PROVINCIAL NOMINEE PROGRAM POLICIES

70-30-30 Policy

Assets belonging to a business may be considered as personal assets, for the purpose of a Business Category application, according to the following rule:

- The applicant, or the applicant and spouse in combination must own a minimum of 70% or the equity in the business(s);
- No more than 30% of net corporate assets may be considered as personal net worth; and
- No more than 30% of the $600,000.00 personal net worth requirement, or $180,000.00, may consist of corporate net assets as per this rule.

90-Day Inactive File Policy

Should the Office of Immigration request information from an applicant and not receive a response within 90 days, the file will be closed. The Office of Immigration will issue a letter at the 90 day mark that the file has been closed.

Translation Policy

For any documents that have been translated to other languages by the Office of Immigration, the original English version will prevail.

Withdraw Application by Applicant Policy

Applicants must send a signed written request by mail, email or fax to the Office of Immigration. To withdraw your application after receiving a letter of nomination, you must send a signed written request to both the Office of Immigration and the Canadian visa office where the Office of Immigration sent your nomination letter.

Withdraw of Nomination by Office of Immigration Policy

The Office of Immigration reserves the right to withdraw a nomination if an applicant has provided false or misleading information in declaring their intent to live and work in Prince Edward Island or no longer meets the criteria under which they were nominated.
