(b) a copy of the agreement or child support order, as the case may be; and

(c) a copy of the income information for the payor under the agreement or child support order, if the agreement or order was made before September 6, 2003.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), on receipt of an application referred to in subsection (1), the Recalculation Officer shall review and recalculate, in accordance with section 7, the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order.

Review and recalculation

(3) The Recalculation Officer shall, on receipt of an application referred to in subsection (1), refuse to review and recalculate the amount

Grounds for refusal of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order where

- (a) the agreement or child support order indicates that the amount of child support payable under it has been determined
 - (i) by taking into consideration
 - (A) the prevention of the undue hardship of a party or a child, or
 - (B) the fact that the parties share parenting time in respect of a child to whom the agreement or order applies, or
 - (ii) after first determining the payor's annual income pursuant to sections 17 or 19 of the Federal Guidelines, or
 - (iii) pursuant to clauses 3(2)(b) or 4(b), or section 5, of the Federal Guidelines; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Recalculation Officer, the application
 - (i) is made in respect of a matter for which an application should be made to the court under section 60 or 64 of the Act, or
 - (ii) is not made in accordance with the requirements of subsection (1).

Special or extraordinary expense

(4) For greater certainty, where an agreement or a child support order includes an amount of child support for a special or extraordinary expense, the Recalculation Officer shall refuse to review and recalculate the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order for the special or extraordinary expense.

Notice of refusal

(5) Where, on receipt of an application, the Recalculation Officer refuses to review and recalculate the child support payable under the agreement or child support order, the Recalculation Officer shall send, by regular mail, to the parties under the agreement or child support order a written notice that advises the parties of the refusal and of the reasons for the refusal.

Deemed receipt of notice

(6) A notice sent by regular mail in accordance with subsection (5) is deemed to be received by a party upon the expiration of seven days after the notice is mailed to the party.

Recalculation using income information of payor

7. (1) This subsection and subsection (2) apply where, at least 30 days prior to the anniversary date of an agreement or a child support order, the Child Support Services Office is provided with the income information of the payor by

- (a) the payor, if the agreement or child support order was made on or after September 6, 2003; or
- (b) the applicant, if the agreement or order was made before September 6, 2003.

Recalculation process

(2) The Recalculation Officer shall, before the anniversary date of an agreement or child support order, review and recalculate the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order in accordance with the applicable table by matching on the table the number of children under the age of majority to whom the agreement or child support order relates with the income of the payor, using the income information provided pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) Where, in respect of an agreement or a child support order made on or after September 6, 2003, the payor has not, at least 30 days before the anniversary date of the agreement or child support order, provided the Child Support Services Office with the income information required by the agreement or child support order, the Recalculation Officer shall review and recalculate the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order in accordance with the applicable table by matching on the table the number of children under the age of majority to whom the agreement or child support order relates with the deemed income of the payor, as determined in accordance with subsection (4).

Recalculation using deemed income of payor

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the income of the payor is deemed to be the sum of

Deemed income of payor

- (a) the payor's income for the most recent preceding year during which the Child Support Services Office was provided, in or pursuant to the agreement or child support order, with income information for the payor; and
- (b) 10 per cent of the payor's income referred to in clause (a).

(5) When reviewing and recalculating under this section the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order, the Recalculation Officer shall round the amount payable to the nearest dollar.

Rounding to nearest dollar

8. (1) Where, after recalculating the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order, the Recalculation Officer determines that the amount would increase or decrease by less than $5 per month, the Recalculation Officer

Notice - no change in amount payable

- (a) shall not issue a recalculation order in respect of the application; and
- (b) shall send a notice, by regular mail, to the parties to the agreement or child support order that advises that no change in the amount of child support is required.

(2) Where, after recalculating the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order the Recalculation Officer determines that the amount of child support would increase or decrease by $5 or more per month, the Recalculation Officer shall send, by regular mail, a written notice to the parties to the agreement or child support order that advises them of

Notice - change in amount payable

- (a) the recalculated amount;
- (b) the payor's obligation under section 11 to pay the recalculated amount;
- (c) the right of each party

(i) to make an application to the court under section 64 of the Act seeking a variation in the amount payable under the agreement or child support order; and

(ii) to file a notice of objection in the form approved by the Minister with the Child Support Services Office to preclude, subject to subsection 10(1), the issuance of a recalculation order for that recalculated amount; and

(d) the payor's right, in accordance with subsection 9(3), to object to the recalculation on the basis that the payor's income was less than the deemed income for the payor under subsection 7(4).

