Acquisition of Financial Assets or Interests in Them

16. (1) A person acquires a security or an interest in a security under this Act if

Acquisition of security or an interest in a security

(a) the person is a purchaser to whom a security is delivered under section 67; or

(b) the person acquires a security entitlement to the security under section 94.

(2) A person acquires a financial asset, other than a security, or an interest in such a financial asset under this Act if the person acquires a security entitlement to the financial asset.

Acquisition of a financial asset or interest in a financial asset

(3) A person who acquires a security entitlement to a security or other financial asset has the rights specified in Part 6, but is a purchaser of any security, security entitlement or other financial asset held by a securities intermediary only to the extent provided in section 96.

Person acquiring security entitlement,
rights and purchaser
status

(4) Unless the context of another statute, law, regulation, rule or agreement shows that a different meaning is intended, a person who is required by that statute, law, regulation, rule or agreement to transfer, deliver, present, surrender, exchange or otherwise put in the possession of another person a security or other financial asset satisfies that requirement by causing the other person to acquire an interest in the security or other financial asset as set out in subsection (1) or (2).

Division C

Notice of Adverse Claims

17. A person has notice of an adverse claim if

(a) the person knows of the adverse claim;

(b) the person is aware of facts sufficient to indicate that there is a significant probability that the adverse claim exists and deliberately

What constitutes notice of adverse claim

avoids information that would establish the existence of the adverse claim; or

(c) the person has a duty, imposed by statute or regulation, to investigate whether an adverse claim exists and the investigation, if carried out, would establish the existence of the adverse claim.

Knowledge of transfer imposes no duty of inquiry and is not notice

18. (1) Having knowledge that a financial asset, or an interest in a financial asset, is being or has been transferred by a representative does not impose any duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transaction and is not notice of an adverse claim.

Exception

(2) Despite subsection (1), a person has notice of an adverse claim if that person knows that

(a) a representative has transferred a financial asset, or an interest in a financial asset, in a transaction; and

(b) the transaction is, or the proceeds of the transaction are being used,

(i) for the individual benefit of the representative, or

(ii) otherwise in breach of a duty owed by the representative.

Delayed transfer, act or event constituting notice

19. An act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a security certificate, or that sets a date on or after which a security certificate is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, does not by itself constitute notice of an adverse claim except in the case of a transfer that takes place more than

(a) one year after a date set for presentation or surrender for redemption or exchange; or

(b) six months after a date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security certificate, if money was available for payment on that date.

Purchaser of certificated security, notice of adverse claim

20. (1) A purchaser of a certificated security has notice of an adverse claim if the security certificate

(a) whether in bearer form or registered form, has been endorsed “for collection” or “for surrender” or for some other purpose not involving a transfer; or

(b) is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor.

Exception

(2) For the purposes of clause (1)(b), the mere writing of a name on a security certificate does not by itself constitute an unambiguous statement that the security certificate is the property of a person other than the transferor.

21. The registration of a financing statement under the Personal Property Security Act is not notice of an adverse claim.

Registration of financing statement under Personal Property Security Act, not notice

Endorsements, Instructions and Entitlement Orders

Effectiveness of endorsement,
instruction or entitlement order

28. An endorsement, instruction or entitlement order is effective if

- (a) it is made by the appropriate person;
- (b) it is made by a person who, in the case of an endorsement or instruction, has the power under the law of agency to transfer the security, or in the case of an entitlement order, has the power under the law of agency to transfer the financial asset, on behalf of the appropriate person, including,
 - (i) in the case of an instruction referred to in clause 23(1)(b), the person who has control of the uncertificated security, or
 - (ii) in the case of an entitlement order referred to in clause 24(1)(b), the person who has control of the security entitlement;

or

(c) the appropriate person has ratified it or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness.

29. An endorsement, instruction or entitlement order made by a representative is effective even if

(a) the representative has failed to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the jurisdiction governing the representative's rights and duties, including any law requiring the representative to obtain court approval of the transaction; or

(b) the representative's action in making the endorsement, instruction or entitlement order or using the proceeds of the transaction is otherwise a breach of duty owed by the representative.

Effectiveness of endorsement, instruction or entitlement order made by representative

30. Where a security is registered in the name of or specially endorsed to a person described as a representative, or if a securities account is maintained in the name of a person described as a representative, an endorsement, instruction or entitlement order made by the person is effective even if the person is no longer serving in that capacity.

Continuing effect of endorsement, instruction or entitlement order made by representative

31. (1) The effectiveness of an endorsement, instruction or entitlement order is determined as of the date that the endorsement, instruction or entitlement order is made.

Date when effectiveness is determined

(2) An endorsement, instruction or entitlement order does not become ineffective by reason of any later change of circumstances.

Changes of circumstances, effect

Division F Warranties Applicable to Direct Holdings

32. A person who transfers a certificated security to a purchaser for value warrants to the purchaser and, where the transfer is by endorsement, also warrants to any subsequent purchaser, that

(a) the security certificate is genuine and has not been materially altered;

(b) the transferor does not know of any fact that might impair the validity of the security;

(c) there is no adverse claim to the security;

(d) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer;

(e) the endorsement is made by the appropriate person or, if the endorsement is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and

(f) the transfer is otherwise effective and rightful.

