A PROCLAMATION

AND WHEREAS the Government of Canada issued terms of reference for the Inquiry on August 2, 2016 (the “Terms of Reference”);

AND WHEREAS concerns have been expressed that some non-governmental agencies or third parties may attempt to limit the scope of the Inquiry or impede its investigation by challenging the jurisdiction of a federally created inquiry to review and report on matters falling within provincial jurisdiction;

AND WHEREAS the Government of Prince Edward Island is committed to working with Indigenous communities to end the threat of violence against women and to ensure the safety of future generations of Indigenous women;

The Commission shall further ensure that the conduct of the Inquiry does not jeopardize any ongoing investigation or proceeding. The Commissioners shall apply this Order in Council in a manner consistent with the constitutional principle of prosecutorial independence.
4. 5. The Commission may adopt any procedures that the Commissioners consider appropriate for the proper conduct of the Inquiry, may sit at such times and places, and conduct the Inquiry by means of informal processes which are trauma-informed, culturally appropriate and respectful of the persons, families and communities concerned and provide an opportunity to share their experiences and views, particularly on ways to increase safety and prevent and eliminate violence against Indigenous women and girls.
6. The Government of Canada has undertaken to pay any and all expenses associated with the operation of the Commission and the Inquiry, including costs associated with the participation of Indigenous persons and organizations as witnesses before the Commission.
7. The Government of Prince Edward Island shall bear the cost of its own participation and attendance at the Inquiry, including the cost of the production of any required documents or material. All ministries, boards, agencies and commissions of the Government of Prince Edward Island shall, subject to any privilege or legal restriction, assist the Commission in the fulfillment of its mandate to the fullest extent possible.
8. Section 5 of the Public Inquiries Act, R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. P-31, shall not apply to the Commission relative to the Province of Prince Edward Island.
9. The Commission shall simultaneously deliver to the Governments of Canada and Prince Edward Island:
- (a) an interim report containing its preliminary findings and recommendations before November 1, 2017; and
- (b) a final report containing its findings and recommendations before November 1, 2018.
10. The Commission shall ensure, as far as practicable, that the interim report and final report are delivered in a form appropriate for public release, consistent with Prince Edward Island's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. F-15.01 and any other applicable federal or provincial legislation. In particular, the Commissioners must not disclose publicly or in any report any identifying personal health information or any identifying information pertaining to a child, parent or guardian who has received or is in receipt of services relating to child protection or income support services.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Prince Edward Island to be hereto affixed.