Deemed receipt of notice

(3) A notice sent by regular mail in accordance with this section is deemed to be received by a party upon the expiration of seven days after the notice is mailed to the party.

Notice of objection

9. (1) Where a party to an agreement or a child support order intends to make an application to the court under section 64 of the Act, the party may, within 30 days after receipt of a notice referred to in subsection 8(2), file with the court and the Recalculation Office a completed notice of objection in the form approved by the Minister that indicates that the party will, within 60 days of filing the notice of objection with the court and the Child Support Services Office,

(a) make the application to the court under section 64 of the Act for a variation of the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order;

(b) obtain a hearing date from the court for the application; and

(c) serve a copy of the application and a notice of the hearing date on the other party and the Recalculation Officer.

Recalculation order may not be issued

(2) Where a party, in accordance with subsection (1), files a notice of objection to a recalculation for the reason referred to in that subsection, the Recalculation Officer may not issue a recalculation order in respect of the matter until one of the circumstances described in section 10 occurs.

Objection relating to deemed income

(3) Where the payor's actual income for the immediately preceding year is less than the deemed income used by the Recalculation Officer for the recalculation, the payor may, within 30 days after the receipt of the notice referred to in subsection 8(2), object to the recalculation by filing with the court and the Recalculation Office

(a) a notice of objection in the form approved by the Minister, objecting to the recalculation on that basis; and

(b) a copy of the income information for the payor for the immediately preceding year.

Effect of new income information

(4) Where a payor, in accordance with subsection (3), files a notice of objection and the income information referred to in that subsection, the Recalculation Officer shall

- (a) recalculate, in accordance with subsections 7(2) and (5), the amount of child support payable using the income information provided by the payor; and
- (b) comply with the requirements of section 8.

10. (1) After sending to the parties to an agreement or a child support order the recalculation notice required by subsection 8(2), the Recalculation Officer shall make a recalculation order in respect of the recalculation where

Recalculation order

- (a) no party has, within 30 days after receipt of the notice of recalculation, filed a notice of objection under subsection 9(1) with the court and the Child Support Services Office; or
- (b) a party has, within 30 days after receipt of the notice of recalculation, filed a notice of objection under subsection 9(1) with the court and the Child Support Services Office, and the party has
 - (i) failed, within 60 days after filing the notice of objection with the court and the Child Support Service Office, to do or obtain any of the things referred to in clauses 7(1)(a) to (c),
 - (ii) withdrawn the application made under clause 9(1)(a), or
 - (iii) failed, within 120 days after filing the notice of objection with the court and the Child Support Services Office, to have a court hearing of the application made under clause 9(1)(a).

(2) A recalculation order made by the Recalculation Officer shall be made in writing and indicate

Requirements of recalculation order

- (a) the recalculated amount of child support;
- (b) the date the payor is liable, pursuant to section 11, to pay the recalculated amount; and
- (c) the relevant circumstances referred to in clause (1)(a) or (b) under which the recalculation order is issued.

(3) The Recalculation Officer shall

Recalculation order to be filed, etc.

- (a) file a copy of the recalculation order with the deputy registrar of the court;
- (b) send, by regular mail, a copy of the recalculation order to each of the parties; and
- (c) provide a copy of the recalculation order to the Director of Maintenance Enforcement.

(4) An order sent by regular mail in accordance with subsection (3) is deemed to be received by a party upon the expiration of seven days after the order is mailed to the party.

Deemed receipt of order

11. After a recalculation order has been made by the Recalculation Officer in respect of an agreement or a child support order, the payor under the agreement or child support order is liable to pay the recalculated amount of child support set out in the recalculation order on the date each month provided for in the agreement or child support order,

Obligation of payor

commencing the month immediately following the month during which the recalculation order is made.

