

A Typical Visit

What happens when you visit Park Street Emergency Shelter

Park Street Emergency Shelter is an emergency, overnight shelter managed by the Government of Prince Edward Island, and open to people of all genders.

1

Book a bed on site or through the Shelter Support Line (1-833-220-4722)

2

Arrive on site

3

Complete intake process

4

Complete safety screening

5

Get your bed number

6

Store belongings

7

Use facilities such as showers or laundry

8

Get a good night sleep

The next morning

9

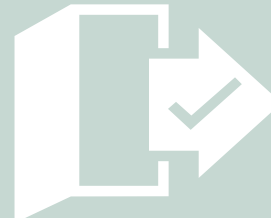

Use facilities such as shower, laundry, and breakfast food options

10

Get your belongings

11

Check out

12

Access transportation to offsite resources