PROCLAMATION

CANADA

PROVINCE OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

(Great Seal)

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom,
Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

Hon. BARBARA A. HAGERMAN
Lieutenant Governor

TO ALL TO WHOM these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern:

GREETING
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS in and by section 8 of Chapter 7 of the Acts passed by the Legislature of Prince Edward Island in the 2nd Session thereof held in the year 2008 and in the fifty-seventh year of Our Reign intituled "An Act to Amend the Credit Unions Act" it is enacted as follows:

"This Act comes into force on a date that may be fixed by proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor in Council."

AND WHEREAS it is deemed expedient that the said Act, Stats. P.E.I. 2008, 2nd Session, c. 7 should come into force on the 7th day of October, 2008,

NOW KNOW YE that We, by and with the advice and consent of our Executive Council for Prince Edward Island, do by this Our Proclamation ORDER AND DECLARE that the said Act being "An Act to Amend the Credit Unions Act" passed in the fifty-seventh year of Our Reign shall come into force on the 7th day of October, two thousand and eight of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Prince Edward Island to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS the Honourable Barbara A. Hagerman, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island, at Charlottetown this 7th day of October in the year of Our Lord two thousand and eight and in the fifty-seventh year of Our Reign.

By Command,

ROBERT ALLAN RANKIN
Clerk of the Executive Council

NOTICE

Client Identity

2. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a lawyer who is retained by a client to provide legal services must comply with the requirements of this Rule.
- (2) Sections 3 through 9 do not apply to
 - (a) a lawyer when he or she provides legal services and engages in or gives instructions in respect of the receiving, paying or transferring of funds on behalf of his or her employer; or
 - (b) a lawyer
 - (i) who is engaged as an agent by the lawyer for a client to provide legal services to the client, or
 - (ii) to whom a matter for the provision of legal services is referred by the lawyer for a client,when the client's lawyer has complied with sections 3 through 9.

3. A lawyer who is retained by a client as described in section 2(1) shall obtain and record the following information:

- (a) the client's full name;
- (b) the client's business address and business telephone number, if applicable;
- (c) if the client is an individual, the client's home address and home telephone number;
- (d) if the client is an organization, the organization's incorporation or business identification number and the place of issue of its incorporation or business identification number, if applicable;
- (e) if the client is an individual, the client's occupation or occupations;
- (f) if the client is an organization,
 - i) other than a financial institution, public body or company that is not a private company, the general nature of the type of business or businesses or activity or activities engaged in by the client, where applicable, and
 - (ii) the name, position and contact information for those individuals authorized to give instructions with respect to the matter for which the lawyer is retained;
- (g) if the client is acting for or representing a third party beneficiary or a principal, information about the beneficiary or principal as set out in paragraphs (a) to (f) as applicable.

Client Identity and Verification

4. Section 6 applies where a lawyer engages on behalf of a client or gives instructions on behalf of a client in respect of the receiving, paying or transferring of funds.

Exemptions Re: Certain Funds

5. Section 6 does not apply in respect of funds

- (a) paid by a financial institution, public body or a company that is not a private company;
 - (b) paid to
 - (i) a financial institution,
 - (ii) a public body, or
 - (iii) a client that is a company that is not a private company;
 - (c) paid to another lawyer in trust, on the direction of the client;
 - (d) received by a lawyer from the trust account of another lawyer;
 - (e) received from a peace officer, law enforcement agency or other public official acting in their official capacity;
 - (f) paid pursuant to a court order or to pay a fine or penalty;
 - (g) paid as a settlement of any legal or administrative proceedings; or
 - (h) received for professional fees, disbursements, expenses or bail.
6. (1) When a lawyer is engaged in or gives instructions in respect of any of the activities described in section 4, including non-face-to-face transactions, the lawyer shall take reasonable steps to verify the identity of the client and, where appropriate, the third party beneficiary or principal, using what the lawyer reasonably considers to be reliable, independent source documents, data or information.

Examples of Independent Source Documents

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), independent source documents may include
- (a) if the client or third party beneficiary or principal is an individual, valid original government issued identification, including a driver's license, birth certificate, passport or similar record;
 - (b) if the client or third party beneficiary or principal is an organization such as a corporation or society that is created pursuant to legislative authority, a written confirmation from a government registry as to the existence, name and address of the organization, including the names of its directors and officers, such as
 - (i) a certificate of corporate status issued by a public body,
 - (ii) a copy obtained from a public body of a record that the organization is required to file annually under applicable legislation, or
 - (iii) a copy of a similar record obtained from a public body that confirms the organization's existence; and
 - (c) if the client or third party beneficiary or principal is an organization, other than a corporation or society, that is not registered in any government registry, such as a trust or partnership, a copy of the organization's constating documents, such as a trust or partnership agreement, articles of association, or any other similar record that confirms its existence as an organization.