Warranties to purchaser on transfer of certificated security

- (e) where any other case, the jurisdiction under which the issuer is incorporated or otherwise organized or, where permitted by the law of that jurisdiction, another jurisdiction specified by the issuer.

Laws governing validity of a security

(2) The validity of a security is governed by the following laws:

- (a) where the issuer is incorporated under a law of Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of Canada;
- (b) where the issuer is the Crown in right of Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of Canada;
- (c) where the issuer is the Crown in right of a province in Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the province;
- (d) where the issuer is the Commissioner of a territory in Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the territory;
- (e) in any other case, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the jurisdiction under which the issuer is incorporated or otherwise organized.

Law of issuer's
jurisdiction, matters governed by

(3) The law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the issuer's jurisdiction governs

- (a) the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to the registration of transfer;
- (b) the effectiveness of the registration of transfer by the issuer;
- (c) whether the issuer owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security; and
- (d) whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person
 - (i) to whom the transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security is registered, or
 - (ii) who obtains control of an uncertificated security.

(4) The following issuers may specify the law of another jurisdiction as the law governing the matters referred to in clauses (3)(a) to (d):

Issuer's jurisdiction, exceptions

- (a) an issuer incorporated or otherwise organized under the law of Prince Edward Island;
- (b) the Crown in right of Prince Edward Island.

(5) Whether a security is enforceable against an issuer despite a defence or defect described in sections 56 to 58 is governed by the following laws:

Laws determining enforceability of a security against an issuer

- (a) where the issuer is incorporated under a law of Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the province or territory in Canada in which the issuer has its registered or head office;
- (b) where the issuer is the Crown in right of Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the issuer's jurisdiction;
- (c) where the issuer is the Crown in right of a province in Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the province;
- (d) where the issuer is the Commissioner of a territory in Canada, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the territory;
- (e) in any other case, the law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the jurisdiction under which the issuer is incorporated or otherwise organized.

44. (1) In this section "securities intermediary's jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction determined in accordance with the following rules:

Definition, "securities intermediary's jurisdiction"

- (a) where an agreement between a securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction for the purposes of the law of that jurisdiction, this Act or any provision of this Act, the jurisdiction expressly provided for is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction;
- (b) where clause (a) does not apply and an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that the agreement is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction;

(c) where neither clause (a) nor (b) applies and an agreement between a securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that the securities account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction;

(d) where none of the preceding clauses applies, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the entitlement holder's account is located;

(e) where none of the preceding clauses applies, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the chief executive office of the securities intermediary is located.

Determination of securities intermediary's jurisdiction, matters not to be considered

(2) In determining a securities intermediary's jurisdiction, the following matters are not to be taken into account:

- (a) the physical location of certificates representing financial assets;
- (b) where an entitlement holder has a security entitlement with respect to a financial asset, the jurisdiction in which the issuer of the financial asset is incorporated or otherwise organized;
- (c) the location of facilities for data processing or other record keeping concerning the securities account.

Law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, matters governed by

(3) The law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction governs

- (a) acquisition of a security entitlement from the securities intermediary;
- (b) the rights and duties of the securities intermediary and entitlement holder arising out of a security entitlement;
- (c) whether the securities intermediary owes any duty to a person who has an adverse claim to a security entitlement; and
- (d) whether an adverse claim may be asserted against a person who
 - (i) acquires a security entitlement from the securities intermediary, or
 - (ii) purchases a security entitlement, or interest in it, from an entitlement holder.

Adverse claim governed by law of jurisdiction in which security certificate located

45. The law, other than the conflict of law rules, of the jurisdiction in which a security certificate is located at the time of delivery governs whether an adverse claim may be asserted against a person to whom the security certificate is delivered.

Securities Intermediaries — Liability and Status as Purchasers for Value

Securities intermediary's liability to adverse claimant on transfer of financial asset

53. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a securities intermediary that has transferred a financial asset in accordance with an effective entitlement order is not liable to a person having an adverse claim to, or a security interest in, the financial asset.

Broker's liability to adverse claimant on dealing with financial asset

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a broker or other agent or bailee who has dealt with a financial asset at the direction of a customer or principal is not liable to a person having an adverse claim to, or a security interest in, the financial asset.

Liability of securities intermediary and broker to adverse claimant, circumstances

(3) A securities intermediary referred to in subsection (1) or a broker or other agent or bailee referred to in subsection (2) is liable to a person having an adverse claim to, or a security interest in, the financial asset if the securities intermediary, broker or other agent or bailee, as the case may be, did one or more of the following:

- (a) took the action described in subsection (1) or (2) after having been served with an injunction, restraining order or other legal process issued by a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining the securities intermediary, broker or other agent or bailee, as the case may be, from doing so and after having had a reasonable opportunity to obey or otherwise abide by the injunction, restraining order or other legal process;
- (b) acted in collusion with the wrongdoer in violating the rights of the person who has the adverse claim or the person who has the security interest;

(c) in the case of a security certificate that has been stolen, acted with notice of the adverse claim.

54. (1) A securities intermediary that receives a financial asset and establishes a security entitlement to the financial asset in favour of an entitlement holder is a purchaser for value of the financial asset.

