EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds the definitions of “certified applicator”, “AG-1 Pesticide Use Certificate” and “AG-2 Pesticide Use Certificate”. It also corrects a reference to the Director to refer to the Minister.

SECTION 2 adds a reference to the type of certificate held by a person taking continuing education courses.

SECTION 3 clarifies the insurance requirements and provides for an exception in a situation where a person who applies for a licence confirms that the business for which the licence is intended will not offer a service involving the application of a chemical-based pesticide during the term of the licence.

SECTION 4 is a transitional provision that deems AG-1 Pesticide Use Certificates and AG-2 Pesticide Use Certificates to be issued under these regulations. The section clarifies the expiry of such certificates.

SECTION 5 clarifies that the holder of a Class A Pesticide Applicator Certificate is authorized to apply pesticides on agricultural crops that are not in a greenhouse. The section adds a reference to golf course turf to the description of a Class E Pesticide Applicator Certificate. The section also corrects the reference to licences which should be references to certificates.

The section also deals with the issuance of a Class A Pesticide Applicator Certificate to a person who holds an AG-2 Pesticide Use Certificate, if the person earns the CECs required before the end of 2006. This provision is revoked January 1, 2007.

SECTION 6 changes the references from “Director” to “Minister” in respect of issuing a certificate. The section also has transitional provisions for the issuance of Conditional Class A Pesticide Certificates to allow persons holding certificates under the prior regulations to continue applying pesticides for a limited period of time after which they would have to prove that they upgraded their educational qualifications.

SECTION 7 changes a reference to the Director as a reference to the Minister. The section provides for the issuance of a Class A Pesticide Applicator Certificate to the holder of an AG-1 or AG-2 Pesticide Use Certificate, and the expiry of such certificates. The section also adds a reference to a “certified assistant”.

SECTION 8 revises the Loader/mixer Certificate provisions and clarifies the expiry of the certificates.

SECTION 9 changes the reference from “Director” to “Minister” in respect of the issuance of certificates.

SECTION 10 clarifies that the pesticide dealt with in the section is non-domestic, clarifies the method of transport of concentrated non-domestic pesticide and requires a label on seed treated with a pesticide.

SECTION 11 substitutes a reference to “offering a service” instead of supervising the application of a pesticide, clarifies the application of a pesticide in a greenhouse and clarifies the offence provision respecting Class A Pesticide Applicator Certificates to match the changes in section 5. (greenhouse, golf turf)

SECTION 12 clarifies the requirements for handling or transporting non-domestic pesticides on a highway or mixing such pesticides.

SECTION 13 clarifies that the Director’s authorization to transfer, etc a Pesticide Purchase Permit must be in writing.

SECTION 14 clarifies the rules on cleaning and filling pesticide sprayers and equipment near a well or open body of water.

SECTION 15 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