Identifying Directors, Shareholders and Owners

- (3) When a lawyer is engaged in or gives instructions in respect of any of the activities in section 4 for a client that is an organization referred to in subsection (2)(b) or (c), the lawyer shall make reasonable efforts to obtain, and if obtained, record

- (a) the name and occupation of all directors of the organization, other than an organization that is a securities dealer; and
- (b) the name, address and occupation of all persons who own 25 per cent or more of the organization or of the shares of the organization.

Client Identity and Verification in Non-Face-to-Face Transactions

(4) When a lawyer engages in or gives instructions in respect of any of the activities in section 4 for a client who is an individual who is not physically present before the lawyer but is present elsewhere in Canada, the lawyer shall verify the client's identity by obtaining an attestation from a commissioner of oaths in Canada, or a guarantor in Canada, that the commissioner or guarantor has seen one of the documents referred to in subsection (2)(a).

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4), an attestation shall be produced on a legible photocopy of the document and shall include

- (a) the name, profession and address of the person providing the attestation;
- (b) the signature of the person providing the attestation; and
- (c) the type and number of the identifying document provided by the client.

(6) For the purpose of subsection (4), a guarantor must be a person employed in one of the following professions in Canada:

- (a) dentist;
- (b) medical doctor;
- (c) chiropractor;
- (d) judge;
- (e) magistrate;
- (f) lawyer;
- (g) notary (in Quebec);
- (h) notary public;
- (i) optometrist;
- (j) pharmacist;
- (k) professional accountant (APA, CA, CGA, CMA, PA or RPA);
- (l) professional engineer; or
- (m) veterinarian.

Use of Agent

(7) For the purpose of subsection (2)(a), a lawyer may, and in the case of a non-face-to-face transaction involving a client who is not present in Canada shall, rely on an agent to obtain the information, which may include, where applicable, an attestation described in this section, to verify the client's identity provided the lawyer and the agent have an agreement or arrangement in writing for this purpose.

(8) A lawyer who enters into an agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection (7) shall obtain from the agent the information obtained by the agent under that agreement or arrangement.

Timing of Verification for Individuals

- (9) A lawyer shall verify the identity of
- (a) a client who is an individual; and
 - (b) the individual or individuals authorized to give instructions on behalf of an organization with respect to the matter for which the lawyer is retained,
- upon engaging in or giving instructions in respect of any of the activities described in section 4.
- (10) Where a lawyer has verified the identity of an individual, the lawyer is not required to subsequently verify that same identity if the lawyer recognizes that person.

Timing of Verification for Organizations

- (11) A lawyer shall verify the identity of a client that is an organization within 60 days of engaging in or giving instructions in respect of any of the activities described in section 4.
- (12) Where the lawyer has verified the identity of a client that is an organization and obtained information pursuant to section 6(3), the lawyer is not required to subsequently verify that identity or obtain that information.

Record Keeping and Retention

7. (1) A lawyer shall obtain and retain a copy of every document used to verify the identity of any individual or organization for the purposes of section 6(1).
- (2) The documents referred to in subsection (1) may be kept in a machine-readable or electronic form, if a paper copy can be readily produced from it.
- (3) A lawyer shall retain a record of the information and any documents obtained for the purposes of sections 3 and 6(3) and copies of all documents received for the purposes of section 6(1) for the longer of
- (a) the duration of the lawyer and client relationship and for as long as is necessary for the purpose of providing service to the client; and
 - (b) a period of at least six years following completion of the work for which the lawyer was retained.

Application

8. Sections 2 through 7 do not apply to matters in respect of which a lawyer was retained before this Regulation comes into force but they do apply to all matters for which he or she is retained after that time regardless of whether the client is a new or existing client.

Criminal Activity, Duty to Withdraw at Time of Taking Information

9. (1) If, in the course of obtaining the information and taking the steps required in sections 3 and 6(1) or 6(3), a lawyer reasonably suspects that he or she is or would be assisting a client in dishonesty, fraud, crime or illegal conduct, the lawyer must withdraw from representation of the client.

Application

(2) This section applies to all matters, including new matters for existing clients, for which a lawyer is retained after this Regulation comes into force.

Criminal Activity, Duty to Withdraw after being Retained

10. (1) If while retained by a client, a lawyer reasonably suspects that he or she is or would be assisting the client in dishonesty, fraud, crime or illegal conduct, the lawyer must withdraw from representation of the client.

Application

(2) This section applies to all matters for which a lawyer was retained before this Regulation comes into force and to all matters for which he or she is retained after that time.