Securities intermediary as purchaser for value of financial asset

(2) A securities intermediary that acquires a security entitlement to a financial asset from another securities intermediary acquires the security entitlement for value if the securities intermediary acquiring the security entitlement establishes a security entitlement to the financial asset in favour of an entitlement holder.

Acquisition of security entitlement to financial asset for value

PART 3 ISSUE AND ISSUER

55. (1) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a certificated security include

Terms of certificated security

- (a) the terms stated on the security certificate; and
- (b) any terms made part of the security by reference on the security certificate to another instrument, indenture or other document or to a statute, regulation, rule, order or the like, to the extent that those terms do not conflict with the terms stated on the security certificate.

(2) A reference described in clause (1)(b) does not by itself constitute notice to a purchaser for value of a defect that goes to the validity of the security, even if the security certificate expressly states that a person accepting it admits notice.

Reference on security certificate is not notice of defect

(3) The terms of an uncertificated security include those stated in any instrument, indenture or other document or in a statute, regulation, rule, order or the like under which the security is issued.

Terms of uncertificated security

56. (1) An unauthorized signature placed on a security certificate before or in the course of issue is ineffective except that the signature is effective in favour of a purchaser for value of the certificated security if the purchaser is without notice of the lack of authority and the signing has been done by

Enforcement of security

- (a) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security certificate or of any similar security certificate or with the immediate preparation for signing of any of those security certificates; or
- (b) an employee of the issuer, or of any persons referred to in clause (a), entrusted with responsible handling of the security certificate.

Enforcement if defect re validity

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), a security issued with a defect going to its validity is enforceable against the issuer if held by a purchaser for value and without notice of the defect.

Application of subsection (2) re
government security

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a security issued by a government or agency of it unless

- (a) there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue; or
- (b) the issuer has received all or a substantial part of the consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and the purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

Lack of genuineness
of certificated
security

57. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 56, lack of genuineness of a certificated security is a complete defence, even against a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of genuineness.

Other defences

58. All other defences of the issuer of a security that are not referred to in sections 55 to 57, including non-delivery and conditional delivery of a security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken the security without notice of the particular defence.

Right to cancel
contract

59. Nothing in sections 55 to 58 affects the right of a party to a “when, as and if issued” contract or a “when distributed” contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security that is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement under which the security is to be issued or distributed.

Staleness deemed to be notice of defect
or defence

60. (1) After an act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or that sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is deemed to have notice of any defect in the security’s issue or of any defence of the issuer

(a) if

- (i) the act or event requires that, on presentation or surrender of the security certificate, money be paid, a certificated security be delivered or a transfer of an uncertificated security be registered,
- (ii) the money or security is available on the date set for payment or exchange, and
- (iii) the purchaser takes delivery of the security more than one year after the date referred to in subclause (ii); or

(b) if

- (i) the act or event is not one to which clause (a) applies, and
- (ii) the purchaser takes delivery of the security more than two years after the date on which performance became due or the date set for presentation or surrender.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a call that has been revoked.

Application of subsection (1)

61. A restriction on the transfer of a security imposed by the issuer, even if otherwise lawful, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction unless

Effect of issuer's restriction on transfer

- (a) the security is a certificated security and the restriction is noted conspicuously on the security certificate; or
- (b) the security is an uncertificated security and the registered owner has been given a notice of the restriction by a person required to give such notice in order to make the restriction effective.

62. (1) Where a security certificate contains the signatures necessary to the security's issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect,

Completion of security certificate

- (a) any person may complete the security certificate by filling in the blanks in accordance with the person's authority; and
- (b) even if any of the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security certificate as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took the security certificate for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

(2) A complete security certificate that has been improperly altered, even if fraudulently, remains enforceable, but only according to its original terms.

Enforcement of improperly altered
security certificate

63. (1) Before due presentation for registration of transfer of a certificated security in registered form or the receipt of an instruction requesting registration of transfer of an uncertificated security, an issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled

Rights and duties of issuer re registered owners

- (a) to vote;
- (b) to receive notices;
- (c) to receive any interest, dividend or other payments; and
- (d) to otherwise exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(2) Nothing in this Act affects the liability of the registered owner of a security for a call, an assessment or the like.

Registered owner of security, liability for call or assessment

64. (1) A person signing a security certificate as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like warrants to a purchaser for value of the certificated security, if the purchaser is without notice of a particular defect in respect of that security, that

Warranties by person signing
security certificate

- (a) the security certificate is genuine;
- (b) the person's own participation in the issue of the security is within the person's capacity and within the scope of the authority received by the person from the issuer; and

(c) the person has reasonable grounds to believe that the certificated security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

Responsibility of person signing security certificate

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, a person signing a security certificate under subsection (1) does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in any respect other than that set out in subsection (1).

Issuer's lien

65. A lien in favour of an issuer on a certificated security is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to the lien is noted conspicuously on the security certificate.

Enforcement provisions, application if overissue results

66. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), the provisions of this Act that make a security enforceable against an issuer despite a defence or defect or that compel a security's issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that the application of such provision would result in an overissue.

