EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 replaces the current definitions for the words “farmer”, “commercial fisherman”, “aquaculturist” and “silviculturist” with improved definitions. These new definitions clarify which persons in such occupations qualify for a Revenue Tax Exemption Certificate by

-requiring a corporation and partnership included in these definitions to be registered respectively under the Companies Act or the Extra-Provincial Corporations Registration Act and the Partnership Act;

-correcting a reference in the definition for “farmer” to the Future Farmer Program to recognize that only an individual, and not a corporation or a partnership, can be registered in the Future Farmer Program; and

-adding an alternative income test, similar to the one currently in the definition of “farmer”, to the definitions for “commercial fisherman”, “aquaculturist” and “silviculturist” to expand the reach of these terms.

This section also amends the definition of “hybrid vehicle” to include vehicles that derive their motive power solely from electricity.

SECTION 2 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