PART II REGULATIONS

EC2008-626

STRAY LIVESTOCK ACT
CAPTURE AND IMPOUNDMENT REGULATIONS

(Approved by Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council dated 7 October 2008.)

Pursuant to section 9 of the Stray Livestock Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. S-8.1, Council made the following regulations:

1. In these regulations

- (a) “Act” means the Stray Livestock Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. S-8.1; Definitions Act
- (b) “Department” means the Department of Agriculture; Department
- (c) “employee of the Department” means an employee of the Department to whom the Minister has delegated, pursuant to subsection 2(2) of the Act, any of the Minister’s powers, responsibilities and functions; employee of the Department
- (d) “recoverable costs and expenses” means the recoverable costs and expenses that a drover or an agent of a drover has incurred and is authorized to charge an owner of livestock, in respect of the capture and impoundment of livestock at large, as set out in section 7. recoverable costs and expenses

2. (1) Where a drover has captured and impounded livestock pursuant to a request from a peace officer under subsection 5(2) of the Act, the drover shall, Responsibilities of drover

- (a) within 48 hours of the capture and impoundment of the livestock, notify the peace officer and an employee of the Department that such action has been taken and provide the peace officer and employee of the Department with a copy of the information collected by the drover under section 5; and
- (b) within five days of the livestock’s capture and impoundment, give public notice of the capture and impoundment of the livestock by advertising, in a provincial newspaper,
 - (i) a description of the livestock captured and impounded, including any marks, brands, tattoos, tags, or other identifying features unique to the livestock, and
 - (ii) the location at which the livestock is impounded and may be collected on payment of the recoverable costs and expenses of the drover.

(2) Where, within 10 days of the capture and impoundment of livestock by a drover, a person claims ownership of any livestock Ownership of livestock

captured and impounded by a drover, the drover shall, if satisfied that the person is the owner of the livestock,

(a) provide the owner and an employee of the Department with a written statement of the recoverable costs and expenses that the drover is authorized to charge under section 7 in respect of the capture and impoundment of the livestock; and

(b) release the livestock to the owner of the livestock if the owner pays such recoverable costs and expenses.

Sale of livestock (3) If the owner of any livestock, after being notified of the written statement of the recoverable costs and expenses of the drover, does not pay the drover the amount of such recoverable costs and expenses within five days after receiving the statement, the drover shall conduct the sale of the livestock, by public auction, and notify an employee of the Department of the sale.

Idem (4) If livestock captured and impounded by a drover is not claimed within 10 days after its capture and impoundment by a person the drover is satisfied is the owner of the livestock, the drover shall conduct the sale of the livestock, by public auction, and notify an employee of the Department of the sale.

Employee of the Department to be notified 3. (1) Where an owner or occupier of land captures livestock at large on the owner's or occupier's land, the owner or occupier shall, within 48 hours after the time that the livestock is captured, notify an employee of the Department of the capture.

Release of livestock (2) No owner or occupier of land who captures livestock at large on his or her land shall release the captured livestock to any person other than a drover, the owner of the livestock, or an agent of the owner of the livestock.

Destruction of livestock 4. A peace officer who believes, on reasonable grounds, that
 (a) livestock is at large;
 (b) the attempted capture of the livestock will likely result in injury to any person or any other livestock; and
 (c) the owner of the livestock
 (i) is unknown, or
 (ii) is known but is unwilling or unable to take any action necessary to prevent the livestock from being at large, may destroy the livestock or authorize another person to destroy the livestock and may request an employee of the Department to arrange for the disposal of the destroyed livestock.

Information to be collected and recorded 5. (1) Where a drover has captured and impounded livestock, the drover shall keep a record, in writing, and provide a copy of the record to an employee of the Department, in respect of the following information:
 (a) the date and time of the capture and impoundment of the livestock;
 (b) a description of the type of livestock captured and impounded;

- (c) a description of any marks, brands, tattoos, tags, or other unique identification in respect of the livestock;
- (d) a description of the location where the livestock has been captured and impounded.

(2) Where an employee of the Department receives a copy of a record referred to in subsection (1), the Department shall retain the record for a period of 15 years, in accordance with the Department's records management retention schedule. Record retained

6. (1) Where a drover sells livestock pursuant to subsections 2(3) and (4), the drover shall Costs and expenses

- (a) submit the proceeds of sale to the Department to be disbursed in accordance with this section; and
- (b) provide a detailed statement and receipts, of costs and expenses incurred by the drover to an employee of the Department for payment in respect of the following costs and expenses:
 - (i) the capture and impoundment of the livestock sold,
 - (ii) the transport of the livestock sold,
 - (iii) maintaining the livestock sold prior to its sale,
 - (iv) determining the identity of and contacting the owner of, or the last person in possession of the livestock,
 - (v) advertising the capture and impoundment of the livestock,
 - (vi) selling the livestock.