Identical security, purchase and delivery if not overissue

(2) Where an identical security not constituting an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, a person entitled to issue of a security, or a person entitled to enforce a security against an issuer despite a defence or defect as provided under section 56, 57 or 58 or under a similar law of another jurisdiction, may compel the issuer to purchase the security and deliver it, if certificated, or register its transfer, if uncertificated, against surrender of any security certificate the person holds.

Price recovery if identical security not available

(3) Where an identical security not constituting an overissue is not reasonably available for purchase, a person entitled to issue of a security, or a person entitled to enforce a security against an issuer despite a defence or defect as provided under section 56, 57 or 58 or under a similar law of another jurisdiction, may recover from the issuer the price that the last purchaser for value paid for the security with interest from the date of the person's demand.

Deemed not to have occurred if cured

(4) An overissue is deemed not to have occurred if appropriate action has cured the overissue.

TRANSFER OF CERTIFICATED AND UNCERTIFICATED
SECURITIES
Division A
Delivery and Rights of Purchaser

Delivery of certificated security to purchaser

67. (1) Delivery of a certificated security to a purchaser occurs when
(a) the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate;
(b) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either

- (i) acquires possession of the security certificate on behalf of the purchaser, or
- (ii) having previously acquired possession of the security certificate, acknowledges that the person holds the security certificate for the purchaser; or
- (c) a securities intermediary acting on behalf of the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate, the security certificate is in registered form and the security certificate is
 - (i) registered in the name of the purchaser,
 - (ii) payable to the order of the purchaser, or
 - (iii) specially endorsed to the purchaser by an effective endorsement and has not been endorsed to the securities intermediary or in blank.

- (2) Delivery of an uncertificated security to a purchaser occurs when
- (a) the issuer registers the purchaser as the registered owner, on the original issue or the registration of transfer; or
 - (b) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either
 - (i) becomes the registered owner of the uncertificated security on behalf of the purchaser, or
 - (ii) having previously become the registered owner, acknowledges that the person holds the uncertificated security for the purchaser.

Delivery of uncertificated security to purchaser

68. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), a purchaser of a certificated or uncertificated security acquires all rights in the security that the transferor had or had power to transfer.

Rights of purchaser of certificated or uncertificated
security

(2) A purchaser of a limited interest in a security acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

Idem

(3) A purchaser of a certificated security who as a previous holder had notice of an adverse claim does not improve that purchaser's position by virtue of taking from a protected purchaser.

Idem

69. A protected purchaser, in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser, also acquires the purchaser's interest in the security free of any adverse claim.

Protected purchaser
free from adverse claims

Division B Endorsements and Instructions

70. (1) An endorsement may be in blank or special.

Form of
endorsement

(2) An endorsement in blank includes an endorsement to bearer.

Endorsement in blank
Special
endorsement

(3) For an endorsement to be a special endorsement, the endorsement must specify to whom the security is to be transferred or who has power to transfer the security.

Conversion of endorsement in blank to special endorsement
Endorsement of part of a security certificate, effect

(4) A holder may convert an endorsement in blank to a special endorsement.

71. An endorsement of a security certificate, if the endorsement purports to be in respect of only some of the units represented by the certificate, is effective to the extent of the endorsement if the units are intended by the issuer to be separately transferable.

When endorsement of security certificate constitutes transfer

72. An endorsement of a security certificate, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer of the security

- (a) until the delivery of the security certificate on which the endorsement appears; or
- (b) where the endorsement is on a separate document, until the delivery of both the security certificate and the document on which the endorsement appears.

Endorsement missing

73. Where a security certificate in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement, the purchaser may become a protected purchaser only when the endorsement is supplied, but against the transferor, the transfer is complete on delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied.

Notice of adverse claim on endorsement

74. A purported endorsement of a security certificate in bearer form may constitute notice of an adverse claim to the security certificate, but the purported endorsement does not otherwise affect any right that the holder has.

Obligations of endorser

75. Unless otherwise agreed, a person making an endorsement makes only the warranties set out in sections 32 and 34 and does not warrant that the security will be honoured by the issuer.

Completion of instruction

76. Where an instruction has been originated by the appropriate person but is incomplete in any other respect, any person may complete the instruction in accordance with the person's authority and the issuer may rely on the instruction as completed, even if it has been completed incorrectly.

Obligations of person originating an instruction

77. Unless otherwise agreed, a person originating an instruction makes only the warranties set out in sections 33 and 35 and does not warrant that the security will be honoured by the issuer.

