EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines terms used throughout the regulations, clarifies how a person in need is determined and states that nursing homes are approved as residential institutions.

SECTION 2 provides for joint and individual applications for financial assistance, requires the submission of supporting information and authorizes the Minister to seek verification of information from third parties, including the Canada Revenue Agency. It also requires the Minister to give notice to an applicant of a refusal to provide financial assistance.

SECTION 3 provides for the calculation of income of an individual or joint applicant for the purposes of determining whether a person is a person in need and ensures that a spouse living outside a nursing home has a minimum income that is not below the low income measure.

SECTION 4 requires the Minister to reassess an applicant at least once per year and authorizes the Minister to vary, suspend or cancel the provision of financial assistance to the applicant on reassessment. It also requires the Minister to ensure audits and other monitoring activities are conducted and reported to the Minister.

SECTION 5 requires the administrator of a nursing home to establish a trust account where applicants residing in the nursing home may credit and debit their comfort allowances. It permits the administrator to use interest earned on the trust moneys for the benefit of all residents. It provides for the distribution of trust moneys on the death of an applicant and requires the administrator to give an annual accounting of an applicant's trust account activity.

SECTION 6 sets some limits on the recovery of debt from an applicant's estate and requires the Minister to file a satisfaction of a certificate filed with the Registrar of the Supreme Court when the debt due has been paid, cancelled, discharged or written off.

SECTION 7 provides for the appointment of a Panel on appeal and the provision of relevant documents to the Panel. It requires the Panel to hear the appeal within 15 clear days of receipt of the notice of appeal.

SECTION 8 requires the Panel to give notice of the date, time and place of the hearing by registered mail or courier and provides for an appellant to withdraw an appeal before the hearing.

SECTION 9 provides for the continued provision of financial assistance pending appeal where the appeal is in respect of a decision to reduce, suspend or cancel financial assistance. It provides for financial assistance to be granted retroactively where a decision to refuse to provide financial assistance is successfully appealed.

SECTION 10 provides that an appellant may request that a hearing of an appeal be held in private or open to the public.

SECTION 11 requires the Panel to dismiss an appeal if the appellant or a person acting on behalf of the appellant does not attend the hearing.

SECTION 12 provides for the decision of the Panel and a review of the decision in limited circumstances.

SECTION 13 provides for the Panel to award costs to a successful appellant and to consider financial assistance paid to an unsuccessful appellant pending appeal to be an overpayment.

SECTION 14 sets out transitional provisions respecting the variation of assistance under the former regulations.

SECTION 15 revokes the former regulations.

SECTION 16 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
