that its continuing education tracking system, has

(a) appropriate internal controls to ensure integrity and security of information; and

(b) has reasonable and sufficient capacity, and backup to enable the New SRO to properly carry on its business.

(2) The New SRO must on a reasonably frequent basis, and at least biennially, cause a report to be prepared in accordance with established audit standards by a qualified party which provides details of a review designed to ensure that the continuing education tracking system has an adequate system of internal controls, including, but not limited to, integration into the New SRO business continuity and disaster recovery plans.

(3) Before finalizing any engagement to prepare the report described in (2), the New SRO must discuss the choice of qualified party and scope of the review with the Superintendent.

Ongoing reporting requirements

20. (1) The New SRO must comply with the requirements set out in Schedule 2 of this Recognition Order, as amended from time to time by the Superintendent.

(2) The New SRO must provide the Superintendent with other reports, documents and information and data in a format and manner acceptable to the Superintendent as the Superintendent or its staff may request.

SCHEDULE 1

SCHEDULE 2 REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Prior notification

- 1. (1) The New SRO will provide the Superintendent with at least 12 months' written notice prior to completing any transaction that would result in the New SRO:
 - (a) ceasing to perform its functions;
 - (b) discontinuing, suspending or winding-up all or a significant portion of its operations; or
 - (c) disposing of all or substantially all of its assets.
- (2) The New SRO will provide the Superintendent with at least three months' written notice prior to:
 - (a) terminating its agreement with an information technology service provider providing critical technology systems; or
 - (b) any intended material change to its agreement with an information technology service provider regarding its critical technology systems.

Immediate notification

- 2. (1) The New SRO will immediately notify the Superintendent of the following events:
 - (a) the admission of a new Dealer Member, including the Dealer Member's name, and any terms and conditions that are imposed on the Dealer Member;
 - (b) Dealer Members whose rights and privileges or membership will be suspended, terminated or made subject to terms and conditions, including:
 - (i) the Dealer Member's name,
 - (ii) the reasons for the proposed suspension, termination or terms and conditions, and
 - (iii) a description of the steps being taken to ensure that the Dealer Member's clients are being dealt with appropriately, when applicable.
 - (c) receipt of a Dealer Member's intention to resign; and

(d) receipt of an application for a Board exemption, or an amendment or extension to a Board exemption, from a Rule that could have a significant impact on:

(i) The New SRO Members and others subject to New SRO's jurisdiction, or

(ii) the capital markets generally including, for greater clarity, particular stakeholders or sectors.

(2) The notice required in subsection (1), other than in (b) and (d), may be provided by the New SRO issuing a public notice containing the information, provided that such public notice will be issued immediately after the decision is made for admission and immediately after receipt of a notice of intention to resign, as the case may be.

Prompt notification

3. (1) The New SRO will provide the Superintendent with prompt notice of the following events and situations, and in each case describe the circumstances that gave rise to the reportable event or situation, and New SRO's proposed response to ensure resolution, and, if appropriate, provide timely updates:

(a) changes in the members of New SRO's Board and its committees;

(b) situations that would reasonably be expected to raise concerns about New SRO's financial viability, including but not limited to, an inability to meet its expected expenses for the next quarter or the next year;

(c) any determination by the New SRO, or notification from any of the Recognizing Regulators, that the New SRO is not or will not be in compliance with one or more of the terms and conditions of its recognition in any jurisdiction;

(d) any material violations of applicable securities legislation of which the New SRO becomes aware in the ordinary course operation of its activities and activities of its Members;

(e) any material failures in the controls described in terms and conditions 18(1)(a)(i) and (ii) of Appendix A of the Recognition Order;

(f) any failure, malfunction, delay or material security incident, including cyber security breaches, of New SRO's critical systems or technology systems that support New SRO's critical systems;

(g) any breach of security safeguards involving information or data under New SRO's control if it is reasonable in the circumstances to believe that the breach creates a real risk of significant harm to investors, issuers, registrants, other market participants, the New SRO, CIPF or the capital markets;

- (h) actual or apparent misconduct or non-compliance by Dealer Members, Approved Persons, marketplace participants, or others, where investors, clients, creditors, Members, CIPF or the New SRO may reasonably be expected to suffer material damage as a consequence thereof, including but not limited to:
 - (i) where fraud appears to be present,
 - (ii) where there is an inadequate compliance system or the Ultimate Designated Person or Chief Compliance Officer fail to perform their responsibilities, or
 - (iii) where serious deficiencies in supervision or internal controls exist.
- (i) situations that would result in material misstatement of the Dealer Member's financial statements or that would reasonably be expected to raise concerns about a Dealer Member's continued viability, including but not limited to, capital deficiency, early warning, and any condition which, in the opinion of the New SRO, could give rise to payments being made out of CIPF, including any condition which, alone or together with other conditions, could, if appropriate corrective action is not taken, reasonably be expected to:
 - (i) inhibit the Dealer Member from promptly completing securities transactions, promptly segregating clients' securities as required or promptly discharging its responsibilities to clients, other members, or creditors, or
 - (ii) result in material financial loss to the Dealer Member or its clients;
- (j) any action taken by the New SRO with respect to a Dealer Member in financial difficulty;
- (k) any terms and conditions imposed, varied or removed by the New SRO relating to a Dealer Member; and
- (l) any enforcement agreement and undertaking entered into, varied or rescinded at New SRO's request relating to a Dealer Member.