Division C

Signature Guarantees and Other Requisites for Registration of Transfer

- 78. A person who guarantees a signature of an endorser of a security certificate warrants that, at the time of signing, Warranties by guarantor of endorser's signature
- (a) the signature was genuine;
 - (b) the signer was the appropriate person to endorse or, if the signature is by an agent, the agent had actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and
 - (c) the signer had legal capacity to sign.
- 79. (1) A person who guarantees a signature of the originator of an instruction warrants that, at the time of signing, Warranties by guarantor of signature of originator of instruction
- (a) the signature was genuine;
 - (b) where the person specified in the instruction as being the registered owner was, in fact, the registered owner, the signer was the appropriate person to originate the instruction or, where the signature is by an agent, the agent had actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and
 - (c) the signer had legal capacity to sign.
- (2) A person who guarantees a signature of the originator of an instruction does not by that guarantee warrant that the person who is specified in the instruction as the registered owner is in fact the registered owner. Idem
- 80. A person who specially guarantees the signature of an originator of an instruction makes the warranties of a signature guarantor under section 79 and also warrants that, at the time that the instruction is presented to the issuer, Warranties by special guarantor of signature of originator of instruction
- (a) the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner of the uncertificated security will be the registered owner; and
 - (b) the transfer of the uncertificated security requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions and claims other than those specified in the instruction.
- 81. (1) A guarantor under section 78 or 79 or a special guarantor under section 81 does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the transfer. Warranty re rightfulness of transfer by guarantor
- (2) A person who guarantees an endorsement of a security certificate makes the warranties of a signature guarantor under section 78 and also warrants the rightfulness of the transfer in all respects. Warranties of guarantor of endorsement
- (3) A person who guarantees an instruction that requests the transfer of an uncertificated security makes the warranties of a special guarantor Warranties of guarantor of instruction re transfer under section 80 and also warrants the rightfulness of the transfer in all respects.

Guarantee may not be condition to registration of transfer

82. An issuer shall not require a special guarantee of signature, a guarantee of endorsement or a guarantee of instruction as a condition to the registration of transfer.

Liability of guarantor

83. (1) The warranties under sections 78 to 81 are made to a person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to the person for any loss resulting from any breach of those warranties.

Liability of endorser or originator of an instruction

(2) An endorser or an originator of an instruction whose signature, endorsement or instruction has been guaranteed is liable to a guarantor for any loss suffered by the guarantor resulting from any breach of the warranties of the guarantor.

Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer

84. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, the transferor of a security shall, on demand, supply the purchaser with proof of authority to transfer or with any other requisite necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security.

Exception

(2) Despite subsection (1), where the transfer is not for value, a transferor need not comply with a demand made under subsection (1) unless the purchaser pays the necessary expenses.

When purchaser may reject or rescind transfer

(3) Where the transferor fails within a reasonable time to comply with the demand made under subsection (1), the purchaser may reject or rescind the transfer.

PART 5 REGISTRATION

Duty of issuer to register transfer

85. (1) Where a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register a transfer of the certificated security or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register a transfer of an uncertificated security, the issuer shall register the transfer as requested if

- (a) under the terms of the security, the proposed transferee is eligible to have the security registered in that person's name;
- (b) the endorsement or instruction is made by the appropriate person or by an agent who has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person;
- (c) reasonable assurance is given that the endorsement or instruction is genuine and authorized;
- (d) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with;

- (e) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer imposed by statute or by the issuer in accordance with section 61;
- (f) in the case of a demand made under section 87 that the issuer not register a transfer,
 - (i) the demand has not become effective under section 87, or
 - (ii) the issuer has complied with section 87, but legal process has not been obtained or an indemnity bond has not been provided to the issuer in accordance with section 89; and
- (g) the transfer is rightful or is to a protected purchaser.

(2) Where, under subsection (1), an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security, the issuer is liable to a person presenting a certificated security or an instruction for registration, or to that person's principal, for any loss resulting from unreasonable delay in registration or the failure or refusal to register the transfer.

Issuer's liability on failure to register transfer of security

86. (1) In this section

Definitions

- (a) "appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" means
 - (i) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a document issued by or under the direction or supervision of the court or an officer of the court and dated within 60 days before the date of presentation for transfer, and
 - (ii) in any other case,
 - (A) a copy of a document showing the appointment,
 - (B) a certificate certifying the appointment issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be a responsible person, or
 - (C) in the absence of a document or certificate referred to in paragraph (A) or (B), other evidence that the issuer reasonably considers appropriate;

appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency

(b) "fiduciary" means any person acting in a fiduciary capacity, and includes a personal representative acting for the estate of a deceased person;

fiduciary

(c) "guarantee" means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be a responsible person.

guarantee

(2) For the purposes of the definition "guarantee" in subsection (1), an issuer may adopt any standards with respect to responsibility so long as those standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

Standards re responsibility, adoption by issuer

(3) An issuer may require the following assurances that each necessary endorsement or each instruction is genuine and authorized:

Assurances that may be required re necessary endorsements or instructions

- (a) in all cases, a guarantee of the signature of the person making the endorsement or originating the instruction, including, in the case of an instruction, reasonable assurance of identity;

- (b) where the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by an agent, appropriate assurance of actual authority to act;
- (c) where the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a fiduciary or successor referred to in subclause 1(1)(b)(iv) or (v), appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;
- (d) where there is more than one fiduciary or successor referred to in subclause 1(1)(b)(iv) or (v), reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so;
- (e) where the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a person not referred to in clause (b), (c) or (d), assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the assurance required by clause (b), (c) or (d).

Issuer may elect to require further reasonable assurance

(4) An issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section.

Demand that issuer not register transfer

87. (1) A person who is the appropriate person to make an endorsement or to originate an instruction may demand that the issuer not register a transfer of a security by communicating a notice to the issuer setting out

- (a) the identity of the registered owner;
- (b) the issue of which the security is a part; and
- (c) an address of the person making the demand to which communications may be sent.