(2) On receipt of a statement of the costs and expenses incurred by a drover, an employee of the Department shall review the statement and pay to the drover such amount for the costs and expenses incurred by the drover as the employee of the Department considers reasonable. Payment of costs and expenses

(3) Where, after the payment of any costs and expenses of the drover under subsection (2), the Department holds any remaining proceeds from the sale of livestock, the Department shall, on receipt of a claim in respect of those remaining proceeds of sale that is made within 14 days after the date of the sale of the livestock, pay those proceeds to a claimant if the claimant establishes to the satisfaction of the Department that the person was the owner of the livestock prior to the sale of the livestock. Idem

(4) Where no claim has been made by the owner of any livestock within 14 days after the date of the sale of the livestock, the Department shall transfer or pay any balance from the proceeds of the sale of the livestock to the Provincial Treasurer if not otherwise claimed by the owner of the livestock under subsection (3). Balance from proceeds of sale

(5) Where the proceeds from the sale of livestock are less than the incurred costs and expenses referred to in subsection (1), the difference is a debt due to the Government and shall be paid by the owner of the livestock, if known, within 30 days after the owner being served by the Department with the invoice for any such amounts that are owed in respect of the sale of the livestock. Debt due to the Government

Idem	(6) If the owner of the livestock fails to pay any debt due under subsection (5) within the time required by that subsection in respect of the sale of the livestock, (a) the Minister may issue a certificate stating the amount due and payable on the date of the certificate, including interest, if any, and penalty, if any; (b) upon its production to and filing with the Registrar of the Supreme Court at any time 30 days after it is issued, the certificate shall be entered and recorded in the court, and when so entered it has the same force and effect, and all proceedings may be taken thereunder, as if it were a judgment obtained in the court by the Government against the person named in the certificate; and (c) all reasonable costs and expenses attendant upon the production and registration of the certificate shall be recovered in the same manner as if the amount thereof had been included in the certificate.
Recoverable costs and expenses	7. (1) A drover or an agent of a drover may charge an owner of livestock the following recoverable costs and expenses in respect of the capture and impoundment of livestock at large: (a) the costs associated with providing care and feed for livestock captured and impounded, (i) the actual cost of care and feed, or (ii) a fee per head of livestock for each 24-hour period or part thereof that the livestock is captured and impounded, whichever is less; (b) for transporting livestock, (i) a fee for a trip of 50 kilometres or less, or (ii) a fee for each kilometre for a trip of more than 50 kilometres; (c) for carrying out the work in respect of the capture and impoundment of livestock, a fee for each hour or part thereof to a maximum fee for each 24-hour period; (d) the cost of advertising in the provincial newspaper.
Fees	(2) The fees referred to in subsection (1) shall be established by the Minister.
Civil Service Act not applicable	8. The Civil Service Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-8 shall not apply to any drover appointed by the Minister under subsection 5(1) of the Act.
Commencement	9. These regulations come into force on 18 October 2008.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines terms used in these regulations.

SECTION 2 outlines the responsibilities of a drover and the procedures to be followed when livestock at large has been captured and impounded by the drover. The provision also provides for the sale of livestock in the described circumstances outlined in the section.

SECTION 3 requires an employee of the Department to be notified when livestock at large has been captured by an owner or occupier of land. The provision prohibits the release of livestock to a person other than a drover, the owner of the livestock, or an agent of the owner of the livestock.

SECTION 4 authorizes a peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer to destroy livestock at large in the described circumstances and to arrange for the disposal of the destroyed livestock.

SECTION 5 outlines the required information to be recorded by a drover when livestock at large has been captured and impounded by the drover. The provision requires that an employee of the Department receive a copy of the record of information and that the Department retain the record for a period of 15 years.

SECTION 6 outlines the costs and expenses that may be incurred by a drover when the drover sells livestock. The provision provides for payment to a drover such reasonable amount for the costs and expenses incurred by the drover in respect of the sale of the livestock. The provision provides for the disbursement of the proceeds of the sale of the livestock and provides for recovery by an owner of the livestock for any remaining proceeds from the sale of the livestock. Where no claim is made by an owner of the livestock, the Department shall transfer any balance from the proceeds of the sale to the Provincial Treasurer. The provision also provides for circumstances in which the proceeds from the sale of the livestock are less than the incurred costs and expenses in respect of the sale of the livestock.

SECTION 7 outlines the recoverable costs and expenses that may be charged by a drover or an agent of a drover in respect of the capture and impoundment of livestock at large.

SECTION 8 clarifies that the Civil Service Act does not apply to the appointment of drovers.

SECTION 9 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