Annual Review and Recalculation

- 12. (1) Subject to subsection (2), every year following the year in which a recalculation order is issued under subsection 10(1), or a notice is given under subsection 8(1), in respect of an agreement or a child support order, the Recalculation Officer shall, without application by a party, review and recalculate in accordance with section 13 the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order.
- (2) The Recalculation Officer shall cease to review and recalculate, in accordance with subsection (1), the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order following
- (a) the expiry of the payor's obligation under the agreement or child support order to pay the amount of child support; or
 - (b) the receipt by the Child Support Services Office of
 - (i) a court order made under section 64 of the Act, or
 - (ii) a copy of an agreement made by the parties that precludes the recalculation, in accordance with these regulations, of child support payable.
- 13. (1) This subsection and subsection (2) apply where, in respect of an agreement or child support order, the Child Support Services Office has been provided with the income information of the payor under the agreement or child support order at least 30 days before the anniversary date of the most recent
- (a) recalculation order, if any, that has been issued; or
 - (b) notice, if any, that has been sent under subsection 8(1).
- (2) The Recalculation Officer shall, before the anniversary date referred to in subsection (1), review and recalculate the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order in accordance with the applicable table by matching on the table the number of children under the age of majority to whom the agreement or child support order relates with the income of the payor, using the income information provided.
- (3) Where the Child Support Services Office has not been provided with the income information of the payor under an agreement or a child support order at least 30 days before the anniversary date referred to in subsection (1), the Recalculation Officer shall, before that anniversary date, review and recalculate the amount of child support payable under the agreement or child support order in accordance with the applicable table by matching on the table the number of children under the age of majority to whom the agreement or child support order relates with the deemed income of the payor, as determined in accordance with subsection (4).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the income of the payor is deemed to be the sum of

Deemed income of payor

(a) the payor's income for the most recent preceding year during which

(i) the Child Support Services Office was provided, in or pursuant to the agreement or child support order, with income information for the payor, or

(ii) a recalculation order was issued in respect of the agreement or child support order, as determined using that income information or the amount of the deemed income set out in that recalculation order, as the case may be; and

(b) 10 per cent of the payor's income referred to in clause (a).

(5) When reviewing and recalculating under this section the amount of child support payable under an agreement or a child support order, the Recalculation Officer shall round the amount payable to the nearest dollar.

Rounding to nearest dollar

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 authorizes the Minister to designate an employee of the Department as the Recalculation Officer and sets out the Recalculation Officer's authority, duties and powers.

SECTION 3 adopts the federal Guidelines as the guidelines governing the making of orders for child support under the Act, with the specified modifications.

SECTION 4 adopts the Federal Child Support Tables as specified.

SECTION 5 establishes the meaning of the specified terms in the context of the administrative recalculation of child support.

SECTION 6 provides for the application process for the administrative review and recalculation of child support payable under an agreement or child support order by the Recalculation Officer, including the circumstances in which the Recalculation Officer must refuse to review or recalculate the amount of child support payable. The Recalculation Officer must give notice to the parties of a refusal under the section.

SECTION 7 establishes the process for applying for review and recalculation where the income information of the payor has been provided as required under the section. Where the income information of the payor has not been provided, the section provides the process for calculating the payor's deemed income.

SECTION 8 requires notice to be provided to the parties of the results of the recalculation, as specified.

SECTION 9 requires a party to file a notice of objection where the party intends to make an application to the court under section 64 of the Act for variation of the amount of child support payable. On doing so, the issuance of a recalculation order is temporarily stayed. A payor may also file the notice of objection on the basis that the payor's actual income is less than the deemed income calculated under subsection 7(2), and in that case, where the payor also files the required income information, the Recalculation Officer shall recalculate the amount of child support payable in accordance with subsections 7(1) and (4) and give notice to the parties as required by section 8.

SECTION 10 authorizes the Recalculation Officer to make a recalculation order in the specified circumstances. The order must be in writing and filed and distributed as specified.

SECTION 11 provides that where a recalculation order has been made, the payor is liable to pay the recalculated amount of child support on the date each month specified in the agreement or child support order, beginning the month following the month in which the recalculation order was made.