When demand effective

(2) A demand made under subsection (1) becomes effective when the issuer has had a reasonable opportunity to act on the demand, having regard to the time and manner of receipt of the demand by the issuer.

Duty of issuer re demand not to register transfer

88. (1) Where, after a demand made under section 87 becomes effective, a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register a transfer or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register a transfer of an uncertificated security, the issuer shall promptly give a notice as described in subsection (2) to the following persons:

- (a) the person who initiated the demand, at the address provided in the demand;
- (b) the person who presented the security for the registration of transfer or originated the instruction requesting the registration of transfer.

Notice of demand not to register transfer, contents

(2) A notice given by an issuer under subsection (1) shall state

- (a) that the certificated security has been presented for the registration of transfer or the instruction for the registration of transfer of the uncertificated security has been received;

- (b) that a demand that the issuer not register a transfer had previously been received; and
- (c) that the issuer will withhold registration of transfer for a period of time stated in the notice in order to provide the person who initiated the demand an opportunity to obtain legal process or to provide an indemnity bond referred to in section 89.

(3) The period of time that may be provided for under clause (2)(c) shall not exceed 30 days from the date the notice was given and the issuer may specify a shorter period of time in the notice so long as the shorter period of time being specified is not manifestly unreasonable.

Period of time registration may be withheld

89. (1) An issuer is not liable, to a person who initiated a demand under section 87 that the issuer not register a transfer, for any loss that the person suffers as a result of the registration of a transfer in accordance with an effective endorsement or instruction if the person who initiated the demand does not, within the time stated in the issuer's notice given under section 88, either

Issuer's liability re demand not to register transfer

- (a) obtain an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process from a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining the issuer from registering the transfer; or
- (b) provide the issuer with an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the issuer involved from any loss that those persons may suffer by refusing to register the transfer.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) or in section 87 or 88 relieves an issuer from liability for registering a transfer under an endorsement or instruction that was not effective.

Issuer's liability for registering transfer with ineffective endorsement or instruction

90. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 92, an issuer is liable for wrongful registration of transfer if

Issuer liable for wrongful registration of transfer, circumstances

- (a) the issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to the security; and
- (b) the transfer was registered by the issuer
 - (i) under an ineffective endorsement or instruction,
 - (ii) after a demand that the issuer not register a transfer became effective under section 87 and the issuer did not comply with section 88,
 - (iii) after the issuer had been served with an injunction, restraining order or other legal process referred to in section 90 enjoining the issuer from registering the transfer and the issuer had a reasonable opportunity to obey or otherwise abide by the injunction, restraining order or other legal process, or
 - (iv) acting in collusion with the wrongdoer.

Issuer's extent of liability on wrongful registration

(2) An issuer that is liable for the wrongful registration of transfer under subsection (1) shall, on demand, provide the person entitled to the security with

- (a) a like certificated or uncertificated security, as the case may be; and
- (b) any payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful registration.

Idem

(3) Where the provision of a security under subsection (2) would result in an overissue, the issuer's liability to provide the person with a like security is governed by section 66.

Issuer not liable to owner re loss on registration

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (1) or in any applicable law of Canada or of any province or territory of Canada relating to the collection of taxes, an issuer is not liable to an owner or other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of transfer of a security if the registration was made under an effective endorsement or instruction.

Replacement of security certificate, by issuer, circumstances

91. (1) Where an owner of a certificated security, whether in registered form or bearer form, claims that the security certificate has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new security certificate if the owner

- (a) so requests before the issuer has notice that the lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken security certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser;
- (b) provides the issuer with an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer from any loss that the issuer may suffer by issuing a new certificate; and
- (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

Presentation of original security certificate after issuance of replacement

(2) Where, after the issue of a new security certificate, a protected purchaser of the original security certificate presents the original security certificate for the registration of transfer, the issuer

- (a) shall register the transfer unless the registration would result in an overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 66;
- (b) may exercise the rights the issuer may have under the indemnity bond referred to in clause (1)(b); and
- (c) may recover the new security certificate from a person to whom it was issued or from any person, other than a protected purchaser, taking under that person.

Obligation to notify issuer

92. An owner of a security may not assert against the issuer a claim for wrongful registration of transfer under section 90 or a claim to a new security certificate under section 91 if

(a) a security certificate has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken and the owner fails to give a notice to the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it; and

(b) the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving a notice of the loss, apparent destruction or wrongful taking of the security certificate.

93. A person acting as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other agent for an issuer in the registration of a transfer of the issuer's securities, in the issue of new security certificates or uncertificated securities or in the cancellation of surrendered security certificates has the same obligation to the holder or owner of a certificated or uncertificated security with regard to the particular function performed as the issuer has in regard to that function.

Obligation of trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other agent

PART 6 SECURITY ENTITLEMENTS

94. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4), a person acquires a security entitlement if a securities intermediary

Acquisition of security entitlement

(a) indicates by book entry that a financial asset has been credited to the person's securities account;

(b) receives a financial asset from the person or acquires a financial asset for the person and, in either case, accepts it for credit to the person's securities account; or

(c) becomes obligated under another statute, law, regulation or rule to credit a financial asset to the person's securities account.

(2) Where a condition of subsection (1) has been met, a person has a security entitlement even if the securities intermediary does not itself hold the financial asset.

Idem

(3) A person is to be treated as holding a financial asset directly rather than as having a security entitlement with respect to the financial asset if a securities intermediary holds the financial asset for that person and the financial asset

Financial asset held directly, circumstances

(a) is registered in the name of, payable to the order of or specially endorsed to that person; and

(b) has not been endorsed to the securities intermediary or in blank.

(4) Issuance of a security is not establishment of a security entitlement.

Security entitlement not established by issuance of security

95. A legal proceeding based on an adverse claim to a financial asset, however framed, may not be brought against a person who acquires a

Protection of entitlement holders from adverse claim security entitlement under section 94 for value and without notice of the adverse claim.

Property interest of entitlement holders in interests held by securities
intermediary

96. (1) To the extent necessary for a securities intermediary to satisfy all security entitlements with respect to a particular financial asset, all interests in that financial asset held by the securities intermediary

- (a) are held by the securities intermediary for the entitlement holders;
- (b) are not the property of the securities intermediary; and
- (c) are not subject to claims of creditors of the securities intermediary, except as otherwise provided in section 104.

Proportionate
property interest of
entitlement holder
in financial asset

(2) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (1) is a proportionate property interest in all interests in that financial asset held by the securities intermediary, without regard to

- (a) the time that the entitlement holder acquired the security entitlement; or
- (b) the time that the securities intermediary acquired the interest in that financial asset.

Enforcement of
property interest
against securities
intermediary

(3) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (1) may be enforced against the securities intermediary only by the exercise of the entitlement holder's rights under sections 98 to 101.

Enforcement of
property interest
against purchaser

(4) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (1) may be enforced against a purchaser of the financial asset, or interest in it, only if

- (a) bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings have been initiated by or against the securities intermediary;
- (b) the securities intermediary does not have sufficient interests in the financial asset to satisfy the security entitlements of all of its entitlement holders to that financial asset;
- (c) the securities intermediary violated its obligations under section 97 by transferring the financial asset, or interest in it, to the purchaser; and
- (d) the purchaser is not protected under subsection (7).

Enforcement by trustee or liquidator
against purchaser

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a trustee or other liquidator acting on behalf of all entitlement holders having security entitlements with respect to a particular financial asset may recover the financial asset, or interest in it, from the purchaser.

Enforcement by
entitlement holder
against purchaser

(6) Where the trustee or other liquidator elects not to pursue the right provided under subsection (5), an entitlement holder whose security entitlement remains unsatisfied has the right to recover the entitlement holder's interest in the financial asset from the purchaser.

(7) A legal proceeding based on the entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (1), however framed, may not be brought against any purchaser of a financial asset, or interest in it, who

Purchaser exempt from enforcement proceedings

- (a) gives value;
- (b) obtains control or possession; and
- (c) does not act in collusion with the securities intermediary in violating the securities intermediary's obligations under section 97.

97. (1) A securities intermediary shall promptly obtain and then maintain a financial asset in a quantity corresponding to the aggregate of all security entitlements that the securities intermediary has established in favour of its entitlement holders with respect to that financial asset.

Duty of securities intermediary re financial asset

(2) The securities intermediary may maintain the financial asset referred to in subsection (1) directly or through one or more other securities intermediaries.

Direct or indirect maintenance of financial asset by securities intermediary

(3) Except to the extent otherwise agreed to by its entitlement holder, a securities intermediary may not grant any security interests in a financial asset it is obligated to maintain under subsection (1).

Security interests in financial asset, restriction on granting

(4) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty imposed under subsection (1) if

Satisfaction of duty imposed under subsection (1)

- (a) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed to by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or
- (b) in the absence of an agreement referred to in clause (a), the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to obtain and maintain the financial asset.

(5) This section does not apply to a clearing agency that is itself the obligor of an option or similar obligation to which its entitlement holders have security entitlements.

Application of section to clearing agency

98. (1) A securities intermediary shall take action to obtain a payment or distribution made by the issuer of a financial asset.

Duty of securities intermediary re payments and distributions
Idem

(2) A securities intermediary is obligated to its entitlement holder for a payment or distribution made by the issuer of a financial asset if the payment or distribution is received by the securities intermediary.

(3) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty imposed under subsection (1) if

Idem

- (a) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed to by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or
- (b) in the absence of an agreement referred to in clause (a), the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to attempt to obtain the payment or distribution.

Duty of securities intermediary to exercise rights on direction

99. (1) A securities intermediary shall exercise rights with respect to a financial asset if directed to do so by an entitlement holder.

Satisfaction of duty imposed under subsection (1)

(2) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty imposed under subsection (1) if

- (a) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed to by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or
- (b) in the absence of an agreement referred to in clause (a), the securities intermediary either
 - (i) places the entitlement holder in a position to exercise the rights directly, or
 - (ii) exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

Duty of securities intermediary to comply with entitlement order

100. (1) A securities intermediary shall comply with an entitlement order if

- (a) the entitlement order is originated by the appropriate person;
- (b) the securities intermediary has had a reasonable opportunity to assure itself that the entitlement order is genuine and authorized; and
- (c) the securities intermediary has had a reasonable opportunity to comply with the entitlement order.