SECTION 12 sets out the process for an annual review and recalculation of the amount payable in respect of an agreement or a child support order, and specifies the circumstances in which the annual reviews shall cease.

SECTION 13 establishes the process for the annual review and recalculation of the amount of child support payable where the income information of the payor has been provided as required under the section. Where the income information of the payor has not been provided, the section provides the process for calculating the payor's deemed income.

SECTION 14 requires notice to be provided to the parties of the results of the annual recalculation, as specified.

SECTION 15 requires a party to file a notice of objection, where the party intends to make an application to the court under section 64 of the Act for variation of the amount of child support payable. On doing so, the issuance of a recalculation order is temporarily stayed. A payor may also file the notice of objection on the basis that the payor's actual income is less than the deemed income calculated under subsection 13(2), and in that case, where the payor also files the required income information, the Recalculation Officer shall recalculate the amount of child support payable in accordance with subsections 13(1) and (4) and give notice to the parties as required by section 14.

SECTION 16 authorizes the Recalculation Officer to make a recalculation order in the specified circumstances. The order must be in writing and filed and distributed as specified.

SECTION 17 provides that where a recalculation order has been made, the payor is liable to pay the recalculated amount of child support on the date each month specified in the agreement or child support order, beginning the month following the month in which the recalculation order was made.

SECTION 18 provides that the specified time periods are temporarily suspended due to the state of public health emergency. The section is revoked 90 days after Order No. EC202-174 is terminated or expires without being continued under the Public Health Act.

SECTION 19 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

- (c) Mediation PEI;
- (d) the Canadian Institute of Conflict Resolution;

(e) the Department of Justice and Public Safety, Government of Prince Edward Island.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 provides that parenting coordinators are a class of dispute resolution professionals for the purposes of the Act. The section also authorizes persons who meet the requirements of the regulations to act as parenting coordinators and requires them to ensure that their practice as parenting coordinators complies with the regulations.

SECTION 3 authorizes the Minister to designate an employee of the Department as Registrar for the purpose of certifying qualified persons as parenting coordinators.

SECTION 4 sets out the application process for certification as a parenting coordinator and specifies certain requirements an applicant must meet.

SECTION 5 specifies the additional requirements, including insurance coverage, to be met by an applicant who is a member of the Law Society, a psychologist or psychological associate or a social worker, or who is not a member of any of those professions.

SECTION 6 authorizes the Registrar to issue a certificate to practice as a parenting coordinator to a qualified applicant. The holder of a certificate is required to notify the Registrar immediately if the holder's insurance coverage is allowed to lapse or is cancelled for any reason.

SECTION 7 authorizes the renewal of a holder's certificate to practice in the specified circumstances.

SECTION 8 requires that a parenting coordinator, before assisting the parties to a dispute, must enter into a parenting coordination contract with them and provide written confirmation to them that the parenting coordinator holds a valid and subsisting certificate to practice.

SECTION 9 specifies the limits of a parenting coordinator's authority to act. The section also provides that where a party refuses to enter into a parenting coordination contract, the court, on a motion by the other party, may draw an adverse inference against the party who refused and may find that party in contempt of court.

SECTION 10 provides that a parenting coordinator's authority to act in respect of a parenting coordination agreement or order is terminated two years after the agreement or order is made, unless terminated earlier as specified, subject to extension for no more than two additional years. The section also sets out the circumstances under which the parenting coordination agreement or order may be terminated at any time.

SECTION 11 requires the parties to provide information and the necessary authorization to the parenting coordinator in order to facilitate parenting coordination.

SECTION 12 sets out the ways in which a parenting coordinator is permitted to assist the parties to a dispute, and also sets out limits to the authority of the parenting coordinator. A determination of the parenting coordinator is binding on the parties and if filed with the court in accordance with the Act is enforceable under the Act.

SECTION 13 specifies the information a parenting coordinator must include in a written determination.

SECTION 14 lists the matters a parenting coordinator may make a determination in respect of, and also matters a parenting coordinator is not permitted to make a determination in respect of, for clarity.

SECTION 15 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