Duties of securities intermediary on transfer under ineffective entitlement order

(2) Where a securities intermediary transfers a financial asset under an ineffective entitlement order, the securities intermediary shall

- (a) re-establish a security entitlement in favour of the person entitled to it; and
- (b) pay or credit any payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful transfer.

Liability

(3) Where a securities intermediary does not re-establish a security entitlement in accordance with subsection (2), the securities intermediary is liable to the entitlement holder for damages.

Satisfaction of duty imposed under subsection (1)

(4) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty imposed under subsection (1) if

- (a) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed to by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(b) in the absence of an agreement referred to in clause (a), the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to comply with the entitlement order.

101. (1) A securities intermediary shall act at the direction of an entitlement holder

Duty of securities intermediary re entitlement holder's direction

(a) to change a security entitlement into another available form of holding for which the entitlement holder is eligible; or

(b) to cause the financial asset to be transferred to a securities account of the entitlement holder with another securities intermediary.

(2) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty imposed under subsection (1) if

Satisfaction of duty imposed under subsection (1)

(a) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed to by the entitlement holder and the securities intermediary; or

(b) in the absence of an agreement referred to in clause (a), the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

102. (1) Where the substance of a duty imposed on a securities intermediary under section 97, 98, 99, 100 or 101 is the subject of another statute, regulation or rule, compliance with that other statute, regulation or rule satisfies the duty.

Duties of securities intermediary and compliance with other statutes, regulations or rules

(2) The obligation of a securities intermediary to perform the duties imposed under sections 97 to 101 is subject to

Securities intermediary's rights, effect on duties

(a) the rights of the securities intermediary arising out of a security interest, whether that security interest arises under a security agreement with the entitlement holder or otherwise; and

(b) the rights of the securities intermediary under another statute, law, regulation, rule or agreement to withhold performance of its duties as a result of unfulfilled obligations of the entitlement holder to the securities intermediary.

(3) Nothing in sections 97 to 101 requires a securities intermediary to take any action that is prohibited by another statute, regulation or rule.

Actions prohibited by another statute, regulation or rule

(4) To the extent that specific standards for the performance of any duties of a securities intermediary or the exercise of the rights of an entitlement holder are not specified by another statute, regulation or rule or by agreement between the securities intermediary and the entitlement holder, the securities intermediary shall perform its duties and the entitlement holder shall exercise the entitlement holder's rights in a commercially reasonable manner.

Standards of performance for securities intermediary and entitlement holder

Purchase of security entitlement or financial asset exempt from adverse claim

103. (1) In a case not covered by the priority rules under the Personal Property Security Act or the rules set out in subsection (3), a legal proceeding based on an adverse claim to a financial asset or a security entitlement, however framed, may not be brought against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or interest in it, from an entitlement holder if that purchaser

- (a) gives value;
- (b) does not have notice of the adverse claim; and
- (c) obtains control.

Idem

(2) Where a legal proceeding based on an adverse claim could not have been brought against an entitlement holder under section 95, a legal proceeding based on the adverse claim may not be brought against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or interest in it, from the entitlement holder.

Priority of purchaser

(3) In a case not covered by the priority rules under the Personal Property Security Act, the following rules apply:

- (a) a purchaser for value of a security entitlement, or interest in it, who obtains control has priority over a purchaser of a security entitlement, or interest in it, who does not obtain control;
- (b) except as otherwise provided in subsection (4), purchasers who have control rank according to priority in time of
 - (i) the purchaser's becoming the person for whom the securities account in which the security entitlement is carried is maintained, if the purchaser obtained control under clause 24(1)(a),
 - (ii) the securities intermediary's agreement to comply with the purchaser's entitlement orders with respect to security entitlements carried or to be carried in the securities account in which the security entitlement is carried, if the purchaser obtained control under clause 24(1)(b), or
 - (iii) if the purchaser obtained control through another person under clause 24(1)(c), the time on which priority would be based under this subsection if the other person were the purchaser.

Priority of securities intermediary

(4) A securities intermediary as purchaser has priority over a conflicting purchaser who has control unless otherwise agreed by the securities intermediary.

Priority of entitlement holders to financial asset

104. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), if a securities intermediary does not have sufficient interests in a particular financial asset to satisfy both the securities intermediary's obligations to entitlement holders who have security entitlements to that financial asset and the securities intermediary's obligation to a creditor of the securities intermediary who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claims of entitlement holders, other than the creditor, have priority over the claim of the creditor.

(2) A claim of a creditor of a securities intermediary who has a security interest in a financial asset held by a securities intermediary has priority over claims of the securities intermediary's entitlement holders who have security entitlements with respect to that financial asset if the creditor has control over the financial asset.

Priority of creditor of securities
intermediary

(3) Where a clearing agency does not have sufficient financial assets to satisfy both the clearing agency's obligations to entitlement holders who have security entitlements with respect to a financial asset and the clearing agency's obligation to a creditor of the clearing agency who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claim of the creditor has priority over the claims of entitlement holders.
